OMAHA may boast of a few precocious specimens among the representatives of the next generation.

This lad is the son of a brilliant young attorney—possibly that accounts for it. Believers in former incarnations will be positive of the fact.

His mother was preparing to celebrate his twelfth birthday, when he protested, saying, "I don't want any birthday party. I just want to take my girl to the theater."

"Oh, you mean the matinee," the mother replied.

"No," said Charles, junior, "I thought we would go in the evening, and I would ask Bob to take his girl, and then, maybe, we would have soda water later."

In the trend of this progressive age, children's parties have become passé. Nothing but a theater party now satisfies.

Whether or not Charles, junior, will be enrolled as the first student of the Montessori school, which a number of Omaha women are seeking to establish in Omaha, is the question.

For the Future.

The Cacti club will give a dance Tuesday evening, November 17, at Chambers' academy.

Mrs. J. J. Sullivan will give a luncheon, followed by a theater party, Thursday, in honor of Mrs. Chambers of Columbus, the guest of Mrs. Homer Robinson.

Mrs. Homer Robinson will entertain at luncheon Friday in honor of her sister, Mrs. E. Chambers of Columbus, Neb., who is her guest.

The Research club will hold its annual meeting Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. Berchman's academy. The director will continue his talk on the "Effects of Divorce."

Mrs. Walter Roberts will entertain at bridge Friday for Mrs. Frederick Wing of Hartford, Mich.

Gantner-Merz Wedding.

A quiet home wedding was celebrated at 1:30 o'clock last evening, when Miss Bertha May Merz became the bride of Dr. Hayes Gantner at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John O. Merz, Rev. Edwin Hart Jenks of the First Presbyterian church officiated.

The bride was dressed in white duchesse satin with trimmings of Chantilly lace and seed pearls. She wore a corsage bouquet of bride's roses.

There were no attendants, only the immediate families of the bride and groom being present. The young people will be at home in Omaha. Dr. Gantner is a popular member of the Elks' Dancing club and the Diets club.

Pleasures Past.

Mrs. M. M. Kline entertained the members of the Rummy club at luncheon Tuesday. A mound of yellow chrysanthemums formed the table centerpiece, and the place cards were of Thanksgiving novelties. Three tables of players were present and the prizes for the game were awarded to Mesdames W. A. Smith, M. M. Kline and Thomas Heelan. Mrs. C. H. Kuhn was a guest of the club. Mrs. Alex Jates will entertain the club in two weeks. The members are: Mesdames: E. H. Oake, C. E. Lovejoy, Thomas Heelan, P. B. Hogan, M. M. Kline, F. O. Browne, Alex Jates, W. A. Smith, Dr. Newton, J. W. Root, R. W. Harney.

The "O-Ai-Ka" club was very pleasantly entertained at the home of Miss Mary Hayes Monday evening. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Rose Hurth Monday evening, November 22. The members present were: Misses—Luna Cassel, Rose Hurth, Carrie Hanson, Rose Hurth. Mesdames—Helen Ellison, Mildred Hanson, Kathryn Lawless, Mary Hayes.

Omahaans in New York. Registering at the Hotel McAlpin in New York City during the last week were Mrs. A. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Stryker and Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Schafer.

Fashion Hint

By LA RACONTEUSE. This design in black and white shows the Roman effect used so strikingly in the season's designs. The creation is of white silk maline, with ruffled skirt over white satin. The Roman body is of black chiffon velvet, laced with silk cords at the sides. The sleeves are long and of white maline, and the white maline ruffled collar sets off the gown.

Harrison-Stevens Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Estelle Belle Stevens, daughter of Congressman and Mrs. Daniel V. Stevens, and Mr. Benjamin Harrison of Omaha was celebrated at noon Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents in Fremont. Rev. W. Ellidge of Weeping Water, an uncle of the bride, officiated. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate family.

Mr. Harrison is a relative of the late President Benjamin Harrison. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison will reside in Omaha.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

Mrs. John W. Batten has returned from a visit to Excelsior Springs, Mo. Mrs. E. Chambers of Columbus is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Homer Robinson, for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Leary have returned from their wedding trip and are located in their home on North Fortieth street.

Social Settlement Benefit.

The Social Settlement is richer by $125 through the luncheon given for its benefit by the women of the First Presbyterian church last Friday.

Entertains at Bridge.

Mrs. Frank Keogh was noxious at a small bridge party in her apartment in the West Farnam today. Large bunches of pink and white chrysanthemums decorated the rooms and there were four tables of players. Mrs. Frederick Wing of Hartford, Mich., formerly Miss Ruth Moorhead of Omaha, was the honor guest.

Wednesday Bridge Club.

Miss Mary Burkley was hostess at the meeting of the Wednesday Bridge club this afternoon. The members are: Mesdames—Harold R. Pritchett, John Potter Webster, Ben Wood.

Misses—Marie Davis, Elizabeth Davis, Mary Burkley, Louise Dinning, Elizabeth Bruce. Misses—Daphne Peters, Gladys Peters, Mildred Butler, Katherine Thummell.

Subscription Dance Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kountze will entertain at dinner this evening preceding the subscription dance at Turpin's academy. The table decorations will be Mrs. Ward roses and covers will be laid for ten.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baldrige will have ten guests at dinner this evening, as also will Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Gaines. Following the dinner, both parties will attend the subscription dance at Turpin's.

With the Bridge Players.

Mrs. Shelby A. Fowler entertained one of the Wednesday bridge clubs at her home this afternoon. There were four tables of players present.

Personal Mention.

Mr. James R. Scobie is confined to his home in the West Farnam, suffering from a sprained ankle.

Mrs. C. J. Chisam was returned from several months spent in southern California. Mr. and Mrs. Chisam have taken apartments at the Maples, where they will remain this winter.

Prof. and Mrs. Charles Greely Abbot of Washington, D. C., were guests of Mrs. C. D. Scott and family Monday and Tuesday. Prof. Abbot is the successor of Prof. Langley of the Astro-physical de-

SETTLEMENT WORKERS WILL SEW THURSDAY

The social settlement department of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae will meet at the Social Settlement house, 2311 South Thirteenth street this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The afternoon will be spent in sewing for the settlement.

HOW I DARKENED MY GRAY HAIR

Lady Gives Simple Home Recipe That She Used to Darken Her Gray Hair.

For years I tried to restore my gray hair to its natural color with the prepared dyes and stains, but none of them gave satisfaction and they were all expensive. I finally ran onto a simple recipe which I mixed at home that gives wonderful results. I gave the recipe, which is as follows, to a number of my friends, and they are all delighted with it. To 7 oz. of water add a small box of Barbo Compound, 1 oz. of bay rum and 1/2 oz. of glycerine. Use every other day until the hair becomes the required shade, then every two weeks. It will not only darken the gray hair, but removes dandruff and scalp humors, and acts as a tonic to the hair. It is not sticky or greasy, does not rub off and does not color the scalp. You can prepare it at home at very little expense.—Advertisement.
