

Latest Photos from the War Arena

French sailors on board one of the battleships lying off Ostend cleaning one of the big guns for action

French infantry leaving Calais during heavy fighting on the Yper river

U.S. Cruiser North Carolina now lying off Beirut with the Cruiser Tennessee to protect American life and property in war ridden Turkey

Belgian Cavalry in Furnes

French Colonials in the sand-dunes near Dixmunde

Saving a survivor of the wrecked British hospital ship Ithilla, that went on the rocks near Whitby, early this month

England sends wheat and rice as food to starving Belgians—note all bags addressed to American minister at Brussels

German infantry in action at Eppoghem

British soldiers, encamped along Belgian-French frontier waiting orders to advance to firing line