Walnut Telephone Exchange Operates in West Territory

The new Walnut telephone exchange went into operation last night with a force of ten operators on the board. Today all numbers in the extreme western part of the city carry the prefix Walnut. The territory served by the new exchange extends north to Pratt street and the Fontenelle park district; east to Thirty-fourth, taking in the Bemis park district down to Cuming street, and west of Forty-second street to the city limits. It covers all of Dundee and some 300 phones to the south of Benson and between Dundee and Omaha.

The new telephone directory, containing all Walnut numbers is now official. The new exchange is located at Forty-sixth and Isard streets. Eight telephone exchanges are now in operation in Omaha and a ninth will be opened this spring. It will be the Colfax exchange located at Thirtieth street and Fowler avenue.

State Club Women in Convention Declare for Votes for Women.

BETTER WAGES FOR WORKERS

Deplore the Great War in Europe and Vote to Hold Their Next Meeting in the City of Norfolk.

Norfolk will entertain the next convention of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs. Although the Omaha Woman's club and the Lincoln club extended invitations, it was decided to hold the convention in the Third district, since no other state meeting had been held there.

At the meeting of the Omaha Woman's club Monday, reports of the convention which was held last week at Pawnee City will be made by the president, Mrs. N. H. Nelson, Mrs. F. H. Cole, Mrs. K. M. J. Edholm and Mrs. Johnson will report the civil service reform department proceedings. A directory meeting at 1:30 p. m. and an executive committee meeting at 1:45 will precede the regular meeting of the club at 2:30 o'clock.

Following are the resolutions adopted by the state convention: Whereas, The question of the political equality of men and women is today a vital problem under discussion throughout the civilized world; therefore be it Resolved, That the Nebraska State Federation of Women's clubs give the cause of equality for men and women its moral support by recording its earnest belief in the principles of political equality, regardless of sex.

Resolved, That the maintenance of a living wage for Nebraska women wage earners is both reasonable and necessary for the preservation of morality of the human race; that the present Nebraska minimum wage law requires for its enforcement a reasonable appropriation for its work, and that the legislative committee of the Nebraska Federated Women's clubs and all other Nebraska club women urge upon their senators and representatives in the coming session of the Nebraska legislature the immediate need of providing funds to make the minimum wage law of Nebraska effective.

Resolved, That the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs hereby especially commends the passage of such civil service reform laws as shall demand the merit system of appointment to and retention in all our public institutions for the dependent, delinquent and defective classes; and we denounce the retention of such appointments to political spoils system, as not being in conformity with the best results to those unfortunate entrusted to the care of these institutions, and to the community at large.

Resolved, That we denounce the existing European conditions resulting in suffering of women and children, and recommend that all state legislatures through the authorized channels of the International Red Cross society; therefore be it Resolved, That we recommend to the clubs of Nebraska a more serious study of the peace principles in order to incucate in the minds of the young a belief in arbitration as the means of settling all questions of international dispute. Resolved, That the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs endorse the policy of the general federation health department as far as is practicable to Nebraska.

Society of Fine Arts Begins Its Year Thursday

The Omaha Society of Fine Arts begins its year Thursday with an afternoon lecture at 4 o'clock in the Young Women's Christian Association auditorium. Mrs. Edgar Morsman, Jr., and Mrs. Leonard Everett present to the society Miss Mary Bannister Willard of New York, whose subject is "The Modern Movement in Art," an exposition and explanation of post-impressionism and cubism. Miss Willard has lived twenty years abroad, has studied in the University of Berlin and the Sorbonne, and for several years has lectured on art in New York. She comes to the west with the personal endorsement of Arthur Davies and Mowbray Clark, president and vice president of the American Association of Sculptors and Painters, which represents the new tendencies in this country. James Henry Brewster, Ph. D., professor of Egyptology and oriental history in the University of Chicago, will deliver the second lecture of the series Saturday morning, October 24, in the Young Women's Christian Association auditorium. His subject will be "The Tombs and Temples of the Nile." Prof. Brewster will return to Omaha Saturday, October 21, to lecture at the same time and place on "Painters and Sculptors of Egypt." Another series of lectures on Greek art will be given by Edward Howard Griggs of New York City and I. B. Stoughton, Holborn, M. A., of London, England.

