A GAIN we behold the success of an Omaha maid.

Miss Myrtle Moses has been engaged by Maestro Campanini to sing for the Chicago Grand Opera company, which is soon to inaugurate a ten weeks' season at the Chicago Auditorium.

Miss Moses lived here and received her first musical training in Omaha. She is a young woman of unusual beauty and charm. Prior to leaving for the east to continue her musical studies Miss Moses sang in the choir of Temple Israel and the First Presbyterian church. Last year she returned to Omaha and gave a concert recital for her many friends.

The Julius Rosewalds and Mrs. Eisenrath of Chicago and Omaha friends early manifested interest in Miss Moses' career and sent her abroad, where her voice was "placed" and her training was finished by Jean de Reszke himself. Her voice is a mezzo soprano.

Campanini engaged Miss Moses after he heard her sing the Libetost from "Tristan and Isolde."

Emilia in "Otello," Mercedes in "Carmen," Flossilde in "Das Rheingold" and the maid Suzuki in "Madame Butterfly" are among the parts for which Miss Moses has been definitely listed.

RANGE OF VEGETABLE PRICES

Green Stuff from the South is Now Arriving on the Local Market.

BUTTER IS ONE CENT HIGHER

Sugar is up a dime in the wholesale market and flour rose a quarter a barrel in the last week. Sugar can still be had nineteen pounds for a dollar, but dealers say this may not continue long. The rise in flour makes a difference of 54 cents a sack of forty-eight pounds. This makes the best flour $1.40 a sack now.

Some canned goods have gone up also on account of the extremely wet season, which made it impossible to get the garden produce at the right time for canning. Tomatoes suffered most in this way. The result is that canned tomatoes are hard to get now, and that some factories have stopped taking orders.

Ripe tomatoes are 75 to 85 cents a basket now, while last year at this time they could be had for 30 cents.

Vegetables from the South.

Wax and green beans and other vegetables are coming on the market from the south now, as the home-grown stuff is so scarce, due to the rainy fall and the frost some days ago.

Jonathan and Belle Flower apples are on the market at $1.95 and $1.90 respectively.

October 19 is to be apple day all over the country. The day is set apart for special apple shows and demonstrations. Hayden Brothers' grocery is preparing a special display of all grades of apples on that day.

Peaches, Italian plums and Bartlett pears are about off the market. Lemons are 15 to 20 cents a dozen. Kieffer pears are $1.10 a bushel.

The first grape fruit of the season is on the market. The 14 size are selling at 15¢ cents apiece.

California Figs Here.

No new figs from Turkey and no dates from Arabia are coming to the market now as they should at this time of the year. This condition is also attributed to the war in Europe. New California figs are on the market, however.

New honey in the comb is on the market at 17¢ cents a pound comb. Strained honey in glass jars can be had at 25 cents a jar of twenty-eight ounces.

Eggs are up to 28 cents a dozen. Butter is up a cent over last week. Pork is high. Chops and loins are 20 cents, wholesale.

Beef is reasonable. Round steak is 15 cents a pound. That is lower than it has been for three years. Last year it was selling for 17¢ cents a pound at this time of year. Shoulder steak is 11¢ cents. Bonnets are 5 to 10 cents. The best rib roasts are 30 cents a pound.

Hindquarters of lambs are 15¢ cents a pound.

Coughed for Three Years.

A grateful sufferer writes, "Your medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery, cured my cough of three years' standing." See All druggists.—Advertisement.

CITY ATTORNEYS AND WEBSTER MIX

Attorneys for Omaha Alleged Street Car Company Does Not Comply with Court Order.

SEARS CONSIDERS THE MATTER

A spirited argument was precipitated before District Judge Sears, when City Attorneys Rine and Lambert and Attorney J. L. Webster, for the street railway company, went to the mat on the issue whether the company had evaded an order of the court providing for a statement of physical valuation of its property in the seven-fares-for-a-quarter injunction suit.

The company's statement as made to the court contained various figures and totals which applied to its entire lines in Omaha, Council Bluffs, South Omaha and suburbs.

The statement, Mr. Rine declared, was "an evasion" because, he said, the order manifestly required a statement of physical valuation in Omaha, alone, where the seven-fares-for-a-quarter is applicable. The statement, as made, he declared, was useless to the court.

"They say they do not know the valuation in the city of Omaha," observed Mr. Rine, "but the petition alleges the rate fixed by the ordinance would not allow a proper return on the capital invested."

Somehow among the statements made by the street railway company, Mr. Rine then deduced, was at least one which was "mendacious."

Want Order Changed.

Attorney Webster then came back with the argument that the statement of physical valuation, as furnished to the court, was exactly what the court's order required and what the city attorneys had asked for.

"The city attorneys now ask the something be interpolated into the order which they did not ask in their motion and which the court did not put in the order," declared Mr. Webster. "They are now entomped from reopening the issue and seeking for additional information."

It is conceded on all hands that the information so far furnished by the street railway company has not been such as would clear up the seven-fares-for-a-quarter issue.

Judge Sears look under advisement the motion of the city that the company be required to make its statement "more specific and certain."

Federal Grand Jury Finds Forty-Three True Bills Here

The federal grand jury Friday afternoon returned forty-three indictments, twenty being in the Omaha district, thirteen in the Norfolk district and ten in the Chadron district.

Four of the Omaha district cases were for violation of the anti-dope law and ten cases referred to illegal transportation of liquors.

All but two of the cases in the Norfolk and Chadron districts were for violations of the statutes regarding sale of liquor to Indians.

Miss Gamlin Will Meet S. S. Teachers At the "Y" Today

Miss Alice Gamlin, Sunday party worker among boys and girls, says the meeting at the Young Women's Christian association Saturday at 4 p. m. will be "the most important meeting of my department during the Omaha campaign."

It will be for Sunday school teachers and officers, and Miss Gamlin will outline her plan for making the best use of the campaign among the boys and girls, getting them interested in the Sunday schools and making out of them regular attendants and students and workers.

Omaha Boy in Navy Drowned in China

J. C. Moore, 2107 Lethrop street, has just received a cablegram that his son, David Cory Moore, chief electrician on the United States steamer Quirus, detailed to Chinese waters, was drowned at Shanghai on October 11. No details of the drowning were given in the cable.
