MORE SUITS FILED IN COURT

Actions for Divorce and Actions to Secure Damages on Account of Personal Injuries Are Started.

County Attorney Capell yesterday dismissed the criminal case against Tony Fixa, indicted in connection with the attempt of several men last winter to remove from the basement of the court house a large quantity of gambling paraphernalia that was to be used to furnish a new gambling house in South Omaha.

The case now has no interest except for the friends of Sheriff Lindsey, who recall the manner in which he handled it. It was Sheriff Lindsey, personally, who discovered the attempted removal and prevented it.

The district court docket for the November term was increased yesterday by the filing of a dozen new cases, many of them damage suits.

P. Petersen asks the court for an order requiring the removal of a concrete inclosing platform in front of the Metzger bakery on Myrster street.

A landlord's lien was filed by Chris Straub against E. E. Gray and the Gray garage, asking judgment for $1,000 of rent to become due under the terms of the lease.

William Hansen and wife, Dora Hansen, bring separate suits against the county for personal injuries sustained by Mrs. Hansen July 4, last, when her home became frightened at a pile of building material left at a bridge approach two miles west of Hancock.

William Hansen and Paul Brown each sue the Rock Island Railroad company for personal injuries sustained while working the coal chutes of the company's local yards.

A suit for $5,000 against the Union Pacific was filed by Claude Green, who claims to have been hurt in the local yards, October 6, while engaged in moving a loaded freight car.

Iowa

REPEATERS ARE SUSPECTED

Des Moines Authorities Believe They Have Political Plot.

MAY BE COLONIZATION SCHEME

District Judge of Polk County Holds Rotation of Names Need Not Begin with Names in Alphabetical Order.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—Though the political campaign in Iowa has been notable for quietness, sufficient interest has been taken locally for frauds to be attempted for registration of voters in Des Moines. The registration board in one precinct became suspicious of two persons and upon investigation found that the residence numbers given were fictitious and no such persons were known in the precinct.

This was believed to indicate a plan to colonize the city for repeaters, and the sheriff took matters in hand.

Decision on Rotation. Judge Kammur, in district court today, decided that it is not necessary to place the names of candidates for judge on the ballots in alphabetical order before beginning the rotation of names.

Suit had been brought against the county auditor to compel him to reexamine the names in interest of one candidate. The court declared that too much importance is attached to alphabetical precedence.

Prior to coming to Hamilton county Andrew Shillinglaw had been a world rover. He was born and raised in Scotland. Early in life Andrew and his brother and the latter's wife left Scotland and went to Argentina, South America, where they embarked in the sheep raising business.

The relatives who brought the action all live in southeast Hamilton county. They are Jeanette Shillinglaw, John Shillinglaw, Thomas Shillinglaw, Peter Shillinglaw, Joseph Shillinglaw, Allen Shillinglaw, Mary Jane Shillinglaw, Jennie Clausen, Andrew Gibson Shillinglaw and Mary Ritchie.

Thorne Would Have Government Make Good Hen's Lapses

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—"If it is right for the government to shield the railroads from the effects of the war: if it is right for the government to make good the losses of people in different industries, I am going to propose a measure that will require every hen in Iowa to lay an egg every day; if she fails to do so, that the government shall make up to the owner of that hen, the value of the egg she did not lay."

This statement was made by Clifford Thorne, counsel for several western state railroad commissions and shippers' associations in presenting the shippers' side of the case at the hearing before the Interstate Commerce commission on application of eastern railroads for a general increase in freight rates.

The hearing came to an end today and arguments will be heard next week, with every indication of an early decision by the commission. The presentation of the case of the opposing shippers occupied less than two hours, as against five days occupied by the witnesses for the carriers.
