Votes Sufficient Money to Equip Kearney School with Musical Feature.
MISS LATHROP GOES TO CHADRON

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Oct. 15.—(Special.)—The State Normal board has voted a pipe organ for the chapel at Kearney, to cost from $7,000 to $10,000. The board has made an appeal to Andrew Carnegie to see if he will make a donation toward the instrument.

The board took W. F. Crossley of Kearney, contractor, at his word, and refused to allow him $300 extra for odds and ends in plumbing and heating of a new building at the Kearney Normal, erected by him for $27,700, under the verbal agreement that "everything would be included."

Want Car Service.
Regent P. L. Hall of the board of regents of the University of Nebraska, today gave out a statement indicating the attitude of the board on the application it filed before the railway commission for direct street car service between the farm and city campuses. Mr. Hall says he hopes no Lincoln citizen will raise a protest against the change, even if it does cut down the street car service in some other sections of the town, because the board must "keep faith with the people."

By leaving the university down town the board must provide the most convenient car service from the city to farm campuses, he pointed out, for students who have classes at both institutions. The regents secured a very favorable concession from the traction company, he pointed out, and the people will be saved the expense of construction of a track between the two campuses, as at Minneapolis and other big schools, which voted to follow the same system Nebraska voted for last year.

Resolutions for Tibbets.
The Nebraska Prison association has adopted resolutions on the death of Judge A. B. Tibbets, late acting postmaster of Lincoln and one of the vice presidents of the association.

More Supplies Bought.
The board of control purchased additional supplies for the power plant at the state penitentiary. Contracts were let for $4,033, with three firms bidding. The plant at the penitentiary is being enlarged to supply current to all of the state institutions in Lincoln.

Lincoln County May Sue.
The state may collect $5,000 of the old income tax fund due from Lincoln county, but it will also face a suit for $1,000 for money paid over by the county some twenty years ago to make good the loss of state funds in a bank failure, County Treasurer Albert Durbin intimated to Secretary of State Wood today while calling at the capitol. Mr. Durbin had heard that Lancaster had recovered $10,000 under similar circumstances and he intends to present a counter claim for the amount he claims is due Lincoln county.

He was unable to pay and was remanded to the county jail. Before reaching Wynora, Aranda frightened the passengers on the train by brandishing the revolver, and when the train pulled into the station he was taken in custody by the officers.

The union evangelistic services, which have been held at the tabernacle near the high school grounds for the last few weeks by Rev. French Oliver, will close next Sunday. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—While coming from Manley in an automobile, Jake Miller, the liverman there, was coming down a hill where there is a sliding place in the road, and the rear part of the machine skidded. COMMISSION TO LOOK INTO FEASIBILITY OF PIPE LINE
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Oct. 15.—(Special.)—Governor Morehead has named a commission to investigate the feasibility of a $5,000,000 pipe line to convey oil from Casper, Wyo., to Omaha. The commission will serve without expense to the state.

Those named are Senator Jefferson Boddy of Omaha, who is heading the project; John L. McCague of Omaha, State Engineer George E. Johnson, Prof. O. V. P. Stout of the University of Nebraska and George W. Wols of Fremont. The commission was suggested by a resolution passed in the 1915 legislature.

The line would be 600 miles long and two feet in diameter and would follow the line of the Platte river from the Casper oil fields to Omaha. Tax stations would be established along the way.

Nebraska DRUG FIRM TO PAY FINE Justice in Lincoln Upholds Misbranding Law and Company Will Appeal.

TEST FOR MOTHERS' PENSIONS
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Oct. 15.—(Special.)—For selling Hall's catarrh cure and calling it a "cure" the Meier Drug company of Lincoln has been fined $50 and costs on a complaint of the state pure food department charging misbranding. The company appealed.

The case was tried in the justice court. The prosecution attempted to show that the "cure" did not entirely remove the cause of the disease. The defendant, represented by Harry Thompson of Washington, D. C., chief counsel for the Proprietary association, composed of 20 companies, maintained that the medicine was sold under a registered trademark, "Hall's Catarrh Cure," and hence the company has a right to use it.

To Test Mothers' Pensions.
The city legal department, under Mayor Bryan's legal aid program, will prosecute in the district court the case of Mrs. John Miller, mother of six children, to whom the county commissioners refuse to pay a mother's pension as provided in an act of the last legislature. The commissioners have been disregarding the pension orders issued by the district court in every instance, waiting for prosecution so the legality of the law can be tested.

MUDDY ROADS DELAY SCHOOL MOVIE GAME
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Oct. 15.—(Special.)—The special commission which was to have taken pictures of Nebraska schools, to be exhibited in eastern and southern states and in Central and South American countries, struck a bunch of muddy roads and was unable to secure many of the views it had planned.

