Stiehm is waiting for the approval of Chancellor Avery before sending this tel-egram, but it is reported unofficially that the chancellor has already said he wil not stand in the way of a game with either Illinois or Harvard. Stiehm's tele-gram will not be a challenge, but will merely suggest that Nepraska would like to play Harvard, providing the Huskers defeat Iowa next Saturday and secure the consent of the Missouri valley authorities to a post-season game.

No suggestion will be made where the game will be played, but presumably New York City would land it. Providing the Harvard authorities do not see fit to accept the Nebraska offer there is doubt but the Nebraska management will make a challenge to Illinois for a post-
