Two national conventions, representing perhaps the greatest woman's movements of the world, will convene this week in the south. The National Woman's Suffrage association meets in Nashville, Tennessee, Thursday until the following Tuesday. The National Woman's Christian Temperance union convention opens at Atlanta, Ga., on Thursday also. Nebraska will be well represented at both meetings. Mrs. Draper Smith, Mrs. H. C. Sumner, Mrs. James Richardson from Omaha, and a number of women from Lincoln leave here Tuesday to attend the suffrage convention. Mrs. N. J. McKittrick, president of the Omaha Woman's Christian Temperance union will represent Douglas and three other counties at the temperance meeting and there will be delegates from other points in the state also. Miss Jane Thomson, field secretary of the National Suffrage association, who assisted in the Nebraska campaign, leaves Monday to attend the suffrage meeting.

The district convention of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will be held at the First Methodist church in South Omaha, Tuesday and Wednesday. Eight states will be represented at this meeting. Among the speakers will be Dr. J. F. Boyce, pastor of Grace church in Lincoln, who will speak on "Need of the World Vision"; Tuesday evening, Mrs. C. C. Gates of University Place, conference secretary-treasurer, and Miss Ella Watson of Lincoln, branch corresponding secretary.

The Benson Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. J. V. Starrett Thursday with Mrs. K. Parker as leader. Mesdames C. H. Burrell and A. Nemess were voted into the club as new members. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. Tradle.

The Benson Baptist Missionary circle will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. C. H. Burrell Thursday afternoon.

The membership committee of the Omaha Woman's club, of which Mrs. F. B. Bryant is chairman, will meet Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the parlors of the club building.

The oratory department of the Omaha Woman's club will meet Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in Prof. Reed's studio. Mrs. E. Oehre will read Galworthy's "The Fugitive"; Prof. Reed will talk on "The Art of Cutting a Novel for Public Presentation" and will illustrate the talk with a personal criticism of Mrs. Oehre's reading. The manner of presentation will be discussed, following which there will be a business meeting.

The French department of the Omaha Woman's club will meet Tuesday at 1 o'clock at the residence-studio of the instructor, Miss May Mahoney. Following the grammar lesson there will be readings by the class from "Choses et Autres," a French magazine, published in New York City.

The current topics department of the Omaha Woman's club will meet Tuesday afternoon under the leadership of Mrs. Mary I. Crellish.

Mrs. Wagner Thomas will be leader of the program for the music department of the Omaha Woman's club Wednesday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock. The study will be on "Mignon," by Ambrose Thomas; Mrs. Henry S. McDonald will tell the story of the opera and the following musical program will be given: (a) Overture—Violin and piano, Miss Olga Elmer, Mrs. J. E. Haarmann. (b) "Knowest Thou the Land?" Mrs. H. E. Arnold, accompanied by Mrs. Edith Waggoner. (c) "I Am Titania," Mrs. Wagner, accompanied by Miss Helen Radtke. (d) "Virgin Mary," Mrs. McDonald, accompanied by Miss Esther Pricker.

The Dundee Woman's club will meet at the Omaha Conservatory of Music and Arts, Wednesday afternoon, instead of at the home of Mrs. E. R. Hume, as announced in the year book. The change is made so that art slides, which are loaned by courtesy of the Omaha Society of Fine Arts, may be shown with the stereopticon. Mrs. J. P. Palmer will have charge of the pictures. The entire program will be on "Modernisms," with the following sub-topics: Painting, Mrs. J. P. Palmer; literature, Miss Zora Shields; music, Mrs. T. R. Braden; theater, Mrs. Joseph Potcar; amusements, Mrs. Charles Leslie. Mrs. Braden is leader of the program.

The philosophy and ethics department of the Omaha Woman's club will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the club rooms. Miss Claudia V. Gallaway, instructor of the department, will read a paper on "The Body in Its Relation to the Mind." This will be followed by an informal discussion of the subject.

Mrs. A. O. Peterson will be the leader of the program on "Spanish Art," which will be given by the art department of the Omaha Woman's club Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The special topic for study is "The Alhambra," and Mrs. Peterson will give a sketch of its history and architecture. Mrs. George Payne will tell the legends of the Alhambra.

The Monmouth Park Mothers' club will meet Tuesday.

The home economics department of the South Omaha Woman's club will meet at the home of Mrs. Jay Lavery, Tuesday afternoon. "Doughnuts" will be the subject of experiment and discussion. The hostess will be assisted by Mesdames Shrigley, Roy Dennis, W. B. Meyers, P. W. Ferris and N. R. Bryson.

The West Omaha Mothers' Culture club will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. W. Cox, 607 Parker street. Roll call will be responded to with quotations from Washington, Jefferson and Hamilton. The subject for discussion will be "What Ideals We Can Present Through These Men and How to Do It." Mrs. R. C. Doster will take Washington for her example; Mrs. R. A. McParlane, Jefferson, and Mrs. P. J. White, Hamilton. The general discussion will be based on preparatory reading and will be led by Mrs. C. B. Swan. Miss Clara Siekin will give a vocal solo and Mesdames E. O. Hamilton, P. F. Bonorden and Blaine Truesdell a piano trio.

The Central Park Mothers' league will meet in the auditorium of the school building Friday afternoon. Mrs. George S. Brewster will read a paper on "Care of the Teeth and Its Influence on the Physical Condition of the Child," which

H. Fair. Miss Charlotte White, national organizer, will return to Omaha before the Christmas holidays to federate the seven-city circles of the Child Conservation League of America.

Miss Mabel Daniels of the home economics department of the state university, was in Omaha Thursday, making arrangements for the course of lectures and demonstrations, which will be given at the St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church beginning Tuesday and extending through Friday. Miss Alice Loomis, head of the home economics department at the university, will be honor guest at a reception, which will be held at the church Friday.

The Omaha branch of the Needlework Guild of America will hold its annual distribution Wednesday and Thursday at the First Congregational church. The business meeting will be held Wednesday morning and the reception Thursday afternoon. Last year 3,000 garments were distributed through the channels of the Visiting Nurse association, City Mission and like organizations and it is thought that fully as many garments will be distributed this year.

Mrs. N. J. McKittrick, president of the Omaha Women's Christian Temperance union, leaves Monday evening for the national Women's Christian Temperance union convention, which will be held in Atlanta, Ga. A special train will carry the Nebraska delegates, of whom there are twenty, each one representing 500 members. Mrs. McKittrick is the official delegate for Douglas, Sarpy, Otoe and Cass counties.

The regular meeting of the Omaha Women's Christian Temperance union will be held Wednesday afternoon at the Young Women's Christian association at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. E. Morrison Grout, well known under the pen name of Becky Sharpe and a woman who has taken part in western politics, will be the principal speaker at a meeting of the social science department of the Omaha Woman's club Monday afternoon. Dr. Grace Wightman, chairman of the child welfare department, will give a committee report, and Miss Hazel Evans will sing Schubert's "Serenade" and Cadman's "I Hear a Thrush at Eve." A social tea, to which all members of the club are invited, will follow the program.

Frances Willard Women's Christian Temperance union will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sidney Smith, 3301 Wright street. A miscellaneous program will be given and Mrs. R. E. McKelvy will be in charge of the parliamentary drill. A measuring party was given Friday evening at the home of Mrs. T. R. Ward.
