

MASONS TO CLOSE REUNION

Activities of Scottish Rite Order Ends with Banquet Tonight

Work Second Only to the Highest in the Fraternity Will Be Administered This Afternoon to a Large Class.

The Masonic reunion held in connection with the dedication of the new Scottish rite cathedral was brought to a close last night with a banquet in the cathedral banquet hall, where covers were laid for 300 persons. It following the conferring of the thirty-second degree next Wednesday.

At the banquet B. F. Thomas, venerable master, Knights of Kadosh, presided as toastmaster. The dinner was served at 7:30 and following it there were speeches by George W. Schoonover, past grand master of Iowa; M. F. Funkhouser, Omaha; Judge Wilson, Lincoln; J. F. Fitzgerald, Omaha, and Rev. G. G. Baxter, Council Bluffs. The banquet was served by Mrs. Scott, who for twenty years has been caterer to all of the Masonic grand lodge meetings. An orchestra of twenty-four pieces furnished the music.

Lodge work yesterday commenced at 10 o'clock, the thirty-first degree, that of the Inspector-Inquisitor, being conferred upon the members of the class seeking entrance to the Scottish Rite.

Cast of Setting. The setting of the Order of Equity, with this cast: Confucius, John R. Stine; Moses, John C. Simpson; Noah, Saul Levy; Hermes, Frank E. P. Hart, John T. Voss, J. B. Davis, Louis F. Etter and Saul Levy, Zed worshippers.

To Give Thirty-Second Degree. At 3 o'clock the thirty-second degree, that of the master of the royal secret, the highest that can be conferred outside of the city of Washington, was given the members of the class. B. F. Thomas, sitting as venerable master of Kadosh, assisted by John H. Grossman, prior; John R. Stine, preceptor; George F. West, minister of state; Joseph S. Davis, almoner; C. H. Walrath, master of ceremonies; J. W. Dinslow, prelate; A. C. Pancoast, camp orator; Zora Clark, veridic hymns; Dell F. Lough, commanding grand guard; Earl Stiercker, ninth tent; W. G. Glascock, tenth tent; W. H. Miller, seventh tent; W. C. Katsenelenz, sixth tent; Fred Striffler, fifth tent; A. C. Kugel, fourth tent; S. F. Pollock, third tent; L. C. Jensen, second tent; and S. Huntington, first tent, and C. O. Wilson, A. R. Kelley and Gust Martig, guards.

The thirty-third degree is that of the Knights of Kadosh, a degree that Masons all over the world seek to attain. During the week the cathedral has been visited by scores of high degree Masons from all over the country and forty-three who have taken the thirty-second degree and live in states other than Nebraska have been present at the reunion. They assert, one and all, that the Scottish Rite cathedral here, while not so large as some, is the best appointed for doing work and, at the same time, the most elegant of any they have ever seen. Among the visitors, nearly every state in the union has been represented.

Billings Stockmen Protest Against Quarantine Order. BILLINGS, Mont., Nov. 19.—More than 600 sheep and 1,000 cattle, many of them ready for market, are being held in quarantine within four weeks of being shipped in the local yards. It is estimated that more than 30,000 head of sheep and several thousand cattle are being fattened in neighboring valleys. None can be shipped under the present federal quarantine order.

Unless this stock can be moved shortly stock men of this region say they face a loss estimated as high as $200,000. They arranged today to protest to the state veterinarian, asserting that it is unnecessary to maintain the quarantine when no trace of foot and mouth disease has been found within 300 miles of Billings.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Warnings to cattlemen to beware of men posing as representatives of the federal government in their fight against foot and mouth disease, went out from the Department of Agriculture, today. The department says persons who claim to represent the government are appearing in infected states with so-called cures. Officials say there is no specific cure for the disease and that the only way to prevent its spread is to keep well herds from contact with the infected ones.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Importing Countries Continue to Absorb American Grain. DO NOT KICK ON THE PRICES. Warning Countries Are Picking Up All the Available Foodstuffs at the Various Quotations—Features of Trading.

Importing countries continue to absorb every grain of wheat available, and according to the handlers of this grain they are not likely to stop until they are asked to pay.

The cash wheat trade was reported at 90¢ per bu. at seaboard yesterday, and 80¢ per bu. in the northwest and 80.00 per bu. at Chicago. These transactions, while liberal, were not of the nature of the export concerns in the trade, who said that the total export of wheat for the year will probably be 1,000,000 bu. more than made public.

It is expected that the amount of tonnage on the coast will be increased soon, as nineteen steamers arrived at Baltimore Tuesday and yesterday, and these will be followed by others from the coast and flour and are shipped out of this country as quickly as possible.
