IDEA OF STATE PRINTER LUDI
Has a New Plan Relative to Printing Bills Introduced in Legislature.
EXPENSE IS A LITTLE MORE
System Proposed to Do Away with Many Engraving Clauses, and Thus Save Some Money to State.
 (From a Staff Correspondent.)
 LINCOLN, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—An entirely new method will be pursued in legislative printing at the next session, State Printer N. J. Ludl having called for bids, following out the recommendations made by the legislative committee in its recent report on the best methods to conduct the next legislature.
 The journal for each branch of the legislature will be printed each day and a copy of the proceedings of each day will be upon the desks of the members the following morning. This will give the members a chance to look them over and have any corrections made which may be necessary. The daily copies will be printed on pink paper.
Printing of Records.
 After the proceedings have been adopted by each house sufficient copies will be printed and filed to make the necessary senate and house proceedings after being bound. This will enable members to secure copies of the proceedings very soon after the legislative adjourns, instead of having to wait several months, as in the past. This will be hard on the clerk of the house and secretary of the senate, who have usually received a goodly sum for preparing and having the records of the houses printed.
Change in Printing Bills.
 Some changes will be made along other lines, one of them being the size of the bills, which will be 8 1/2 x 11 in. instead of 6 1/2 x 11 in. The lines will be closer together and the type will be one point smaller, enabling about the same amount of reading matter on each page as formerly. Roman type will be used for the original bills when printed. The proportions changed from the old law will be printed in italics, while the part stricken out will be printed in cancelled type, that is, type showing a line through it. When a bill has passed it will not be reprinted by hand, but will be printed in two-point type to distinguish it from the original and in that form will go to the governor for his approval.
Other Changes.
 Other reforms in printing will be adopted and while costing the state more than the old system, it is thought that the advantage to be gained will more than make up for the increase in cost. However, it is thought that the cutting off of the large number of engraving clauses will to a great extent make up for the increased cost and may possibly even up the expense.
 Bids for the different kinds of printing are now being asked for by Mr. Ludl and contracts will be let to the lowest and best bidder.
News Notes of Alliance.
ALLIANCE, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Gregory Zurr, 56 years old, for the last four years police magistrate of Alliance, died in his home here yesterday after a prolonged illness of heart trouble. He was one of the pioneer residents of Alliance and Box Butte county. He and his wife, who was Maggie Messner, were the first couple married in Box Butte county after its organization in March, 1887. The funeral was held at the Methodist church Friday afternoon, in charge of the Odd Fellows' lodge. He leaves a widow and three grown-up children.
 As the new court house will be ready for occupancy by December 15, the fall term of court has been postponed until about that date, the old building being in such a dilapidated condition as to be unsafe for the usual crowd attending court.

Destitute Family
in Sad Need of Food
and Proper Shelter
 Clothing, coal, food, money and shelter are needed, and needed immediately, by the family of Charles Barrett, recently of St. Joseph, Mo., but now living at 111 North Seventeenth street. This is the family found destitute in an open shed last week at Twenty-second and Paul streets by Humane Officer Nelson.
 The family is now quartered in a house, but a poor one, for which $10 a month must be paid. A week's rent has already been paid by a kind-hearted reader of the newspaper, but thus far, beyond this, nothing has been done.
 The Associated Charities provided some attention last week, but nothing permanent.
 Mr. Barrett was hurt in a fall from a wagon and has been unable to work since. His two oldest sons, 16 years old and 11, must support the family of eight. The other four children are all under 7 years.
 Several of the youngsters are without underwear and none of them have shoes and stockings.
News Notes from Fairbury.

 The annual Jefferson county live stock show closed yesterday with a parade of all the prize-winning stock around the public square. This show was given under the management of the Jefferson County Agricultural society, Farmers' Institute and Live Stock Improvers' association. Over 300 in premiums were awarded to live stockmen in this and adjoining counties. The officers of the association include John P. Thieszen, president; M. H. Coffman, vice president; Lacy Clark, treasurer, and O. H. Sollenberger, secretary.