You will find a Visit to This Store During our Educational Exposition and Gift Carnival, Interesting, Instructive and Profitable

IT IS our hope that every one in Omaha and its vicinity will accept our invitation to become a guest of this store at least once during the remaining days of October. We want you to think of this store first when you think of furniture. To know that whatever may be the price you wish to pay, we can meet your requirements with merchandise that is the best of its grade and that bears the stamp of reliability.

TO MAKE your visit instructive as well as interesting, we have arranged a series of industrial exhibits. The cost and effort required to prepare these exhibits has been great but we feel amply repaid when we can show our patrons different articles for the home in actual process of construction—and to show them the difference between well made goods and goods that cannot be relied upon. Nearly every floor has something interesting to offer and several hours can be spent here to good advantage.

OUR Gift Carnival lends added interest to this period. Under the plan which we have inaugurated we will give away before October 31st, one hundred and forty presents some of them valued as high as $50.00 each and aggregating over $800 in all. Full details of this Gift Carnival plan which is of real interest to every one are being distributed from day to day to every home in Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs.

Have You Ever Seen An Upholsterer at Work?

YOU can see an expert upholsterer building overstuffed davenport and chairs on our 4th floor. To learn how these luxurious pieces of furniture are built, how the rough wood frame is made, the webbing stretched, the springs placed and tied to insure perfect comfort and long service; how the various layers of the covering, the under-cover, the hair filling and finally the finished cover are put in place. These are interesting things to see and will be long remembered.

Any Upholstered Furniture Can be made to your order On the Fourth Floor.

Wouldn't It Interest You to See Willow Furniture Made?

This is being done on our Sixth Floor. ONLY imported French Willows are used—because they are tougher and more pliable. It is a fascinating experience to watch a beautiful chair grow from a pile of willow switches. The deft hands of this expert workman accomplish surprising results in a very short time. He was brought here from the Willow craft shops in Cambridge, Mass., especially for the exhibit. Any desired design for a chair, rocker, settee, table, stool, etc., will be executed to your order. Chairs and Rockers Made during this Exhibit will be sold for $7.50 Each They are all worth far more.

A Display of Unusual Potteries From Brittany and Italy

In varied hues and quaint shapes. THIS pottery from Brittany, a land now stripped by war of every able bodied man, portrays the simple life of the peasant folk. Every piece is marked with its makers' initials and the name of the little town where it was made, Quimper. Many of these pieces are small and make desirable presents, such as— Brittany plates, each $5c. Brittany jugs, each $1.35 to $2.75. Brittany bowls, each 40c to 65c.

On one of the front tables we show Majolica flower pots and pottery from Italy. For the first time in many years Majolica is again a popular pottery. Its decorations suggest Italy with its quaint flowers and figures and shows the Italian's wonderful sense of color.

Lace Curtains An Instructive Display of Different Imported Laces

PARTICULARLY interesting at this time when the news from Europe points to a long drawn out struggle that will greatly diminish if it does not eliminate all importations of laces from the warring countries. In this display the various weaves are faithfully portrayed and are supplemented by our large stock of these beautiful curtains from which selections should be made while the opportunity still exists. There are: Cluny Lace. Made in France. Pair $1.75, $2.50, $3.50 up. Point de Luxe. Made in Switzerland. Pair $12.50, $15, $22.50 up. Duchess Lace. Made in Switzerland. Pair $5.00, $7.50, $12.50 up. Filet Lace. Made in Italy. Pair $12.50, $17.50, $35 up.

Let Us Show you How We Make Box Springs—Box Springs Built for Service

HERE is one place surely where good construction counts for much. A third of our life is spent on Springs—and to see how every joint is made—every oil tempered spiral placed—every knot carefully tied and the edge properly bound and the filling distributed is to know whether or not you are buying a spring that will bring nightly rest to tired muscles and nerves for years to come. On the Third Floor. All Box Springs made during this exposition will be sold, with choice of Ticking at, each $15.
