Mrs. Emma Stolt, No. 697 Atlantic St., Appleton, Wis., writes: "Peruna has done me a great deal of good since I began taking it, and I am always glad to speak a good word for it."

"Three years ago I was in a wretched condition with backache, bearing down pains, and at times was so sore and lame that I could not move about. I had inflammation and irritation, and although I used different remedies they did me no good."

"A neighbor who had been using Peruna advised me to try it, and I am glad that I did."

In a later testimonial, Mrs. Stolt says: "Allow me to express my lasting gratitude for the good your valuable remedies, Peruna and Manlin, have done for myself and family. We have used Peruna for the past twelve years, with never failing results, and could not get along without them in our household. They have saved us many doctor bills."

Those who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

Would You Believe It?

Did you see a few weeks ago a notice in this paper of Advice on Deafness, by a prominent ear specialist? You would hardly believe it, but the requests have simply poured in. This is true not only of readers of this paper but of other papers where the offer has been made. From every part of the United States many of the people who received advice have followed it and are now entirely cured of this most pitiful of all afflictions; many others are well on the road that leads to that happy ending.

One man says, "Your method worked like magic on me. Another writes, 'My head is as clear as a bell. I can hear every natural sound distinctly. Those ear noises have left me.' And so the letters come, one and all, telling of the benefits received."

Here is YOUR opportunity! Deafness Specialist Sproule (Graduate in Medicine and Surgery, Dublin University, and formerly Surgeon of the British Royal Mail and Naval Service), 132 Trade Building, Boston, Mass., who made the previous offer of a Book and Advice on Deafness FREE in this paper, now offers again to Omaha Bee readers.

Advice Free You can also have his famous Book on Deafness FREE by just asking for it. All you have to do is write a card or letter, with a pen or even a pencil, write "Advice and Book on Deafness Wanted," address the card or letter and mail it.

Join your neighbors in taking advantage of this generous offer. Learn for yourself about this new method. Many people right around you, whom you never suspected, have written "They are on the Road to Good Hearing. Why don't you join them?"

Don't wait, therefore, or hesitate, but write for FREE ADVICE and a BOOK, if you wish it. Remember it won't cost you a cent and many of your acquaintances have already accepted the offer. They are very grateful for the help received and you won't regret it either, if you write right now.

LUCILE

Such a stylish, dressy little doll—you never saw her equal—she has a pink dress, pink shoes, pink hat, pink cheeks. She's just a little pink dream, and sweet enough to eat.

Lucile will be given free to the little girl under 12 years of age, that brings or mails us the largest number of doll's pictures cut out of the Daily and Sunday Bee before 4 p. m. Saturday, November 28.

Better Business is the feeling of the best judges right now. You better your business by locating in The Bee building (the building that is always new). Office, Room 101.

Thieves Steal from Tinshop—Thieves gained entrance Monday evening to Leo Baroch's tinshop, 127 Howard street, and carried away solder to the value of $18, besides $1 in cash.

Auto for Police Department—City Commissioners will purchase a Cadillac automobile for the police department. An old machine will be traded, $1,000 being paid in addition. The Cadillac company was considered the lowest bidder.

Gold Fish for Public Schools—Park Commissioner J. B. Hummel is giving the principals of all city schools a big bowl of gold fish. The fish are taken from the Hanson park pool and other artificial lakes in the parks.

Steals Schultz' Turkey—A Schultz, 244 Leavenworth street, brought four fat turkeys to market Monday afternoon, and while his team was standing in front of an establishment at Thirteenth and Jones street some one made way with the birds.

Elevator Conductors' Ball—The first annual masquerade ball of the elevator conductors of Omaha will be given at the Auditorium this evening, and a general invitation has been extended to the public. For those who do not dance the balcony has been reserved.

In the Divorce Court—Mrs. Emma Clines has been granted a decree of divorce from Charles B. Clines on grounds of cruelty. Mrs. Clines Armstrong charges Meyer Armstrong with desertion and non-support. Mrs. Louise Jonnis names Samuel Jonnis in a suit on grounds of cruelty and non-support. J. H. Calvert

Mr. Butt receives letters only at long intervals from Germany, and he says he has no doubt that others of the nephews have been killed even since the last letter was written, for they are all a part of the Ninth Hanoverian corps, which has been in the thick of the fighting from the very beginning of hostilities at Liege to the present time.

