Grievances to Be Aired When Base Ball Meeting is Held.

OVER HUNDRED CONTROVERSIES

Board of Arbitration to Have Its Hands Full in Settling Disputes at the Meeting Here Next Month.

The board of arbitration, that committee of men who settle disputes which arise between minor league clubs and minor league players, will find over 100 controversies on the docket which they must settle in the one-day session. Of course, many of the cases are minor ones, but one or two are of pretty heavy caliber, and with base ball in its present ticklish situation the board will be forced to exercise considerable jurisdiction in making decisions.

The board consists of the presidents of the leading minor leagues. Barrows, president of the International League; Chivington of the American association, Easton of the Pacific coast, Cavanaugh of the Southern, O'Neill of the Western, Murnane of the New England, O'Rourke of the Eastern association, Justice of the Central association and Moll of the Wisconsin-Illinois are the men upon whom the burden of deciding will rest.

Rourke Has Grievance.

Pa Rourke of the Omaha club has a little grievance which will find its way before the arbitrators. Pa is a bit peevish at the action of the Racine club of the Wisconsin-Illinois club in returning Joe Bell to Omaha last August. Bell was given a tryout last spring and Pa took but little fancy to Joe's indifferent manner of play. He sold him to Racine for $100. Racine retained Bell from the first of the season until late in August. Then he was returned and the Racine management asked the return of the $100, as Bell had failed to make good. In other words, Racine returned Bell but a day or two before the time limit on sales. But as Bell was played as a regular all summer Pa believes he was treated shabbily, especially as $100 is a whole lot of money to lose when base ball is as uncertain and as 'profitless' as it was last season.

Thorpean Athletics Wallop Merchants

The Thorpean Athletic club team walloped the West Side Merchants Sunday by a score of 13 to 6. Jack Gavismann, one of the Thorpean crack players, suffered a broken collarbone when he found himself at the bottom of the heap after a plunge. He was taken to the Nicholas Senn hospital.

FONTELLES WIN FAST GAME FROM ATHLETICS

The Fontelles defeated the Athletics 6 to 5. The first half of the game was a see-saw, with honors about even. In the third quarter the Fontelles carried the ball from the forty-yard line to the Athletics ten-yard line, where the Athletics held them for downs. The Athletics advanced the ball eight yards, where they attempted to punt. Seaton of the Fontelles blocked and recovering the ball and went twenty yards for a touchdown. In the same quarter Glasgow of the Fontelles drop kicked the ball from the twenty-five-yard line.

DEL HOWARD AND NAVIN COMING TO OMAHA MEETING

Del Howard, former Bourke, and manager of the San Francisco club, is coming to the minor league meeting here and will bring ten of his coast league colleagues with him. The coast league is said to have lost money this year, and is one of the leagues which regard the Federals with kindly favor. Howard has many friends in Omaha and will be given a royal welcome by the old-timers. Frank Navin, president of the Detroit American league club, has also announced his intention of coming to the Omaha meeting.

Stop These Early Bronchial Coughs.

They hang on all winter if not checked, and pay the way for serious throat and lung diseases. Get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and take it freely. Stops coughs and colds, heals raw inflamed throats, loosens and phlegm and is mildly laxative. Chas. T. Miller, 524, Tenth Street, Cannelton, Ind., had bronchial trouble, got very worse, coughed constantly from a tickling throat. He used only Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Was entirely relieved. Wants others to know of Foley's Honey and Tar. All

Work Causes Gloom in Camp of Cyclones

AMES, Ia., Oct. 26.—(Special).—Saturday's game with Missouri was regarded beforehand as an extremely important one in determining the success or non-success of Ames on the 1914 gridiron. This was the official view of the coaches as well as of the student body and of the followers of Ames foot ball.

On the eve of Saturday's game the Cyclone morale was facing two situations. First, to lose the Tiger game meant probable disaster throughout the rest of the schedule, with Nebraska, Cornell, Iowa and Drake yet to be met; and second, to win the Missouri game meant a profound slump in the other direction. Coach Hubbard and Captain Reeve freely expressed that view as to how Ames stood then, both realizing that the critical point was reached and that either a profound slump or a renewal of confidence would follow on the heels of the Tiger battle.

Ames won from the Missourians, 6 to 0, by a single touchdown. The squad went to Missouri in a frame of mind bent on accomplishing a vindication of the coaches and its own capability in handling the newer game, feeling that to lose was nothing more or less than to lose badly every big game remaining on the schedule.

The Cyclones showed up well in playing the new style, open and shifty game. They made big gains on the forward pass, spread formations, mingled with fakes, and the sensational wide end runs of Quarterback Moss.

Performance of Cornhuskers Also Astonishes Iowa

IOWA CITY, Ia., Oct. 26.—(Special).—With Chicago and Minnesota met on successive Saturdays, now out of the way on the Iowa schedule, the Hawkeyes figure that they have but one really difficult contest before them. That is the game with Nebraska, which will be played here on November 2. The Cornhuskers surprised local followers of the game by their showing against the Michigan Aggies Saturday and are now recognized as one of the great teams of the west.

Harvard Tunes Up For Michigan Game

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 26.—Harvard's regular backfield, with the exception of Captain Brickley, who is convalescent after an operation for appendicitis, got together in practice today for the first time in many weeks to tune up for the Michigan game next Saturday. Hardwick, Mahan and Logan were sufficiently recovered from their injuries to go through light practice with Brickley, the only one of the regular backfield who has not been crippled.

FEDERAL LEAGUE RAISES BIG EMERGENCY FUND

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—A fund of about $100,000 was raised at the New York meeting of the Federal league owners for "emergency" purposes. President Gilmore announced on his return today. It is believed the money will be used in efforts to persuade players now with teams in organized ball to join the new league.
