

TEUTONS ABANDON BELGIAN COAST

London Reports that Kaiser's Forces Are Letting Up on Attacks Near Calais.

TURKEY NOW RIGHT IN WAR

Ottoman Divided, but Government Deep in European Conflict—British Close North Sea to Other Shippers.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—That the German army has abandoned its attempt to back its way along the Belgian coast to Calais is agreed by all the official reports to-night.

A combination of inundated country, the retreat of the Belgian army under King Albert and the activity of the British warships seemingly all contributed toward ending the costly struggle.

A Berlin official report attributes the failure of the Germans entirely to the flooded state of the country, where the water in places is over a man's head; but it declares that the army of Emperor William withdrew in good order and without losses.

After nearly three weeks of desperate fighting the brunt of the attack has now shifted to the Ypres region, where the English army of Field Marshal Sir John French, reinforced by Indians and territorial, apparently must meet another onslaught. On the scene of this contemplated battle, according to reports, Emperor William has gone to give encouragement to his men by his presence.

Turkey Now in War

A state of war exists between Turkey on the one side and Russia, Great Britain and Serbia on the other, yet the Ottoman government appears as a house divided against itself, one seemingly being desirous of war, while the conservatives are trying to smooth over the situation arising from the attacks upon Russian ports and ships by Turkish war vessels directed by German officers.

Russia apparently has welcomed the war and will not give the Turks a chance to draw back, while the British cruiser Minerva has smashed the Turkish base of operations against Egypt at the head of the Gulf of Akabah. The Turkish ambassador in London has as yet made no arrangements to leave and the embassy still maintains a conciliatory attitude.

The closing of the North Sea to all shipping, except that which places itself under the protection of the British fleet, is recognized as the first stroke of Admiral Baron Fisher, the new first sea lord of the admiralty, and as one of the most important events of the war.

All cargoes destined for German or Austrian consumption must now run the gauntlet of British inspection in the English channel, the Strait of Gibraltar or the Suez canal.

The making of the sea a military area already has brought adverse comments from Germany. The Cologne Gazette claims that Great Britain virtually has proclaimed a blockade of the North Sea, which its fleet will be unable to enforce. The newspapers of Holland also raise objections to the restrictions placed on navigation in the sea.

Woman Experiences Difficulty Using Sample Ballot Guide

A woman who applied at 1618 Chicago street, voting place for the Fourth precinct of the Eighth ward, to vote for the citizen ticket candidates for the House of Education was told that she would not be permitted to take a sample ballot of a certain ticket, which she carried into the booth with her.

"Then I'll sit right here and memorize this ticket for I want to vote for these candidates and none other," declared the indignant woman.

When she had cast her ballot, she came out and told this to Mrs. H. C. Bunney and Nathan Bernstein, who were among the workers distributing literature in the vicinity of the polls.

Ray Low, in charge of the voting place, was informed by them that taking sample ballots into the booths was permissible by law. Mr. Low attempted to reach the election commissioner's office by telephone, but being unable to do so, the difficulty was settled by a telephone call to The Bee office.

Allies Shelling Dardanelles Forts

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The secretary of the admiralty announces that a combined British and French squadron bombarded the Dardanelles forts at long range at daybreak this morning. The forts replied, but no ships were hit, only one shot falling alongside them.

The statement adds that the damage to the forts cannot be estimated, but that a great explosion, accompanied by dense volumes of black smoke, occurred at the Holles fort.

Call on Mexicans to Drive Out Americans

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 4.—When it became generally known today that the Washington government had failed to comply with the request of the Mexican foreign office that the United States fix a definite date for the evacuation of Vera Cruz, Mexican socialist Rites Masons printed thousands of proclamations calling upon the citizens to arm themselves and drive the invader foreigners from the shores of Mexico.

Progressive Wins in Louisiana Race

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 4.—Democratic congressmen were re-elected in seven of the eight Louisiana districts. The Third district was in doubt at 10 o'clock. Returns giving one-sixth of the vote in the Third gave: Martin (prof.) 791, and Gueydan (dem.), 214.

Contributions Come In for Relief of Belgian Sufferers

FOR BELGIAN WAR VICTIMS.
E. M. Leflang, $100.00
F. W. ... 5.00
Two contributions have been received by The Bee for the relief of the Belgian sufferers. The first is a good one and will do much towards comforting those who have lost most everything they possessed in the way of worldly property as a result of the war. One of the accompanying letters is brief, the other contains a worthy plea.

OMAHA, Nov. 2.—Omaha Daily Bee: Enclosed please find $100 for aid for Belgians. Yours truly, (Signed) E. M. F. LEFLANG.

OMAHA, Nov. 3.—To the Editor of The Bee: It gives me pleasure to inclose check for your "Belgium relief fund." Your call for the relief is timely and it ought to be responded to promptly. If this relief movement is taken hold of as systematically and earnestly as was the Christmas gift proposition, enormous amounts of money could be raised in a short time, as it will afford the American people an opportunity to show that they have a heart and that it is in the right place. Yes, Christian America will now have a chance to disprove that Christianity is a failure. Let the clergy cut down some of their broadcloth. The

EUGENE BRODERICK MAY LOSE SIGHT OF BOTH EYES

Eugene Broderick, aged 7 years, who lives with his grandmother, Mrs. Hanna Davis, at 1512 North Twenty-eighth street, fell while playing in front of the home Tuesday afternoon and ran a stick through his right eyeball. Dr. Gifford was summoned and the little fellow was rushed to a local hospital, where it is reported that he will lose the sight of his right eye, and in all probability that of the left as well. The boy's mother at Memphis has been notified and has left for Omaha.

Positively Masters Croup.
Foley's Honey and Tar Compound cuts the thick choking-mucus, and clears away the phlegm. The gasping, strangling fight for breath gives way to quiet breathing and peaceful sleep. Harold Berg, Mass., Mich., writes: "We give Foley's Honey and Tar to our children for croup and it always acts quickly." No wonder a man in Texas walked 15 miles to the store to get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Every user is a friend. All dealers everywhere.—Advertisement.

churches should sacrifice some of their costly vestments for the benefit of starving humanity. Queen Isabella gave part of her jewelry toward the discovery of this continent and America has been a blessing to uncountable millions from over-populated Europe. Now, in return let us give part of our jewelry and part of our luxury to this most worthy cause. We do not need to deny ourselves of common necessities by helping to swell this relief fund; we need only to cut out some luxuries and pleasures. If half the candy sold in this country was turned into food stuff that alone would relieve a great deal of starvation. Let us smoke a cigar or drink a glass of beer less a day, or cut out one-tenth of picture shows and theater going. What farmer would not gladly give a bushel of more of wheat or corn, and would not a stockman give the price of a calf, or the owner of an automobile the price of five gallons of gasoline, even if need be to cut out some of his joy rides. If the people of this country were properly aroused to the enormity of a starving nation of between 6,000,000 and 7,000,000 souls, the gifts would be so enormously many, and the total so enormously large that there has never been anything like it in the world before, and that all taken from surplus and luxury.

Costive Bowels, Headache, Colds, Take Cascarets

Get a 10-cent box now.
Purged Tongue, Bad Colds, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a well barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good gentle cleansing, too.—Advertisement.
