Team Which Tied Yale Last Year Rens Up Immense Score Against Dickinson, and Lehigh Murders Outlets.

By FRANK G. MENKE

Some of those so-called "small" colleges have been playing the kind of football for the last two years that may force the foot ball experts to give them full consideration with Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Dartmouth in selecting the eastern champion.

A duplicate of the wonderful Washington and Jefferson eleven of 1913 seems to be in our midst again, playing a game of foot ball that none of the big eastern teams have exceeded so far this season. The Washington and Jefferson outfit went through the 1913 season without a defeat. It played Yale to a 0-to-0 tie, beat Grove City 19 to 0, Bucknell 41 to 0, and defeated Penn State 17 to 0. It was scored on only twice.

The Washington and Jefferson outfit of this season went against Mt. Union in its first game, beating them 21 to 1. In Washington and Jefferson's next game, against the husky Dickinson eleven, it rolled up 36 points, holding Dickinson scoreless. Another team can collect a score of such size, against even the weakest sort of foe, against a lot of consideration. And Dickinson cannot be ranked as a weak eleven.

Lehigh Shows Class

Lehigh, another of the "smaller" colleges, tackled the powerful Indian eleven on October 3 and beat it to a pulp. The Carlisle team of this year was regarded as just as strong as that of 1913. And, if you'll recollect, it was the Carlisle eleven which played Dartmouth last November, just when Dartmouth was about to dispute Harvard's claim as eastern champion.

The University of Pittsburgh is another example of what the "small" colleges have been doing in recent years. The Pittsburgh aggregation in its opening game beat Cornell 9 to 3. And Cornell was figured as having at the least eleven in many years. Last year Pittsburgh beat Carlisle and Cornell in easy fashion.

Surely these three colleges, together with Penn State, have a right to ask for better ranking than they have given in other years. Their showings during the last few years have been on a par with some of the big colleges. The only reason they haven't been ranked higher is because they haven't scheduled the big eleven to any great extent.

Probably, as they say in breakfast food circles: "There's a reason." There isn't much glory for Yale, Harvard or Princeton to beat any of the four "smaller" colleges. But to be beaten by them would be looked upon as ignominious.

Princeton Squad Weak

Unless Princeton shows real form in the next week or so, it looks as if both Yale and Harvard will have an easy time beating the Tigers. Princeton showed poorly against Rutgers, and even worse against Bucknell. The line seems to hold fairly well, but the backfield lacks the smash and power of the Tiger backfields of old.

The Princeton coaches are working with might and main to strengthen their backfield, but it looks as though they are working with, and it looks very much as if the Princeton team of 1914 will go down in history as one of the poorest that ever wore the black and yellow.

Chicago in the west is making another strong bid for the championship. It's clean-cut victory over the Indian aggregation was something of a surprise, even to the most ardent supporters of Stagg's warriors. Indiana has a strong line—surely stronger than that of 1913. Yet last year the best Chicago could do against Indiana was a 21 to 7 victory.

Dartmouth seems to be back with another great eleven. It ran up twenty-nine points against the strong Massachusetts Aggie eleven, following this with a 14 to 3 score against Norwich. Last year the best it could do against the Aggie was thirteen points. The Dartmouth backfield is one of the heaviest that ever fought for the Hanover college, while the line is working in fine style.

Freddie Welsh Is Still Without Match

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—With the boxing season about to open in full swing, Champion Freddie Welsh is still without a match. Just at present there are only two men whom the promoters in the twenty-round centers care to pick against the champion. One is Willie Ritchie and the other Charles White, who so far Welsh has had nothing to say regarding White, and the stand he takes in regard to Ritchie puts that match out of the question.

Ritchie, himself, is far from modest in his demands for another crack at his conqueror. Ritchie thinks he should be paid $50,000 for his end, win or draw, and weigh the weight at 175 pounds. Welsh wants $25,000 to sign articles and ransom $25 as the poundage. No wonder the promoters are not straining themselves to sign their pair.

Welsh won his title at an unfortunate time to be a big money-maker. Before he won the championship he had already beaten all the top-notch lightweights and swept the field clear. No promoter can afford to pay him anything like the sum that Ritchie received because the circumstances are altogether different.

Ritchie jumped into fame over night, and being practically unknown found plenty of work ahead of him. His bouts with Rivers, Cross, Wolgast and Murphy all promised well and there was no great risk in offering him big guarantees. But all these men are played out as attractions. Welsh, who has won the Cross, the Wolgast and the Murphy, has passed the useful stage. Welsh's only hope is that a new crop of contenders will spring up. However, by that time he will probably be ready for the scrap heap himself.

Johnson May Be Fed.

Business Manager John M. Ward of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle has been named as the man who will be in charge of the next season. It is assumed, however, that he knew Johnson was willing to play with any Federal league club that would meet his terms.

