Plans for the winter season begin to loom on the social horizon. This week sees the safe launching of the Drama League with its lecture by Lady Gregory at the Brandeis theater Thursday afternoon.

The Fine Arts society opens its season with a reception at the home of Mrs. J. E. Summers Tuesday. Wednesday the Subscription Dancing club, whose affairs of last winter were most brilliant and enjoyable, launches its work.

Debutantes are beginning to plan the dates upon which they will make their formal bow to society. Miss Marion Towle will be the first of the season's debutantes, having chosen November 17 to make her bow.

That society will "trip the light fantastic" every night during the holiday season is the outlook. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Howe are planning a dancing party for their daughter, Miss Marion Howe, the reigning queen of Ak-Sar-Ben, who will return from New York for the holidays.

Stag Dinner at Nash Home. Echoes are heard of a stag dinner given a week ago by Mr. Louis C. Nash to his associates on the Ak-Sar-Ben board of governors at the beautiful Nash home.

When the company was summoned to the dining room each place was found set with a tempting quail ready to be man-handled by knife and fork, but as each guest seized these table utensils, whose use has come to be demanded in polite society, he short-circuited an electric current neatly fed by concealed wires that sent the birds flying about the room.

At the conclusion of the evening it was unanimously voted that those who were not there would never know what they had missed.

Changes in Residence. Dr. and Mrs. Updegraff have moved to the Colliery.

Mr. and Mrs. Adair's new home at Fifty-second and California streets is nearing completion and they expect to move into it next month.

The Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Holzapfel have moved from 330 Davenport to 2815 on the same street, which is nearer to Mr. Holzapfel's church, St. Barnabas.

Hoopers at Foot Ball Game. Omaha society was well represented at the great Notre-Dame-Dame foot ball game in Lincoln Saturday. The
