Weldenfield Not Candidate.

A local morning paper mentioned the name of George Weidenfield, bookkeeper for the Board of Control, as a candidate for the appointment as a member of the board to take the place of the present member, Judge Holcomb, whose term expires in 1915. Mr. Weidenfield said this morning that there is nothing whatever in the story. Mr. Weidenfield said this morning that there is nothing whatever in the story. Mr. Weidenfield's home is in Omaha and he could not be appointed to the position even if he desired it, as the law specifically provides that no two of the members of the bookkeeper out unless he can prevall upon Mr. Kennedy to resign, and the judge shows no signs of that.

Democratic papers that have been trying to select the new appointments to be made by Dr. Thomas, superintendent-elect, published a list this morning in spite of the fact that the doctor does not himself know as yet just what changes he will make in his office force.