Griffith Lost Live One.

Charlie Griffith once had Connolly of the Braves and a list of 22. Griffith was which, as you take it, is not including Griffith's own name. If there's any manager in New York, Griffith is the man who has the best chance to win the big prize.

RITCHIE STRANGELY SILENT

Pugilist Hasn't Peeped Since He Arrived in New York.

HE IS TITLELESS, BUT RICH

Meanwhile Freddie Welsh, the New Lightweight Boss, is Issuing a Lightbulb Boon, in Issuing Ultimatum to Willie for Another Fight.

By KINGSIDE

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Willie Ritchie is strangely silent for a pugilist with championship aspirations. The whiff of a lightbulb boom has not emitted a verbal blast ever since he landed on these shores and Dartmouth in selecting the eastern champion.

This ominous silence prompts an investigation into the affairs of Willie Ritchie, for it is not in keeping with ring tradition for a contender in any championship not to issue volumes of speech and literature during the course of a few months.

Meanwhile Freddie Welsh, the new lightweight boss, is issuing all sorts of ultimatum to Ritchie, and still Willie does not counter with words. This silence is due to the fact that while Ritchie has outgrown the lightweight division.

If Ritchie were still within range of the lightweight limit of 135 pounds, or even close to the 150-pound limit, it is an assured fact that he would not let the many challenges hurled at him go unanswered. That Ritchie is far too heavy for the lightweights is divulged in a letter from the coast to the writer.

Trying to Reduce.

The crowd goes on to state that Willie is making a determined effort to pare off several superfluous pounds, and if successful he will resume activities in the ring with the lightweights. If unsuccessful in shedding a couple of pounds by means of strenuous calisthenics, Ritchie intends to make an announcement that he will fight only in the welterweight division hereafter.

So that satisfactorily explains Ritchie's prolonged silence. Ritchie has always been honest with the public in his ring dealings, and it is with a view of not deceiving his adherents that he refrains from an announcement until he has definitely decided as to which division he belongs.

For years Pacify McFarland investigated the glibly public into the belief that he was a legitimate lightweight and he was fighting lightweights when he himself weighed close to 140 pounds. That was why Pacify never would assent to weigh in for any bout.

But Ritchie is of a different ilk. He has no desire to cheat the supporters of the same. His motto has always been to give the public a run for its money. And he lived up to this motto.

The advent of Ritchie into the welterweight division would start a new era among the 140-pounders. There is no right of owner of the welterweight title; and there has been for a number of years. For a time Mike Gibbons was generally acknowledged the champion, but he speedily graduated into the middleweight division.

Few Within the Limit

There are quite a few boxes masquerading as lightweights, although they have not been able to fight 125 pounds as long as they can remember. Among these are Jack Britton and Harry Stone. Both are legitimate lightweights, yet they persist in taking on lightweights. Should Ritchie enter the welter fold he would find plenty of opposition. It is not Willie's intention to claim the title right off the reel. He desires to be acclaimed the undisputed champion after a series of elimination bouts. We shall hear from Mr. William Ritchie in a short while, and then it will be up to the promoters to seek for a challenger.

Adolph Wolgast, the original hard luck champion, insists that he is far from being through with the ring. Wolgast is fairly bristling with fight talk, and declares that he has many good fights in his prospect.

The "Michigan Wildcat" in one of those ring eddies—a real fighter, of the Belling Nelson type, who never ceases fighting from the first class of the going until the end of the bout. Wolgast's latest bit of misfortune occurred while preparing for his proposed fight with Joe Rivers. Wolgast had the plaster cast cut away from his right hand the other day, and is now ready for the active winter campaign.

White Open for Bookings

Charlie White admits that his streak of homesickness has worn off and he is open for ring bookings. White and his manager are casting covetous glances eastward from Chicago, for New York promises to be the boxing haven during the frigid months.

White and Leach Cross have been friends ever since boyhood, and each has repeatedly declared that he would fight his friend even if the championship were at stake.

But the lure of gold apparently is stronger than the strongest bond of friendship, for White now says that he will fight Cross in order to prove his right to a meeting with Champion Freddie Welsh. Cross coincides with White in these views, and for a suitable purse these two of America's leading lightweights will forget their friendship for half an hour to settle the mooted question of which is better entitled to tackle Welsh.

Freeman Rule Halted.

The addition of the veterans to the squad has done much toward raising hopes of a victory over Marquette in this game the loss of Coffey, Burford, Conrad, Wise, Breetzke, Karhart, Carlie, Steffen and Platz, by the freshman rule, will be a severe blow, but such men as Stapleton, Shannon, Warren, Tamies, Showalter, Brennan, Flood, McGuire and Casey will be available.

Senators Strong for Cuba.

