NEW YORK, Oct. 15.-Dun's Review to-morrow will say: With cross currents diminishing in force, the tide of business is rising at an accelerated pace and an era of wide-spread activity is in prospect. Usually during a transition period gains are re-corded slowly, but strictly mercantile con-ditions have passed the stage where pros-reas is difficult of discernment and of ate industrial expansion has been phe-nomenally rapid. Reports from nearly all sections of the country tell of the un-checked growth of new enterprise, which, while manifest in varying degrees in dif-cent lines and localities, is everywhere sturance of agricultural success, to-mother with almost unlimited financial re-notices, has given the commercial world the confidence essential to the develop-ment of national prosperity, and the batter, with few exceptions.