Butt Hears Three of His Nephews Killed in the European War

William Butt, who has been greatly concerned since the outbreak of the war about seven nephews who are all in the Kaiser's army, has just received word that three of them have been killed. The three killed were all Uhlans. One was killed in the frightful charges on the fortifications at Liege in the early stages of the war. The other two were killed while charging with the Uhlans on the allied lines at Nancy some time ago. One of the latter two lingered in a hospital some weeks after the battle, but finally succumbed to his injuries.

Wheat on the Omaha Market Reaches the High Mark of Weeks

With a heavy export demand, the Omaha wheat market was the strongest in weeks, though the receipts were but normal. Cash wheat sold at $1.06 1/2 to $1.08, with all of the traders feeling confident that prices are to be higher, instead of lower.

Durum wheat continued to gain in favor among traders and again topped the market, this time at $1.15 per bushel. There were five contracts on sale. Rye again reached the dollar mark, while corn sold up around 92 cents. Receipts for the day were: Wheat, fifty-nine cars; corn, forty cars, and oats, twenty-one cars.

Madden Decides to Contest Election of Judge Foster

R. J. Madden, defeated democratic candidate for the office of police judge, has employed Attorney Ben S. Baker to contest the election of his opponent, Charles E. Foster.

Judge Baker will allege that ballots were improperly counted and that marked ballots were also counted. The official canvass of the votes gave Foster a majority of 202 votes over Madden.

Two Contests Are Filed for Places on County Ticket

Two contests for seats in the Douglas county delegation to the state legislature have been filed. Queenan and Brennan, democrats, who were declared not elected as representatives by the official count by Election Commissioner Moorhead, have filed protests against Larson and Druessdow. Dr. Harry Foster has filed protests against three—Brennan, democrat, and Larson and Druessdow, republicans.

Thiese Takes Charge of the Millard Hotel

The management of the Millard hotel has now changed hands. M. M. Thiese, who has leased the hotel, took charge Sunday. He began to make some changes Monday. A section of the large dining room is being prepared with proper decorations for a formal opening on Thanksgiving day. The barber shop will in the future occupy the room occupied by the cafe.

COYLE GIVEN WATCHCHAIN AND DIAMOND SET LOCKET

Members of The Bee's mechanical departments have presented to Thomas F. Doyle, former superintendent of the mechanical department, a solid gold chain and a locket, set with diamonds, as a token of the high esteem in which they hold him. The date of 1922 and 1914 were inscribed on the locket, depicting the time that Mr. Doyle worked on The Bee.

An Attractive Calendar

By far the most attractive calendar that has been brought to our notice this year is issued by the Pabst Brewing company in connection with their popular malt tonic, sold and known everywhere under the name of Pabst Extract, The "Best" Tonic.

Everyone knows the Pabst Extract Calendar Girl. Each year she appears in a new guise—essentially young—always more and more beautiful. One year she is the "Jewel Girl," the next year she blossomed forth as the "Rose Girl."

But, for 1915, she has chosen a very timely role and one that is sure to appeal most forcibly to all—The "Panama Girl."

TEN MARRIAGE LICENSES GRANTED IN ONE DAY

Applications of ten couples for marriage licenses during the morning combined with the bright sunshine outside caused "Cupid" Stuhendorf at the court house to imagine that this was a June day. Consequently he forgot to take his overcoat when he went out at noon for lunch.

The Last of the Mohicans!

Who of us who read James Fenimore Cooper's story forgets the thrill of the wonderful tale.

This story would be just as good a thriller if we could only bring before your eyes a clear and intelligent description of what the story refers to. If we can arrest your attention sufficiently long so as to impress upon you that justice to yourself demands that you should investigate—Look and examine—this ad will not have been in vain.

THOS. KILPATRICK & CO. will place on sale several hundred Trimmed Hats on Wednesday morning, November 25th, when the doors swing open at 8:30 a. m.

We have held some wonderful hat sales—sales which have been discussed and commented upon from Bar Harbor to Oakland, California, and from Galveston to the frozen north. In point of variety! In point of style! In point of merit! In point of value—We feel like apostrophising—

"O Wondrous Sale, All Sales Excelling"

The price—Thousands have viewed the hats in our windows—and unless all signs fail, because of the dry weather—you will find an immense crowd on hand at the opening hour. The attendance promises to be so great that we may find it necessary to hold the sale on the main floor—If ye have hat needs, prepare to fill them now.

A regular Thanksgiving Sale and probably the very last of our hat sales for the year 1914. Tell your neighbor, please, and mention it to your side partners on the street car. "The last of the Mohicans."

$3.00

Never take pills and preparations containing opium or other digestive ferments for indigestion, as the more you take the more you will have to take. What is needed is a tonic like Chamberlain's Tablets that will enable the stomach to perform its functions naturally. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement
