

WILSON SEES DAY CANNON NOT JUDGE

President, in Y. M. C. A. Address at Pittsburgh, Says Discussion One Day Will Settle Disputes.

LEADERS MUST BE AGGRESSIVE

Believes in Popular Government, Because, Under It, Don't Know from Whence Rulers Will Come.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24.—Peace commission treaties of the kind negotiated between the United States and many foreign countries were spoken of by President Wilson here today as the means for "shoddy light" on disputes which will make the use of force unnecessary. The president predicted that after international disputes have been discussed for a year as provided in these treaties cannon will not be found necessary to settle them.

The president addressed a mass meeting in celebration of the seventieth anniversary of the Young Men's Christian association movement and dwelt on the lessons of Christianity, urging young men to be progressive and work for the public welfare.

President's Plea.

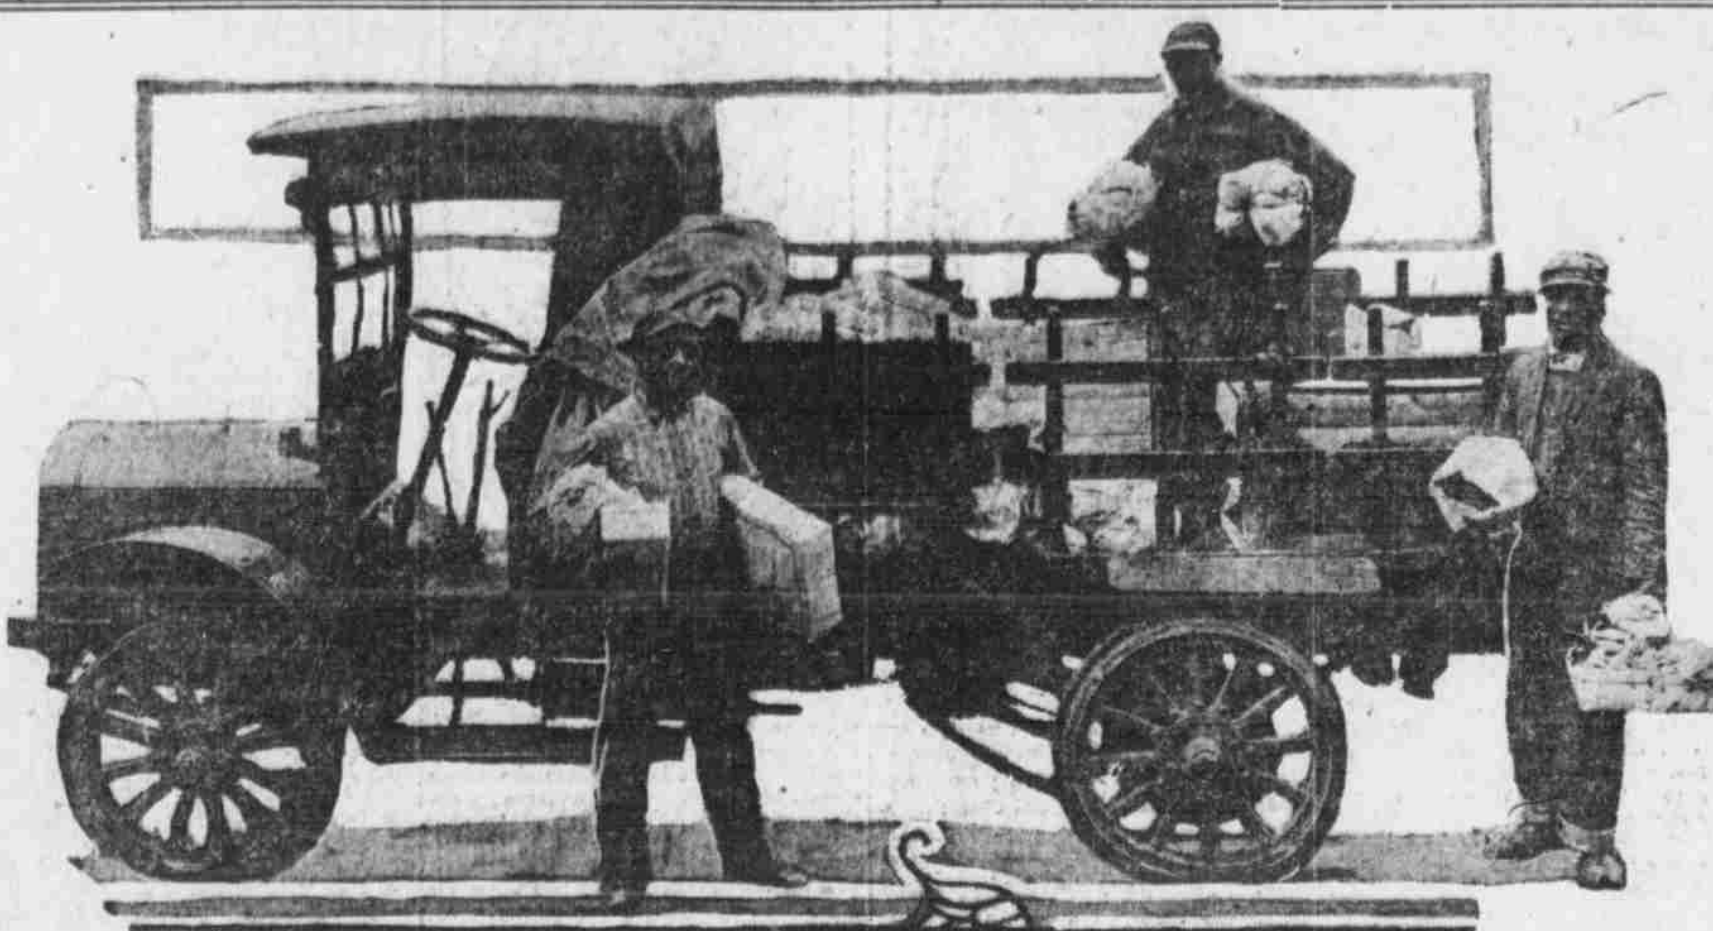

The president pleaded for homes with Christian atmosphere, saying "Christianity is a faith and that children reared in Christian homes are more apt to be good citizens than others. It would be good for men, both young and old, to detach themselves from business and think of higher things," said Mr. Wilson after he had opened his address by saying that by his being away from Washington, congress could "have more leisure to adjourn."

"How tired I am of the men whose virtue is selfish because it is self-protective. I hate the moral coward and I despise him as well. I wish the cowards would stay on the side lines and let others do the things to be done. Do not follow people who stand still. Nowadays leaders must be aggressive."

Believes in Popular Rule.

"If you can guess beforehand who your leaders are to be, the chances are they will be useless. I believe in popular government, because under it we don't know from what family or class or occupation the leaders will come. I hope that there will now be a great wagon load from Hayden Bros., Burgess-Nash, the Brandeis stores, King Peck's, Kilpatrick and Benson & Thorne's.

Trucks Kept Hustling.

The Omaha Van and Storage company had a truck busy all day gathering up packages from the suburbs, where organizations of women and children had gathered them together. Utmost care had been made in the tying up of most of these packages, many being tied with colored ribbons and many having Christmas stickers.

