GET TOGETHER IS WATCHWORD OF ESTABROOK

Noted Orator and Former Omaha Omaha Man Talks to Republicans of State at McKinley Club Banquet.

TIME NOW FOR SOBER THOUGHT

Says Country Is in Midst of Most Profound Business Depression Since Year of 1896.

PUTS BLAME ON DEMOCRATS

Henry D. Estabrook, often spoken of as a presidential possibility, was the principal speaker at the banquet of the McKinley club, held here last evening. He spoke on the subject of "Get Together," and showed how easy it was for the republican party to stick together. He said that the G. O. P. was big enough for La Follette and Roosevelt and the rest and that they should resent a united front in the coming contest. He

"Americans are beeing a homogenous people. It is seldom you meet a man whose peculiarities of wardrobe, hair cut, or parts of speech betray his geography. We look alike, we dress alike, we talk alike, and some of these days we are going to think alike. And the time for republicans to begin to think alike is now-this very minute. The occassion-the necessity is here. Our country is at sixes and sevens-inside and out.

"Except for the lamentable, but lucrative traffic in war goods the United States, so far as its legitimate industry is concerned, is in the grip of as profound a business depression as we have experienced since 1896. Mr. McAdoo in a recent speech says that prosperity has returned. Of course, prosperity could not "return" if it never had been absent. But it is true that a sort of fearful prosperity is upon us-prosperity had returned-temporarily at least, and perhaps with a vengeance. In the October Review of Reviews there is a non-partisan article by Charles F. Speare, which every American ought to read. Let me quote you a little

In the history of American business no chapter reads more like a the events of the last year. No more rapid or complete transistion from a state of dependence to one of independence, or from the 'pauper to prince' condition, has ever occurred in any country.

'A year ago the United States was worried by its debts to Europe, and apparently had no means of paying. The amount was from $300,000,000 to $400,000,000. England sent commissioners over here to tell us how it must be paid. The main argument was to pay in gold and pay quickly. American dollars were at a heavy discount, $7 being required at one time to offset an English pound, against a normal $4.%. Industries were closing. The numbers of unemployed taxed the organized efforts of all charity bodies. Eavings banks were losing deposits at an alarming rate. Martgages were being foreclosed on a almost unknown in the east. The stock exchanges, were silent. There were several hundred thousand idle cars on the side-tracks of American railroads, and a proportionate number of idle engines. Money was 'tight,' and the banks in New York were much under their legal reserve requirements. Gold poin and gold certificates were being hoarded. Mines were shut down. Building operations were at a standstil. Even automobile sales droped abruptly.'

J. P. Morgan Has Operation for Appendicitis

NEW YORK, Oct. 28,-J. P. Morgan underwent an operation for appendicitis at his country home at Giencove, L. I., The operation was reported successful and Mr. Morgan is resting comfortably.

Mr. Morgan was at his office Wednesday, but was indisposed yesterday and remained at his Giencove home. His physicians discovered he was suffering from a mild attack of appendicitis. In to guard again a recurrence, the physicians decided to remove the financier's appendix,

The operation was performed at neon today and was reported to have been successful in every way. Mr. Morgan was said to be resting comfortably. His general condition is so excellent that his ompt recovery is looked for. So far as could be learned today's operation is in no way the result of the shooting of Mr. Morgan by Frank Holt at Giencove on July 3 last. Mr. Morgan has been at his office which is only too evident in the endeavor since early August and has been very active in business during the last few months, especially in connection with the Anglo-French can.

Five bodies remained over night in an undertaking establishment while relatives endeavored to identify them. Four of these had been identified at noon and there remained the charred form of a little girl, burned beyond recognition.

After the four had been taken away, Mrs. John Ahearn, mother of Agnes Ahearn, 8 years old, who was unaccounted for, went to the morgue and finally accepted the body as that of her child. It was placed in a coffin and sent to her home.

While investigation has not fully established the origin of the fire, Acting Chief Neal of the state police, after an investigation today, announced that he had found no one criminally responsible.

The only facts substangated was the the flames originated in a small store room in the basement, which was locked. It is known that it was customary to place waste paper and sweepings wooden barrels in the store rooms. Ac cording to the sisters of the Order of Notre Dame, who were in charge of the school, nothing else was there. At one end of the room there was a gas jet. This room was closely examined today for evidence showing how the fire started.

Lord Sydenham Believes There is Truth in Reports Regarding Overtures to End the War.

ASSERTS KAISER CANNOT WIN

Declares in Interview that Tentons Have Not Won Single Big Military Success.

RESPONSIBILITY ON THE ALLIES

LONDON, Oct. 29 .- Confessing ENTENTE IS WATCHING GREECE that he had no information which led him to feel certain that current reports regarding peace overtures are they are not at all improbable,

"I should say," he said, in an interthe overtures were mainly inspired by the now certain impossibility of growing difficulties of the misconceived and dangerous advance into Russia. From first to last, the Germans have not won a great military success, and, although every effort has been made to maintain confidence of the ultimate result in the minds of the German people and of neutrals, there must be many who realize that the prospects of ultimate victory are growing dimmer.

"Without in the lease wishing to underrate the tremendous difficulties that lie before us and the great efforts which are still essential on the part of the allies, it does not seem unreasonable to suppose that the Germans may consider the time has come to fly kites indicating at least, apparently, their desire for immediate peace, although they may have another motive—by this I mean a desire to inti-mate to neutrals that they have arrived at a reasonable attitude of mind and that the whole responsibility for the further horrors of war must rest with the allies."
