GERMANS FACING STUBBORN FACTS

Petrograd Correspondent Declares Teutons Are Realizing Futility of Meeting All Attacks.

KEEPING SOLDIERS ON MOVE Fighting Forces Said to Be in Continuous Transfer - Invaders Blow Up Bridges in Warsaw Retreat.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Telegraphing from Petrograd under date of Monday evening, the correspondent of the Daily Mail thus sums up the situation on the Russian front:

"The Germans at the present moment are experiencing the truth of the homely proverb that 'You cannot eat your cake and still have it.'"

"Last week they withdrew troops from the East Prussian front and hurried them to Thorn, which was threatened by the rapid Russian advance. This move has been for the moment successful in checking that advance."

"Marching along both banks of the Vistula, the Germans took refuge at Niesha, only twenty miles distant from Thorn and waited there for reinforcements. Soon these began to arrive and moved up the valley of the Vistula with the double object of relieving pressure from the Russian forces making toward Thorn and also threatening the flank of the Russian army which had been making such rapid progress toward the frontier in the neighborhood of Soldau."

"The only way of carrying out the imperial order was to shift troops from Lody, where the nature of the country, all lakes and marshes, make Russian progress very slow. This maneuver has certainly caused the Russians to give way in the Vistula valley, but the effect in East Prussia has been the opposite of that desired. The Russians there are pushing forward at every point and the inhabitants are fleeing before them."

"The Germans apparently have not yet realized the inexhaustible military resources of the czar's immense empire. They, themselves, have only a certain number of men, whom they are obliged to move quickly around like a stage army, in order to create the illusion that they are strong everywhere. When this number is finished Germany is finished."

GERMANS DESTROY RAILROADS. PETROGRAD, Nov. 16.—A statement received from the general staff today said: "After our successful fighting in October along the roads to Warsaw and Pogradec, the enemy began retreating toward his frontier, destroying the roads and railroads. He set on fire the railroad stations and freight sheds, tore up switches and destroyed the reservoirs and water pipes. At some points on the railroad he blew up the rails and their fastenings, thus rendering necessary the use of new rails when repairing the tracks. In addition, all bridges and aqueducts, even the smallest, were damaged in such a way as to make repairs impossible, rendering their rebuilding necessary. Telegraph poles were felled, wires cut and insulators destroyed."

"All this damage seriously impeded our advance and enabled the enemy on the left bank of Vistula to escape outside of our field of action and to get near his territory."

Accumulate Troops. "Taking advantage of this and their complete railway system, the Germans rapidly began to send their troops to the north in order to accumulate important forces against our wing."

"Their concentration in that region was covered by a large body of cavalry, brought from the west, and partly supported by Austrian cavalry."

"Toward the middle of November the German offensive was renewed between the Vistula and Warthe rivers. This resulted in fighting, which is still going on on the front of Plock, Lentschia and Ourell."

"In Eastern Prussia, in the region of Stalluponen, the enemy tried by means of separate bodies of troops to adopt the offensive, but he failed and retreated."

"In the region of Soldau and Nendenburg the battle continues. We maintain our offensive toward Cracow and the front of Galicia."

"The attempts of the Austrians to make a stand on our road have been vain. In the fighting of November 13 we captured ten officers and about 1,000 soldiers."

TEUTONS WIN STRATEGIC POINT. Northern Russian Army is Forced Back to Plock.

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—A general view of the situation in the eastern arena, based on information given out in Berlin, indicates that the latest German victories are such that the advance of the Russians has been rendered more difficult. This success, however, does not mean that the Russian movement has collapsed. Considering the enormous numbers of available soldiers it does not mean even

THE DISCONTINUATION OF THE RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE

The great difficulty for the Russians is found on the Vistula, which separates both wings of their army. The Russian army, which was beaten near Wloclawek, and which apparently came from Warsaw, was driven in a southerly direction, not in the direction from which it had advanced. It was forced along a road running from Kutno to Gombalin, while the northern Russian army, operating near Soldau, was forced back to Plock by way of Lipno. The Germans now are standing on the right wing of the main Russian army, consequently they have won a tactical success, in addition to creating a favorable strategic situation. News reaching here from Vienna is to the effect that all along the Galician border the military activity leads German observers to suppose that the Austrians also have taken the offensive.

Live Stock Plague is Found in Cedar County, Iowa State

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The state of Washington probably will be placed under quarantine today because of the discovery of cases of the foot and mouth disease near Spokane. An inspector there reported that he believed the infected cattle had been shipped west from the Chicago stock yards.

Advices to the Department of Agriculture said the infection had spread to Cedar county, Iowa, and Dane county, Wisconsin.

To assist in prevention of the spread of the foot and mouth disease the interstate Commerce commission announced today it would "contribute whatever it can toward affording relief at the present juncture."

Applications had been made for relief from the assessment of demurrage charges on embargoed shipments of live stock, hay and straw held by orders of the agricultural department. The commission's announcement says: "Carriers are required strictly to observe their published tariff rates and regulations, and may not deviate therefrom. This commission may, however, upon application made to it permit changes in tariffs on less than the ordinary thirty days' notice. Should the carriers or any of them petition this commission to make effective on one day's notice tariffs which will suspend the assessment and collection of demurrage occasioned by the order of the Department of Agriculture this commission will be glad to give prompt and favorable consideration to such applications."

Child Gets Sick Cross, Feverish If Constipated

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "laxative" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

EASY WAY TO KEEP BABY'S SKIN HEALTHY

How to Heal Skin Eruptions and Prevent Their Return.

Very few babies grow to childhood without having some sort of skin trouble. It may be only chafing, scalding, or tooth rash. On the other hand, it may be the worst kind of itching eczema or ringworm.

When I find a little one suffering like that, I always advise the mother to do this: Bathe the sick skin with warm water and resinol soap, pat dry with a soft towel, and put on very gently a thin coating of resinol ointment. She can dust a little good talcum powder over the ointment if she likes. This almost never fails to give INSTANT relief and a few such treatments generally heal the trouble.

Bathing daily with resinol soap is the best way I know to keep baby's skin free from such irritations and eruptions. It is very pure, soothing and healing. All druggists sell resinol ointment and resinol soap. For free samples, write to Dept. 36-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.—Advertisement.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

City Council Orders Ordinance Drawn Regulating Oil Storage.

CITY ATTORNEY WILL DRAFT IT Secretary Stryker of Live Stock Exchange Returns, Relating Statement of Origin of Foot and Mouth Disease.

South Omaha's city council yesterday ordered the city attorney to draft an ordinance limiting the number of oil tanks that can be kept within the city limits. The location of the tanks will also be prescribed. This does not affect gasoline or oil kept in garages. In fact the ordinance will probably go more to regulate the Standard Oil company's place in South Omaha than anything else. Councilman Riha introduced the resolution.

"Something should be done to protect the people of the city from such dangerous inflammations as we had yesterday," said one of the councilmen last night. It was suggested that the council may also introduce a law requiring that all switch engines within the city limits be equipped with smoke and spark consumers.

Out of deference to the fact that the property is used for church purposes exclusively the congregation of Temple

Israel of South Omaha was permitted to pay the principal on paying taxes without the interest.

Paying bonds to the amount of $4,300 were ordered sold by the council in order to pave H street from Sixteenth to Twenty-first streets. The paving of Twenty-first street from D to E was let to the National Construction company.

Stryker Returns. Secretary A. F. Stryker of the South Omaha Live Stock exchange returned Sunday night from Washington and was at his desk yesterday. During his stay at the capital he was very active in the work of assisting the bureau of animal industry in crushing out the foot and mouth disease.

He brought with him the following interview given out by one of the high officials of the bureau on the foot and mouth disease:

The present outbreak of foot and mouth disease in the United States is the greatest epidemic of the kind that has ever befallen the stockmen and farmers of America. Just how serious this outbreak is and how terrible a menace it means for the live stock industry of the United States, the average American farmer can not realize although his German, Russian or French cousin will readily appreciate the serious condition which a present obtains in connection with the present outbreak.

The disease appeared in an isolated corner of Michigan as if dropped from a Zepplin, and thus far no conclusive evidence has been obtained as to the source of its origin. However, its itinerary thence can be followed pretty accurately. It first broke out in the vicinity of Niles, Mich., became infected, and the milk going to the creamery was returned to hog owners as skimmed milk and fed promiscuously to animals in the vicinity of Buchanan, Mich. Some of the hogs were shipped to the Chicago stock yards and slaughtered, but left a trail of infection through every pen, car or runway that they occupied or traversed on route to the slaughter pens. Feeders and stockers shipped into Chicago passed over the infected alleys and runways at the Chicago yards, and were then bought and shipped north, south, east and west, carrying with them infection to every point of destination. In the meantime scores of cars, numerous stock yards and a large number of farms were infected with the result that at present the disease has been discovered in Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Kentucky.

Federation Urges Rail Brotherhoods to Join Organization

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.—The American Federation of Labor in convention here today adopted a resolution "inviting and urging" unaffiliated national and international unions, such as the railroad brotherhoods, to join the federation. The federation also went on record for a more general application of the eight-hour day in all trades before beginning agitation for a six-hour day.

Following is the federation's declaration as adopted today on the question of six-hour work day:

"That we favor progressive decrease of working hours in keeping with the development of machinery and productive forces, believing thereby that a decrease in the hours of labor will tend to a gradual elimination of the unemployed."

We recommend: "1.—That we strive for a more general application of the eight-hour day in all trades and occupations before commencing a general agitation for a six-hour work day, but in the event any national or international organizations desire to commence an agitation for a working day less than eight hours, that they be given the encouragement and moral support of the American Federation of Labor."

"2.—That the American Federation of Labor work unceasingly for the enactment of laws limiting the working hours of women and children to eight hours per day, and not more than forty-eight hours per week."

"3.—Where women's eight hour laws already exist an agitation should immediately begin for the enactment of general eight hour laws."

Howard Day Hurt When Autos Collide

Howard Day of the Omaha Rubber Supply company was badly bruised and cut about the face at 6 o'clock last night when the automobile in which he was riding with his father and sister was hit at Eighteenth and Jackson streets by an auto driven by Joseph Waggener of the Krug brewery.

The Day machine was going west on Jackson street and the car driven by Waggener was going south. At the intersection a wagon suddenly projected itself into the path of the two machines and the collision occurred in the attempt to avoid the wagon.

Young Day was taken into the home of Miss Moore, dressmaker, living nearby, and was given attention by a police surgeon. The others were unhurt. Both autos were wrecked.