The Omaha Merchants Express company had two of its largest trucks busy all day hauling the huge boxes to the Burlington freight depot, where a corps of men was on hand to load them and give them a cheerful start on their way to the war-stricken countries.

Children of the west end had taken their packages to the homes of Mrs. Clement Chase, Mrs. F. A. Nash, Mrs. Arthur Gulou and Mrs. Charles Offutt, and the women had gathered and packed the gifts most neatly. Each was tied in white paper with ribbon. The country which gets the boxes of Christmas cheer from Omaha will be most lucky as they contained gifts which will open the eyes of the little tots for whom they are destined.

For the Most Needy.

The Methodist Sunday school of Big Springs, through Rev. L. R. McGaughey, the pastor, sends a check for $12.85, adding in his letter: "This money is for the sufferers in the most needy places. We desire it to go to the women and children and not to the front."

Mrs. E. I. Turner, Friend, Neb., encloses her check for $5, while the Fourth grade children of the public school at Lyons have sent $1.75.

The First National bank, Scott's Bluff, sends $6.25, contributed by the citizens and the public schools. A. J. Shunway, cashier of the bank, in a note accompanying the cash, says: "Good speed the Christmas ship! May it have a safe journey and bring happiness and Yuletide blessings to the poor and needy."

From Fullerton, Mrs. E. R. Penney sends a large box containing suitable gifts for the people of war-stricken Europe. She does this in behalf of the Children's Story Hour club, a department of the Women's Civic Improvement club of Fullerton.

At Nebraska City, Miss Rose Agatha

Randall took hold of the work of collecting goods to be sent on the Christmas ship. These she has sent on to The Bee, together with a cash contribution. The citizens of Nebraska City responded liberally, and among the articles were 450 worth of new garments given by F. U. Cleveland & Son, merchants. Besides these, the people of the city donated thirty-six suits for boys, four coats, eighteen dresses for girls, twelve sweaters and several dozen dresses for small children, numerous coats, aprons, stockings, caps, mittens, and a large quantity of new cloth. There were a dozen pretty dolls, toys, a large quantity of candy and some fruit.

