DON'T FORGET

The Big Auction Sale of Improved and Unimproved Business Property on North 24th Street Tomorrow, Tuesday, October 26th, at 10 A. M.

Dowd Auction Co.

Auctioneers

The sale takes place on the property beginning at 1629 to 1703 N. 24th street, and 1708 to 1724 N. 24th street. Six separate parcels of improved and unimproved business property all to be sold on easy terms of one-fourth down and the balance in small payments over a period of five years and with interest

This is a genuine auction sale. There will be no buy-bidding. We have had calls from prospective bidders and real estate brokers who will bid for clients. We are sure that every property will sell. Every piece of property is owned by a nonresident and he instructs us to sell. If you want a bargain, w bring $200 in cash and bid to suit yourself.

SHEEP-Offerings were the smallest for a Monday since the last week of August, only about 106 cars or 35,500 being reported in. In spite of this falling off in supplies, South Omaha retained the lead among the western markets, having almost as many as the combined estimates of Chicago and Kansas City. Today's run was $500 smaller than last week, and 15,000 short of two weeks aso, but 19,000 larger than for the same day last year.

HOUS-There was only a light run in sight, even for a Monday, the estimate calling for seme forcy-eight cars, or 3,260 head. This is 500 smaller than a week ago, but is larger than two weeks ago, but is larger than two weeks ago by 300 head, and is a gain of 1,300 head as compared with the corresponding Monday a year ago.

The trade opened out in fairly good shape this morning. Supplies were light, and under the influence of encouraging advices from other markets shippers showed more activity than they have for several days, starting out early and buy-

Killing hogs started selling on a fully steady level, but after a little over half the offerings had been sold, prices weakened off and later sales were all of 5c lower. Closing values were weak at the oecline, and the late rade was practically lifeless, there being several loads still unsold at a rather late hour.

Bulk of all the sales landed at $7.200 7.60, with tops at $7.5. The general market, while far from satisfactory to selling interests, did not show up much different from the average trade at the close of last week.

Grain Starts to Move to Market

While grain stocks in Omaha elevators are far below what they were one year ago, the movement to market has set in and unless the stuff is sent out about as fast as it comes in, it is expected that the normal will be reached very soon. Now the greatest shortage is in oats and it is asserted that this is due to the fact 24,077 that farmers are holding both for feeding purposes and for the hope of higher prices in the event of a large foreign demand develops.

Wheat receipts Monday were 174 cars, some fifty more than on the corresponding day last year. Prices were 1 to 2 cents up, sales being made at 30006 cents per bushel.

Corn receipts were fair, with 44 carloads on the market and prices down 1/2 There were 58 cars of oats, selling at 29936% cents, % cent down from Satur-

World-Wide Move To Get Trade for U. S. Under Way

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 .- Elaborate plans for a world-wide campaign for trade by the United States are revealed in the estimates of the Department of Commerce expenditures for the next fiscal year to be presented to congress this winter.

Through the bureau of forsign and domestic commerce the department proposes to aid American merchants and manufacturers in taking advantage of opportunities now before them and in preparing for the struggle for the trade supremacy which commercial officials are certain will follow the European war. Reorganization of the staff in Washits present extent of the foreign commercial service, are contemplated, according to a statement today by Dr. E. El Pratt, chief of the bureau. Appropriations will be sought to provide for extensive investigations of commercial by the cost of production given.

"The commercial attache service has been in existence just about a year," of the general program of 'preparedness.' These attaches, it is intended, will be stationed in Japan, India, South Africa.
