CARRANZA NOW REFUSES TO QUIT

Chieftain Repudiates the Telegram by Gonzalez Saying that He Would Retire.

MENTION OF GUTIERREZ

Says He Agreed to Resign If Villa Would Meet Him in Havana-Battle is Imminent North of Mexico City.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 -- General Carranza has repudiated the telegram sent for him by General Pablo Gonzales to General Gutlerres, in which the first chief was represented as saying he would retire. This was announced today in an official dispatch from American Consul Silliman. Carranza declared he had been mis-inderstood. In the telegram Gonzales sent on behalf of Carranza, the first chief was described as ready to resign if both he and Villa relinquished their com mands and met in Havana not later than November 25. No mention was made of the man to whom the executive power was to be delivered and Carranza now declared he never intended to resign in favor of Gutierrex and will not deliver his place to any other than a man whom he could trust to carry out conditions he imposes, While American Consul Silliman ported that great efforts were being made patch up the difficulties through intermediaries, other official advices said big troop movements were under, way Mexico City, where the Villa troops were now advancing southward.

In connection with Carranza's repudia tion of the message sent for him by Gonzales. Villa adherents here declared that convened during the summer in an attempt to heal the first breach between Carransa and Villa, Gonzales acted as spokesman for Carranza and signed the agreement which was later similarly repudiated by the first chief.

"If from such an army, organized on a basis of three years' training, we discharge yearly that increment below the grade of sergeant which has completed its three years' training, we would have, with due allowance for deaths, etc., in the first year of its complete operation an army of 263,700 (205,000 plus 58,700 reserves); in the second year an army of 322,409 (205,000 plus 117,400 reserves); in Brotherhood of Carpenters and the third year an army of 381,000 (205,000) serves); in the fifth year an army of 408,500 (205,000 plus 293,500 reserves).

"After this the army would be main-55,000 each year." Wotherspoon contended the proposed system would be economical inasmuch as the reserve officers and men would receive pay only during their active service and on being called to the colors. He added that he saw no reason why the same principle as to reserves should not be applied to the organized militia. In that connection, however, he says "it must be admitted that unless there be a material change in the laws government, that branch of our military will bring about a greater reliance upon and an increased control by the general governmet, that branch of our military child labor: establishment cannot be regarded and depended upon as a reliable force."
