Cables and Sight Drafts on London

Rise. MORE DEALINGS IN LIRES NOW

Stagnation in Equipment Markets Coincided with Dispatches Telling of Lowest Prices for Pig Iron Year.

NEW FORK, Oct. 16.—Despite the more favorable aspects presented by the democratic monetary situation foreign exchange continues to work against this country. Cables and sight drafts on London teday rose to 4.39 and 4.58, respectively, these figures representing the highest quotations of the month. Various explanations were advanced, one being the continued victories of the German forces, ing the continued victories of the German forces.

As a matter of fact, today's inquiry for exchange was again largely due to the urgent necessity of meeting maturing three-month loans contracted in London by local interests within a formight of the outbreak of the war and for which foreign tenders show little inclination to grant renewals. There is also reason to believe that a formidable short interest in exchange has existed since the early part of the month.

Today's business included more dealings in lires, representing exchange on Rome. Prospects of another favorable bank statement, with the cash gain estimated at $9,00,000 to $12,000,000, and the likelihood of another reduction of the existing deficit contributed to greater ease in rates for time and call loans, but quotations were unchanged. A few renewals of thirty-day loans were made at life per cent and call money was more battless for studied in Chicago under Prof. Von Dealings in listed stocks, wherein the stock exchange allows no price conditions, were smaller, but in the unofficial market some of these same securities were offered at further declines from July 30 figures. The new city notes were fairly active at prices slightly below their best quotations, Stagnation in the equipment markets coincided with dispatches from iron centers, which reported the lowest prices for pig iron in years and included reports of continued curtailment at some of the largest plants in the Fittaburgh district. Weekly bank clearings made an indifferent exhibit, this center again showing the largest contraction.

Preliminary figures of the country's foreign trade for September disclose large declines in imports and exports, the latter item decreasing by more than $62,000,000.

Thomas F. Quinlan, general manager of Hayden Bros.' stores, who has resigned to go with the Brandels stores and other Brandels interests November 1, was given a hearty send-off and farewell dinner last night at the Henshaw hotel by the heads of departments at Hayden Bros. ## HAIR FELL OUT BY HANDFULS

Also Had Itching Burning Scalp. Hair Thin, Dryand Lifeless. Could NotSleeponAccount of Itching. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

Kalkaska, Mich. -- "My hair began falling out about five years ago and I also had itching and burning of the scalp. My hair fell out by handfuls and it was thin, dry and lifeless. I could not sleep well on account of the itching. My hatr became so thin I commenced using 'rate' and switches until I had lost so much hair there to cover the 'rata.'

"I used ----, also quantities of --- which did not relieve the torture which as times was almost unbearable, sepecially at night. I was obliged to baths my head in seda water in order to get any rest. I then tried Cuticura Scap and Ointment, rubbing the Cuticura Cintment into the scalp at night and washing it out in the morning with Cuticura Soap. It was about four weeks when I was entirely cured." Signed) Mrs. Henry Frisk, March 21, 1014.
