Member of Upper House Says if Russia Got Rid of Grand Duke, So Could Britain of Premier.

CENSORSHIP BITTERLY FLAYED

LONDON, Nov. 4 .- Cabinet responsibility, the conduct of the war and the censorship were discussed, criticised and defended at a short sitting of the House of Lords this evening.

Baron St. Davids started the discussion by demanding that a full meeting of the privy council, which is composed of some hundreds of members from all parts of the empire, should be called to discuss the present position of affairs.

He said he believed the war would have been better conducted by the late liberal government than by the Coppell of the New York banking present coalition. The late governhouse of Maitland, Coppell & Co., ment, he said, carried on the war with great vigor, while since the of the Denver & Rio Grande Rail- coalition was formed no extraorroad company, succeeding Benjamin dinary vigor was noticeable. He F. Bush, at a reorganization meeting declared that those who have made mistakes should be "scrapped" and that hereafter no man should be given office merely because of former services or rank or wealth.
