

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Sentiment in Wheat Pit is Decidedly More Bullish.

CASH ARTICLE IS SELLING WELL

Demand for Foreigners and from Millers Regarded as Encouraging—Trade in Corn and Oats Improving.

SOUTH OMAHA, Nov. 7, 1914. Smaller receipts of wheat are looked for at the southwest as well as at the northwest. It is expected by those in a position to know as to the probable movement of this grain that the chances are for farmers holding wheat to receive their surplus as well as for country elevator prices to reflect the bids now being sent out. Sentiment is more bullish on wheat than in any other grain market. The concern in control of the actual grain, however, is that the price of wheat will be higher than it has been for some time. The first stages of the war abroad and holders in the interior have followed the advances and sold freely on all the hard spots. This wheat has moved freely to primary selling markets, and it is believed that with a further step in the selling higher prices must be paid for farmers and others in order to secure the grain now wanted. In addition to the buying of cash wheat...