Heavy rains in the southeastern part of the state during the week made the roads nearly impassable and the commission found itself sadly handicapped. It arrived too late to find the pupils at the schools. Only a few views of rural schools were taken.

HALL DECLARES LACKS AUTHORITY TO PAY
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Oct. 15.—(Special.)—Admitting that he has $2,000 on hand collected from fees due the State Fire commission, State Treasurer Hall, in his answer to the mandamus suit filed by Fire Commissioner Ridgell to collect his salary and expenses, declares that he has no authority to pay out the money without specific legislation.

The treasurer asks to have the suit dismissed on these representations. There is now owing Ridgell's department $20.32 for the month of September. On the application of Ridgell the supreme court issued an alternative writ requiring the treasurer to countersign the warrants of show cause for not doing so. No time has been fixed for the hearing of the case on its merits.

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—Reports that a serious epidemic of cholera is raging at Kiel, the German naval base, are denied. It is asserted that there were only three cases, all in the same family. ### Conditions Fine in Philippines, Says Harrison

MANILA, Oct. 15.—Governor General Francis Burton Harrison, in his message to the legislature, described the era in the Philippine islands preceding the beginning of the present administration in Washington as extravagant and careless, while economic and reforms brought about in 1914-15 he asserts have averted bankruptcy and restored the stability of the treasury without restricting necessary governmental activities.

Despite world-wide disturbances, the message says, commercial conditions in the Philippines are satisfactory, while politically there is harmony between Americans and Filipinos, the latter showing themselves increasingly efficient under a greater measure of self-government. The message adds that this democratic experience justified further extensions, and that the Jones bill was defeated only because there was not sufficient time for its consideration. The governor general said it was expected this measure would be passed at the coming session of congress and that its passage was eagerly awaited.

The message recommends the continuation of emergency taxation, the establishment of an insular bank, government aid in construction of sugar and copra centrals and larger appropriations for education.

Vote Boxes Thrown In Street as Guns Begin to Vomit Fire
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 15.—The crowd had gathered to get first news of the decision of the committee which would settle whether Tristram T. Hyde or John P. Grace had been elected mayor, when the shooting started.

Ridney J. Cohen, the reporter who was killed, met his death, as far as can be learned, when a pistol, for the possession of which three men were struggling, was discharged as Cohen was making his way to a window.

While the shooting was going on in the committee room two or three ballot boxes were thrown into the street. Officers in the room took charge of the twenty boxes remaining.

Within a short time after the shooting Governor Manning at Columbia ordered out two companies of militia and later placed the entire Second regiment under orders to be ready for any emergency. Within a short time the two militia companies were marching to King and George streets. An extra force of deputy sheriffs quickly made their appearance. The guardsmen, sheriffs and nearly the entire police force remained on duty in that section of the city during the afternoon. Saloons were closed by order of Governor Manning.

Wilson to Spend Next Summer at the Shadow Lawn

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—President Wilson today decided to spend next summer in New Jersey in the former home of John A. McCall at Elberon, near Long Branch. The estate, on which stands a magnificent house, is known as Shadow Lawn. The president was offered the free use of Shadow Lawn by a committee which brought a letter from Governor Fielder. He insisted, however, that he should pay rent and said that if the committee pleased it could give the money to charity.

Governor Fielder, in his letter, urged the president to spend next summer in New Jersey to receive the "glad tidings" of his renomination. The president only smiled when that was mentioned. When Mr. Wilson announced that he would accept the invitation he was warmly applauded and all the delegation insisted on shaking hands with him. His acceptance means he will not return to Harlakenden house, the residence of Winston Churchill at Cornish, N. H., which he has occupied each summer since becoming president. The McCall mansion is not so secluded as Harlakenden house, but is larger. Arrangements for turning it over to the president already have been made.

Money Juggled in Banks to Make the Munday Books Jibe
MORRIS, Ill., Oct. 15.—A story of how money was quickly obtained from other banks to boost the La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank's cash to the point necessary for the obtaining of a state bank examiner's certificate, and of how the loan was almost immediately returned, was told today at the trial of C. R. Munday, who is charged with conspiracy with the enforced closing of the La Salle Street bank, by Charles G. Fox, junior vice president of the bank.

Fox identified a cashier's check for $250,000, on which he said he obtained from the Corn Exchange bank the currency necessary to the issuance of a state bank examiner's certificate.

It has been charged that the same check was used three times, one for each of the three smaller Munday-Lortimer banks.

The witness said Munday told him to go for the money, which he would "not have very long." It said he supposed the money was counted by the bank examiner. Fifteen minutes later, he said, he was ordered to take the money back to the Corn Exchange bank, which he did. Fox, who was indicted with Munday on a similar charge, admitted on the stand that he understood the indictment against him would not be pressed because of his testimony in behalf of the state.
