whole, however, it has been a satisfactory trade, as the receipts have been liberal, amounting to as many as 13,316 head, against 130,654 last week, 132,208 two weeks ago and 138,927 for the corresponding week a year ago. Fat ewes have been in better supply this week than for sometime back and quite a sprinking of yearlings appeared among the receipts, but wethers have been still a scarce article. Quality of the offerings in general seemed to improve as the week advanced.

Owing to the scarcity of anything good in the feeder line today competition was better than on Thursday, consequently prices were as a rule steady and in some instances strong. # OMAHA BARELY BEATS YORK Touchdown by Neville Only Count in Disappointing Game.

LOCAL LADS LACK THE FIGHT

Light and Weak Team, Drilled Into a Fair Machine by Coach Pardy, ruts Up Stiff and Dangerous Opposition.

One lone touchdown, maneuvered and executed by a slift youth by the name of Neville to which was once added gthe euphonius first name of Eugene, but to before him he discovered various and did. But more opposition met him there He elbowed a couple inquisitive Yorkites then walked over a couple of more and found himself over the line at the southwest corner of the field. Midst divecheers the ball was kicked out to Wilson who caught it and Withey booted a neat goal for the seventh point

Omaha Plays Poorly.

The battle yesterday wasn't much of a fray and the Kalser probably would have been disgusted if his army should fight with no more spirit than Omaha. 4 25 fight with no more spirit than Omaha.
6 00 Coach Mills was manifestly disgusted
6 70 and in no uncertain tones he told his 6 70 charges as much. He also told them n little more between halves, referring rather impolitely to their pedigree and their ancestors. But Mills wasn't to blame. His actions were propitious. York, a team much lighter than Omaha and lacking the talent, was a sturdy 00 opposition. Coach Purdy must have done wonders with his material for the team put up a great fight. The light and filmsy team was good for but one play. the forward pass and Purdy has taught them the intricacles of that play in a masterful manner. That forward pass bothered Omaha and was one reason why the score was so small.

Lutes and Johnson played a good game for Omaha in thebackfield, but they could have done a whole lot better. Neville made the one nice run, but on other occasions was woefully weak. The 6 55 rest of the team played a very mediocore

Cox was the bright star for York although Scamihorn gave him a close run for honors. Scamthorn was the youth who nipped the forward passes Osborne cows and propelled and he was dangerou at every moment. The line up:
