From the chandeller festoons long blast on his whistle for the foot of feathery smilax were carried to the ball boys to appear. They appeared, pellball boys to appear. They appeared, pellmell, from out of one corner of the rooms which is supposed to be their gymnasium door to the very center of the reom.
Then the signal was given, and the ball was carried to the extreme end of the room. Over and over the boys tumbled, one on top of the other. The runner and the ball were somewhere under the pile

Constipation a Penalty of Age

Nothing is so essential to health in advancing age as keeping the bowels open. It makes one feel younger and fresher and forestalls colds, piles. fevers, and other dependent ills. Cathartics and purgatives are violent and drastic in action and should be avoided. A mild, effective laxativetonic, recommended by physicians and thousands who have used it, is the combination of simple herbs with pepsin sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The price is fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. For a trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Wash-

A LIMOUSINE ARISTOCRAT

THIS dainty town car is a joy to the woman who wants a snug, fast, easily-handled enclosed car. With it she can run about the city, in any traffic, stop before any store no matter how crowded the street, and slip into convenient spots where a bigger car could not go. Her driver finds it an easy car to handle. He can make speed with it. He can dodge through dense traffic and skip around corners. On wet days he need not fear skids and slips. Yet he has power for any demand. In comfort and luxury the Hudson Six-40 Limousine is unequaled. In beauty of design and perfection of finish, both within and without, it is meeting every desire of the most critical buyers.

Let us tell you more about it.
