LINKS ARE LAYING FOR CENTRAL LADS

Lads from Capital City Plan to Trim Up Coach Mulligan, Who Deserted Them for Omaha.

BIG PARADE BEFORE THE GAME

The biggest game of the year on the Omaha Central High school schedule will be staged Friday at Route park when the gridiron battlers from the Lincoln High school will engage in mortal combat with Coach Mulligan's pupils.

The Capital City lads are looking for a victory; they are after the goal of one Coach Mulligan because Mulligan deserted Lincoln for Omaha this fall after turning out a championship eleven at Lincoln a year ago.

"Get Mulligan," is the byword at Lincoln and the plucky warriors from that village intend to make good.

But the Links will win only after a hot fight, for Mulligan is just as determined to win as his former charges, and he is laboring overtime to whip the local squad into some kind of shape.

Whether he will be successful in his endeavor is dubious. Omaha has already dropped two games and Lincoln is a big favorite, as Lincoln has practically the same team which kicked Omaha, 28 to 0, last year, when Mulligan was at the helm for the opposition.

Every member of the local squad was out for practice Monday with the exception of Paul Beard, Beard will be out for practice this afternoon, it is expected.

Mulligan must put more speed into his backfield if he hopes to give Lincoln a tussle. It was the backfield which failed to respond in the game at York. The scoring machine slipped all its cogs on several occasions and was slow in getting the plays off.

Links Are Heavy. Lincoln will outweigh the metropolis athletes several pounds to the man. It is said the Capital City line from tackle to tackle will weigh 190 pounds. This is probably exaggerated a little, but the line must be heavier than Omaha's if such an assertion is to be made at all.

Elaborate preparations have been made for the game, starting from the school building at 1 o'clock. The Omaha and Lincoln teams, the bands from both schools and the student body of the Central will march in the parade.

Seats will be reserved for the school teachers who will be attending the state convention at the time and for some 150 rooters expected to come up from Lincoln.

A preliminary game will be staged between the second teams of the two schools. Last year the Omaha scrubs copped and are counting on a repetition. This game will start at 2 o'clock.

Omaha City Eleven is Eliminated from Omaha Soccer Race

The Townsends put an end to all hopes the Omaha City eleven had of coping the city championship Sunday by wallowing the latter soccer crew at Cater Lake, 5 to 0.

The Citizens played in hard luck and in the first half would have had their opponents on the run if fortune had favored them a little. Time and again the corners were forced and the black and white escaped by the narrowest margin.

The Townsends were exceptionally fortunate in registering their goals, five out of seven attempts being successful.

At Miller park the valiant Caladonian redeemed themselves by trimming the Bohemians, 2 to 0. The latter played a stiff game, but great defensive work by Lawden, Henderson and company and the goal shooting of Leach and Anderson proved too much for them.

Shevlin in Charge of Yale's Eleven

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 1.—Foot ball coaching at Yale will be under the direction of former Captain Thomas H. Shevlin for the remainder of the season. It was announced today. Mr. Shevlin is on his way here from Minneapolis in response to a call from Captain Alexander Wilson, Coach Frank McKinley will remain and finish out the season as an assistant, devoting his attention to developing end men. It is understood that he will not return next season, although his contract has one more year to run.

CITY PUTS LID ON PRIZE FIGHTING

This Includes All "Commercialized Boxing" Under Any Guise Whatever.

INCLUDES ALL GREATER OMAHA

The lid has been clamped down tight on "commercialized boxing" in this city. Six members of the city council, Commissioner Butler being absent, unanimously agreed to support a resolution which will be offered this morning, setting forth this pronouncement.

The discussion arose during an executive meeting of the commissioners to consider Auditorium rentals. Commissioner Kugel of the police department brought up the question of boxing, sometimes referred to as prize fighting.

"I would like to have the entire church go on record on this matter. I don't feel like standing the brunt of the situation alone," said Mr. Kugel.

The object of the resolution will be to prohibit advertised exhibitions between men who stand up in a squared ring with gloves upon their hands and who endeavor to hit each other with the gloves. Even if these exhibitions are not advertised in the regular way, but are promoted quietly, they will be under the ban.

Covers Entire City. The first suggestion was whether boxing contests should be allowed during athletic entertainments at the Auditorium. That matter having disposed of, then the entire city was considered.

The sticking point among the commissioners was the proposition of social boxing matches, such as are sometimes held before conventions for the delectation of out-of-town folks who like to witness something recherche while away from the home town. This matter was left open. The city attorney is looking up the law on that point. There is a question whether a boxer who receives $5 for a few minutes exhibition before a convention or similar gathering is any more immune than another boxer who may receive $50 for appearing at a regular "mill."

In any event, Commissioner Kugel insists, he avers, to enforce the state law here on the subject of boxing.

Catarrah a Blood Disease S. S. S. Drives It From Your System

Because Catarrah affects the nose and throats causing sores in the nostrils, stoppage of air-passages and gathering in the throat, it has been common practice to treat Catarrah by lotions, washes and sprays applied to these parts. This mode of treatment is entirely wrong. It cannot give permanent relief, and it is liable to irritate and aggravate the trouble. Catarrah cannot be trifled with. If allowed to run on it will disease the bronchial tubes, settle on the lungs, the stomach—indeed it is a very serious disease. Don't treat it locally. The fact that it causes headaches is proof that it is caused by impure and diseased blood. The one treatment that has proved effective in the treatment of Catarrah is S. S. S. It
