109 feeders. $33 6 75 54 stears.... 799 6 66 HOGS-Supplies were more sizeable this morning, but shipping demand was not so brisk as on the last few days, and with other points reporting lower prices the local trade opened out very dull and sharply lower. Shippers bought a very few loads on the first rounds that were no more than weak to a nickel lower, but such sales as these were very scarce. and the big end of the shipping purchases looked fully a dime off, while one shipper buyer was guoting some of his stuff as much as life below yesterday. Killers early bids were fully a dime lower, and although sellers held on for a whie they were finally forced to sell on that basis Movement was more or less dragsy throughout. Today's receipts totaled life cars, or about the boot of the stuff as the sellers held on for a whie they through out.

She told the police she had been promised work in stenography by the university, but no such work had been given her.

A year ago Mis Urlas, then a stenographer for a South Omaha justice of the peace, was arrested in an Omaha department store by detectives on a charge of shoplifting. Afterward she led the officers to the Young Women's Christian association, where a large quantity of stolen stuff was concealed.

Victory of Russ Seems Confirmed

LONDON, Nov. 24 .- A dispatch to the Times from Petrograd says:

"The expected victory between the Vistula and the Warts has been confirmed by private advices. Large bodies of the enemy's forces were surrounded and captured near Lowicz. The enemy is reported in some cases as abandoning his
