MAGS WORKING FOR PEACE

American and Federal League Chiefs Seeking Agreement.

A. L. OWNERS MEET IN CHICAGO

None of Officials Will Venture Prediction of Conditions Likely to Be Basis of Settlement.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—With peace in the base ball world and a possible change in the ownership of the New York club up for discussion, officials of the American league went into annual session here today.

Some of the magnates frankly disapproved of the events which led to the resignation of Frank Chance as manager of the New York club, and it was said plans for a shift of ownership of the club would be laid before the meeting.

The league officials generally declared themselves for peace today, but none would venture a prediction of conditions under which peace might be made with the Federal league.

Comie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia club, it was said, would ask for some action against Hughie Jennings, manager of the Detroit club, whom he accuses of breaking the league rules by giving out information that Mack had asked for waivers on Blank, Bender and Combs.

Secret Conference. It was reported that representatives of the American league were in secret conference with magnates of the Federal league on the subject of peace.