A Washington dispatch says: "If Griffith lists to his players there is not a chance for the Senators to train at Charlottesville again next spring. The players have made it plain that they do not approve of the Virginia town for training purposes, and that the strongest reason they had a chance to prepare themselves in Cuba. As yet nothing has been done as to the Cuban trip next spring, but something definite will be known regarding the matter before long."

Base Ball Brevities.

At least three National league stars will take a chance in the matrimonial game as soon as the season is over. Rabbit Maravilla is to marry a New England girl and set up housekeeping on the peninsula of the world's series. George Burns is reported to be planning to marry Miss Ida Wiley of Cincinnati, and they will go to Ota's home in California for the winter.

Stallings and Carrigan Agree.

Both Stallings and Carrigan, respectively of the Braves and Red Sox, are believers in the theory that it is a greater strain on a pitcher to warm up and keep in readiness to pitch than it is to pitch a game. This has been so for a number of years. Stallings has worked hard for a second-year medal and could be a game manager. Stallings has worked hard for a second-year medal and could be a game manager. Stallings has worked hard for a second-year medal and could be a game manager.

Justus All Contractors.

Pitcher Bill Ritter, the Senator recruit, signed first with the Brooklyn Dodgers and then hurried to the New York Nationals. Ritter is making a name for himself. Ritter is making a name for himself. Ritter is making a name for himself.

FOLLOW WITH TWO INVASIONS

Creighton's football schedule is the toughest in the country. The team will play Nebraska Wesleyan on Saturday, St. Thomas at St. Paul and Marquette at Milwaukee before returning home for hakes. The team will then invade the Midwest with two more games.

You're Not Talkin' to Me, Kid

It's bad enough that the Braves should trim the Athletics without having the Royal Rooters sing "Tessie" after the combat.

Back Again.

The "I told you so" club has reorganized and is working in full blast. However, Hugh Fullerton is no longer a member of that club, which is one consolation.

Mystery.

Can some kind gent tell us what has happened to the following famous Bostonians: Prescott, Lowell, Holmes, Revere, Warren and the rest of that bunch?

And we remember reading something about "offensive strength." Athletics 67, Braves 63. Some dope.

It is surely true that the hypodermic needle is coming into its own.

Some base ball scribes are getting to be almost as bad as the murdering war correspondents.

Modern Tale of Two Cities.

The tale of two cities is sad indeed, when you read it in literature. The horrors of French revolution in your mind you easily picture; But that tale so sacred for many years is cast by the way side now. And the tale is set in Boston and brings a crease to the noble brow.

St. Louis and Boston, two of our towns, are the cities this tale is spun. From one to the other Whittied and Cather with violence were flung; They landed in Boston, then at the end of the heap, Slaves of a base ball magnate, battered, and hearted cheap.

But the turn in the road happened quite soon. Boston flew up to the top. And St. Louis, unfortunate city, slipped with a terrific flop.

And White and Cather were lucky, and played in their worlds' series. Copied off three thousand dollars for their little part in the fuss.

So the tale of two cities is sad indeed, but the modern tale's not the same. To jump from one to the other is like jumping from darkness to fame. And Whittied and Cather were lucky, but they came out unscathed and happy and flooded with fifty tin.

In developing his men, He has searched high and low. To show the extent of his efforts, one has only to note the fact that Hinkley has had as high as six eleven's working on Yale field at one time.

These sixty-six men actually getting into the game made a notable picture, but they did not represent the limit of Yale's foot ball resources.

In past years three eleven's has been the average number at Yale, with the other men filling in as substitutes or having individual practices.

This innovation of having a large number of eleven's is expected to result ultimately in a very strong line for the "varsity." The line has been weaker than the backfield so far.

PAST YEAR BASE BALL EPOCH

Furnishes Interesting Chapters in Records of Diamond.

FORTY LEAGUES OPERATE

All, with Exception of Pacific Coast League, Have Closed Their Season and Pennant Winners Are Announced.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—With the world's base ball championship and all minor league decided, the base ball season of 1914 has passed into history. Many of the events which occurred during the playing season, as well as those which immediately preceded the departure of the various teams to their training camps, were of a sensational character.

The invasion of the major league circuit by a new organization, its stupor-borne fight for recognition, the unprecedented advances in the salaries of prominent players, the legal battles fought for the retention or subjugation of several alleged contract breakers, kept the base ball world in a ferment for months. The around-the-world trip of the foremost diamond stars, which was, both financially and instructively, a huge success, was a big step toward making the great American game universally understood. Taken altogether, the season just finished has marked an epoch in base ball and furnished probably the most interesting chapters in the long and varied records of events on the diamond.

In addition to the National, American and Federal leagues, there were nearly forty organizations of professional base ball clubs in operation in the United States and Canada during the last year, and the appended list shows the pennant winners for 1914:
