FRENCH ATTACK ON OLD LINE

Take Offensive After Withdrawal of German Troops and North of Solssons Have Better of Artillery Duct.

PARIS, Oct. 28 .- A very brief official statement was issued tonight by the French war office regarding the great battle which is in progress

The text follows: "There is nothing to report except some progress on our part in the region to the south of Dixmude. BERLIN (via Amsterdam and London), Oct. 28.—General headquarters under date of October 27 announces: "The battle on the Yser canal near Ypres and southwesterly from Lille is proceeding with the same stubbornness. Yesterday the German troops made progress.

"On the other battle front in the western theater no important events have occurred.

"To the west of Augustowo the attack of the Germans is slowly proceeding. To the southwest of Warsaw our troops have repulsed all attacks of strong Russian forces. Noth of Ivangored a new Russian army corps has crossed Germana Nearer Ports. LONDON, Oct. 28.-The German raid on the channel ports, as it is called cheaper than any thing equal here, seems to have been checked for the time being, or at any rate, the Germans have made little if any progress since they succeeded in crossing the Yeer canal on Saturday last. They are, however, still pushing with all the forces most stubborn resistance from French,

British and Belgian troops. The losses on both sides continue to be In proportion to the flerceness of the gain in Omaha if you mean battle, which means that they are greater than those in any battle since war was declared now nearly three months ago. Along the coast, where the allies have the assistance of French and British warships, they have apparently more than held their own, and after inflicting very heavy losses on the Germans have compelled them to try for an opening further inland. Up until yesterday the allies had been forced to give way at some points, but today, according to the French official communication, they have succeeded in holding their positions at every point, from the mouth of the Yser to the Lens district, and again have advanced between Ypres and Roulers, where there
