

YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED ON STAGE OF GAYETY

Chorus girls preceded Miss Madge Saffer and Earl Edwards out on the stage of the Gayety theater Friday evening, where Judge Edward Leeder was waiting to say the words that would make them man and wife.

Softly the orchestra played the strains of the wedding march and a crowd that packed the theater to the doors held its breath. The bride had been an usher at the Gayety for three seasons and the groom is an employe of the Brandeis Stores.

A wedding present of a considerable sum was presented in the way of coins rained down on the stage surrounding the happy couple together with showers of rice from friends occupying boxes. Manager Johnson did the honors by a happy address of congratulation to the blushing couple.

MOTHER OF GUS RENZE DIES AT ST. LOUIS HOME

Word has been received from St. Louis from Gus Renze, well known artificer for King Ak-Sar-Ben, that his mother passed away there Friday evening from ailments incident to old age, she being over 85 years old. Gus went to St. Louis several days ago upon receipt of the information that his mother was not quite as well as she had been and was falling. The funeral will be held at St. Louis

Sunday afternoon, with interment at St. Louis.
