Seventeen Acres Sold—A deal was closed Monday by Hastings & Heyden for the sale of seventeen acres in Keystone Park from Charles Blust to A. H. Goodell. The consideration was $7,500.

A sorrowful scene was presented yesterday morning at the home of her little brother, who was killed by an automobile Saturday evening and who was tenderly borne to St. Mary Magdalene cemetery by six of his associates of the immaculate conception school. Mrs. Homan was in a hospital when her son met his death. Monday afternoon she was conveyed back to her home at 2710 South Twentieth street, that she might be near the casket in which rested her twin son. The mother was raised from her bed and was assisted while she took a farewell look at the face of her little brother. Mrs. Homan is in a serious condition and the tragedy of a few days ago rests heavily upon her mind. When the casket was closed for the last time yesterday morning before leaving for the church, Julia, twin sister of the dead boy, cried as if her little heart would break and the other brothers and sisters of the bereaved home stood with added countenances. Father Theobald Kalamaz of the Immaculate Conception church at Twenty-fourth and Hickory streets conducted a quiet high mass, which was largely attended. The school in connection with the church was closed during the morning. Master Homan attended the school and sang in the school choir at the church. During the service friends comforted the sick mother at home. Children of the school sent floral tokens and they sang during the service. These boys of the immaculate conception school served as pallbearers: Ben Zalotovsky, Robert Pernitsky, Theodore Pernitsky, Bernard Yardnak, Leo Krakowski and Louis Travetaki. At the conclusion of the service the boys and girls of the school marched to Twenty-fourth and Vinton streets, where they stood in solemn lines while the funeral carriages passed them. The girls wore white head coverings.

SAFETY DEVICES ON SOUTH SCHOOLS

Board of Education Approves of Installation Everywhere They Do Not Now Exist.

MANUAL TRAINING ADDITION

The Board of Education last evening approved of the installation of safety door devices for all schools of the South Side and a fire escape for Brown Park school. This work will be done without delay. A manual training addition will be erected at the South Side High school and two-room additions will be added to Central and Columbian schools. Eunice E. Clark, supervisor of extension work, was granted the use of rooms in Corvallis, Corvair and Edward home-water schools for social extension work one evening a week in each school. P. J. Tarkenton of the board wrote from Kearney City to ask that his leave of absence be extended, which request was granted. The teachers' committee was given authority to act upon the request of the Miller Park Mothers' Club for social center pri-leges at the Miller Park school.

A new piano will be purchased for the Castellar social center. Dr. D. E. Jenkins was allowed an expense bill of $11.18, which money he reported as having been spent last summer during a trip of inspection in the east, looking over applicants for positions as principals of Omaha high schools.

WILL CONSIDER PUTTING CITY PRISONERS TO WORK

The city council committee of the whole next Monday morning will consider a proposition that prisoners sentenced by the police judge shall be put out to work for the city instead of enjoying idleness at the county jail. If the plan goes through, prisoners will be required to remove snow this winter.

PNEUMONIA THREATENS HEAD OF FARNAM SCHOOL

Agnes Harrison, principal of Farnam school, is confined to her home. She was threatened with pneumonia, but present indications favor her early recovery.

STOP CATARRH OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once. If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief. Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffling, blowing, no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.—Advertisement.

Special Lumber Trains—On its coast line the Milwaukee has inaugurated a daily lumber train service. Daily a lumber train starts from Seattle, picking up cars of lumber at stations through Washington, Oregon and Idaho, bringing the train east as far as Moberly, N. D., before it breaks bulk. With this service, lumber leaving Seattle reaches Omaha the ninth day after shipment.

LITTLE PRECIPITATION IN OMAHA DURING OCTOBER

The total precipitation in Omaha during the month of October was eighty-nine hundredths of an inch, according to the monthly meteorological summary just issued. Of this total, .58 fell within twenty-four consecutive hours on October 12 and 13. The report shows that not even a trace of snow was visible during the month. This is exceedingly light precipitation for October or for any month for that matter.

WANTS DIVORCE THREE MONTHS AFTER WEDDING

Less than three months after her wedding day, Lucy C. Christian is suing for a divorce from Charles M. Christian on the grounds of nonsupport. She states he also tried to get by trickery what little property she had. Lillian I. Parmelee sued William H. Parmelee for divorce on the grounds of nonsupport. They were married in Omaha in March, 1909. She asks also the restoration of her maiden name, Smith.

JURY RECOMMENDS SMITH BE TRIED FOR SHOOTING

R. M. Smith of East St. Louis repeated his version of the killing of Mrs. Frances Campbell of 229 South Nineteenth street, Sunday afternoon, and a coroner's jury returned a verdict that she came to her death from a gunshot wound inflicted by Smith. It recommended that he be held for trial and the woman's husband, Patsy E. Campbell, be held for further investigation. Campbell testified that Smith deliberately shot Mrs. Campbell.

JUDGE CRAWFORD IS BUSY AGENT OF DANIEL CUPID

Marriage licenses issued in Omaha during the month of October were 211, compared with 223 in October last year. So far this year Marriage License Clerk Stephenson has issued 1,262 licenses to wed and County Judge Crawford has officiated at 129 marriages. During the same period last year the judge performed only 121 ceremonies.

"BILLY THE BEAR" SINGS THE PRAISES OF CHADRON

L. J. F. Inger, clerk of the district court of Dawes county and known among old-timers as "Billy the Bear," is stopping at the Merchants and is singing the praises of Chadron, his home city. "Chadron is on the boom," says Billy the Bear. "We will soon have a new bank, making three in all, and every other line of business is prosperous."

THREE HUNDRED GIRLS ATTEND THIS LUNCHEON

Over 300 working girls attended a luncheon meeting at Volunteers' hall on Fifteenth street yesterday. It was led by Mrs. J. M. Aikin and was one of a series of luncheon meetings for working women to be held in connection with the gospel campaign following the "Billy" Sunday revival.

Nebraskans Buy Indian Lands On the Crow Agency

Monday, about 20,000 acres of Indian inherited land and the land on non-competent Indians was disposed of by the superintendent, Evan W. Estep. The land was sold at appraised prices, ranging from $2 to $30 per acre, the price depending in a great measure upon the quality. Some of the land can be irrigated and this sold at the highest prices. Among the bidders for the Crow Indian agency land were a number of Omaha and Nebraska parties who went to the agency last week and made their selections. The land has all been surveyed, allotted and is in tracts of from forty to 30 acres each. Some tracts are under cultivation and on some of them fairly good houses, formerly occupied by Indians. Among the former allottees who have died and left heirs, who now, under the provisions of the federal laws dealing with Indians are such distinguished persons as: Old Snake, Big Head High Up, Don't Fall Down, Has Things, Kills With the Horse, Knows the Whole Camp, Kills on the Other Side of the River, People Going, Comes Out First, Knows the Road, Lucy Solds the Bear, Whistle Water, Fish High Up, Sarah Highnose, Does Everything, Sits Down Far Away, John Rides the Bear and scores of others whose names are as suggestive.