Among the cash donations reported by Miss Randall was $5 from Rev. S. Meyer; $5 from Rev. Mr. Cramer, and $5 from Master Billy Wilson.

Many folks who wanted to make contributions to The Bee's Christmas ship cartload of gifts, were so busy getting the articles together that they failed to send them in time to arrive by regular freight, which was offered free by the railroads. So they sent their packages by express or parcel post in order to be sure of having them delivered in Omaha by Saturday.

Among such consignments was a fine box by express from the citizens of Elgin, when Miss Gertrude Horst and the Ladies' Kensington club canvassed for contributions. Miss Rose Agatha Randall, who captained the Nebraska City people in the Christmas ship movement, sent their big box by express, with the remark that they were sorry they didn't have time to do a great deal more. A parcel post shipment containing warm clothing came from Mrs. Charles Daffer of Millard.

When kiddies of the Minden public schools gave their pennies to a fund for the Christmas ship many of the business people of the town, who had no children in school, wanted to join in the good work.

So Mrs. N. C. Jensen visited them and received enough money from the business men in a short time to increase the school children's fund from $4 to $10.00. A draft for the latter amount was sent by H. W. Werland, superintendent of the Minden schools. The school children also gave a large assortment of useful gifts, which they packed themselves into five big boxes.

Germans Say Russ Socialists Will Not Help Government

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—(By Wireless).—Information was given out from official quarters in Berlin today as follows:

"The entire socialist party of Italy again has decided to support a policy of the strictest neutrality."

"The Manchester (England) Guardian says it has received hundreds of letters from British women who have returned to England from Germany and declare that they were well treated in this country."

"Prisoners of war also are well treated. In view of these facts the destruction and looting of German shops in the borough of Densford, London, was a fit of hysteria."

"The chief of the Russian socialist party has pointed out officially to Emilio Vandervelde, the Belgian socialist leader, that a victory of the Russian government would mean the strengthening of the anti-democratic policy in Russia and abroad. The Russian government would then become the center of the reactionary world. The policy, therefore, of the Russian proletariat would under no circumstances be to help the Russian government."

"The London Economist declares that 500,000 British workmen are out of employment in the British cotton industry. 'In the newspaper Popolo Romano the Italian general, Bonpland, estimates the strength of the German army at 4,000,000 thoroughly instructed soldiers and 4,000,000 recruits."

"The Montenegrins are much depressed over the inefficiency of the French blockade of the Dalmatian coast."

Three German Spies Are Sentenced by Swiss Tribunal

GENEVA, Oct. 24.—(Via Paris, 12:30 a. m.)—Three German spies, having headquarters in Geneva, were sentenced by the third military tribunal here Friday. The three are Lieutenant Colonel Otto Ulrich of Berlin, Dr. Wohlender and Herr Kohr, a chemist. They were charged with plotting against England and France and thereby violating Swiss neutrality.

Colonel Ulrich was not present, having gone into hiding, presumably somewhere in Switzerland. He was sentenced in default to serve two years in prison and to pay a fine of 4200 ($1,600). Dr. Wohlender must serve three months and pay a fine of £40, and Herr Kohr must remain in prison two months and pay a fine of £20. All three were sentenced to expulsion from Switzerland for life after serving their sentence.

GLOVES CLEANED BY THOUSANDS

Dresher Bros., Cleaners, Are Highly Specialized in This Department.

It seems like a very simple matter to clean a glove—but it isn't. Dresher Bros., at their admittedly foremost $7,000 cleaning plant at 2211-2213 Farnam street, maintain a force of experts who clean gloves—gloves—naught but gloves—each and every working day of the year.

Not only have Dreshers a special force, but they've a competent department head and all of the approved glove cleaning equipment that money can buy; equipment capable of turning out hundreds upon hundreds of pairs of gloves daily; cleaned in the inimitable manner that commands instant praise from those who receive the work.

Dreshers put your old gloves into as nearly new condition as possible; they cannot make a new glove out of one that is literally "shot to pieces," but they do produce really remarkable results with old gloves.

Department stores throughout the west send their stock gloves to Dreshers' to be cleaned whenever necessary, and, if you once experience the delights of wearing a Dresher-cleaned glove, you will never think of letting any other concern handle your work.

Dreshers clean short gloves at 25c a pair; medium lengths at 35c a pair; long gloves at 50c a pair. Phone Tyler 26 for a man, or leave your work at the plant, at Dresher the Tailors, 1113 Farnam St., or at the Dresher department in the Brandeis stores.
