

AUSTRIANS NOW IN FULL RETREAT

Forces of Dual Kingdom in Flight Over Entire Galician Front, Says Petrograd.

MOVEMENT IS NOT A DEFEAT

Action Indicates Obedience to Orders to Fall Back Rather Than Result of Rout by Enemy.

(Copyright, 1914, Press Publishing Co.)

PETROGRAD, Nov. 7.—(Special Cablegram to New York World and Omaha Bee.)—The Austrians in full retreat over the entire Galician front. The movement is such as to indicate a less general retreat than a general obedience to orders to withdraw. The Russians have been pressing with great energy upon the upper Viaduct and San front, especially since the settlement of the main right further north against the German and mixed forces.

The Austrians will retire to an especially strong fortified position, extending from Cracow in the south to Kalisz on the north. These places are seventy miles apart. The object of making a stand here is to prevent the Russians attempting to turn the line of defense of Germany along the Oder. If a successful resistance is offered, the German army will be free to throw the greater part of the armies which invaded Poland back to the western front in an effort to crush the Anglo-French defense.

Retire with Small Losses.

These forces, in spite of the Polish retreats, will be considerable in numbers and valuable in quality. When retiring, after failure before Warsaw, the Germans planted a heavy rear guard to fight the battle, and succeeded in getting their troops away with comparatively small losses. In fact, they secured twenty-four hours' rest, and by this time, doubtless, have got back into Germany still in good fighting condition, and possibly are already proceeding toward France.

On the east Prussian front the Germans continue to retire along the whole line. The Russians are following them up closely.

May Stand at Term.

The general opinion in the army is that the Germans will attempt to make a stand at their fortified positions behind the river Tarma, a few miles inside of the frontier of Poland, but that the Russians will drive them out and that the real stand will be made along the line of the Oder and the fortresses of Cracow, Breslau and Thorn. In which case the Russian tank will be difficult. There is an impression that Russia is piling up numbers at the front only in proportion as its mobilization reaches the more and more distant regions of the vast empire. This is altogether wrong. Russia maintains a large army at all times, and since the Japanese war it has become a new army in many senses. Grand Duke Nicholas takes to the front for sufficient for the purpose of his strategic plan.

Others to Fill Gaps.

Behind these and within easy reach are others ready to fill the gaps in the fighting line. They constitute a second army, while in distant provinces yet another army is being polished up. Every time the war began a continual flow in regular sequence has been taking place, and thus the fighting front is always kept up to the full strength.

The idea that mobilization in Russia means that every able-bodied man is enrolled in the active army and getting there as fast as possible is ridiculous. This would bring 20,000,000 men at least into the field, and Russia does not want so many.

Widow's Bonnets in Big Demand in London

(Copyright, 1914, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Nov. 7.—(Special Cablegram to New York World and Omaha Bee.)—At many well-known West End jewelry and millinery shops no guarantee is given that ordinary orders will be filled, as preference is given to orders for mourning gowns and hats. Twenty widow's bonnets were conspicuous in one millinery shop. When the question was asked why so many were kept in stock the answer was: "They are for twenty widows, and represent orders given in three days."

At the talking places it was said that extra help has been ordered to get ready at shortest notice mourning clothes. All other orders were accepted on the understanding that completion would depend on circumstances at the front.

Teacher and Pupils Die in Prairie Fire

BELFIELD, D., Nov. 7.—Miss Gladys Hollister, a school teacher, and three of her pupils were burned to death today when they ran from the school house, twelve miles from here, in an effort to escape an onrushing prairie fire. Three other children were perhaps fatally burned.

All the children were between the ages of 6 and 12. The fire, started by a threshold outfit, was first observed when five miles away. With her twenty-two children the teacher dashed toward a ploughed field, some distance from the school. The crowd had not divided, those remaining with their teacher, being caught a few feet from the ploughed ground.

Drops Two Bombs Into Naptha Tanks

LONDON, Nov. 7.—"An aviator from the allies' lines dropped two bombs in German machine tanks at Bruges, Thursday, killing eight marines," says a dispatch from Amsterdam to the Exchange Telegraph company. The message continues: "Guns were thundering yesterday and again today in the direction of Thourout and Ypres. The allies rattle constant salutes from Panschendale, eleven miles northwest of Ypres, at night."

"Apparently scouts have blown up the railway between Brussels and Ghent, as a train full of wounded was obliged to return to Brussels today."

Closed to Shipping. WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Russia informed the American government today that on account of mines being placed to the Gulf of Finland and Riga were closed to shipping; that mines have been placed around the Aland islands and in the northern part of the Baltic Sea in a zone extending from latitude in degrees 60 minutes north and east of the twenty-first meridian of longitude.

Flyer Destroys Bridge

GERMANS ARE CROSSING

PARIS, Nov. 8.—The story of an exciting incident that took place near an important bridge over the Oise, not far from Semprigny, has been received here. The French were ordered to hold the bridge at any cost. They placed quick fires, which played havoc for twenty minutes in the German ranks and prevented the German advance. Suddenly the bugle sounded for a French retreat and the Germans quickly pursued them over the bridge. A moment later a French aviator, who had been hovering overhead, dropped a bomb which completely destroyed the bridge.

AMERICAN NAVY HAS MOST POWERFUL GUN DESIGNED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The largest and most powerful naval gun ever designed has just been completed for the United States navy. It is a 15-inch rifle, which, it became known tonight, has been constructed without publicity at the Washington navy yard and is now being put through tests at the Indian Head proving grounds on the Potomac, below this city.

SPECIAL SALE OF Royal Kirmanshah Rugs. Beginning Monday, Nov. 9th. Reductions of 20% to 40%. In the districts of Tabriz and Sultauabad throughout a vast area centering about the old city of Kirman, are woven now, as have been for centuries past, the finest rugs Persia produces. Among these the Royal Kirmanshahs are perhaps the most admired by discriminating Rug buyers in America. Their soft, mellow colorings, their design—in most cases representing a Persian flower garden—their fine texture, all these have made them the most favored of all Oriental Rugs. Comprised in this sale are all of a hundred or more Kirmanshah carpets and small Kirmanshah rugs from our stock, reduced in price from 20% to 40%. Sale begins Monday, Nov. 9th, and in many ways is one of the greatest opportunities ever offered Omaha people.

“Room! Room! Give us room to rhyme And we’ll show you fine diversion In this good old Christmas time” One of our department managers placed on our desk a list of Specials, and his reason for price cutting was that ROOM was needed. The human brain is a funny thing. When our attention was called to the necessity of making room, it reminded us of our boyhood. In those far away days we belonged to an organization called “White Boys” and we dressed ourselves up very much as our boys who play “Indian” do, and went from house to house at Yuletide, dressed up gaily, indulging in mimic warfare and ending by fighting a duel and resurrecting or restoring King George who had been laid low—“from a deep and deadly wound”—The doggerel at the head was sung by us upon first entering the house.

Now at Thomas Kilpatrick & Co's. on Monday We'll show you fine diversion; but it will be no mimic warfare. There will be really serious cutting—all, however, to your benefit rather than to your injury.

In our whole retail experience, we have never presented more opportune bargains—nor all things considered, better values. You will not see no wildly extravagant statements—but in every case a satisfactory reduction from the former prices—recognized by the knowing ones as being always low in the first place.
