

BRANDEIS HOME IN MOVIES

Spacious Grounds of Ariena Towers to Furnish Setting for Play.

STAGING FOR THE WISHING RING

Films to Go Onto Circuit Later in the Season and Probably Will Be Shown in This City in Near Future.

When Arthur Brandeis built his country home, Ariena Lodge, near Calhoun, several years ago, the plans were modeled after the Spanish mission house in the "Hose of the Rancho," a Belasco production which was then in the height of its popularity.

The attractive grounds, as well as the spacious veranda and beautiful interior of the home, appealed to an eastern theatrical man, who asked and received permission to stage these two movies at the Brandeis home.

Music

Rudolph Ganz, the eminent Swiss pianist, will probably be heard here in recital about January 4, under the direction of Evelyn Hopper.

Musical America has a scheme for the registration of music teachers, which demands that when a musician makes application for a license he must accompany the same with a statement of his qualifications, and that he shall swear to this before a notary public.

Alma Gluck and her husband, Efram Embaliet, Russian violinist, will be heard in joint recital at the Brandeis theater on January 2, under the management of Miss Hopper.

December 3, violin recital by Miss Luella Anderson, assisted by Signum Landberg and James H. Simms, at the First Baptist church.

December 5, song recital by Miss Minna Meyer assisted by Signum Landberg, at the Young Women's Christian Association's auditorium.

December 10, 11 and 12, San Carlo Grand Opera company under the auspices of the Arab Patrol of Tangle Temple, at the Auditorium.

A pupils' recital was given under the direction of Miss Helen Mackin in her studio on Wednesday afternoon. A program of eight piano solos was played.

Dr. R. F. Williams, superintendent of the Nebraska State hospital, provided for the entertainment of the patients on Thanksgiving evening. The program was arranged and given by Miss Marjorie of the Jean Gilbert Jones studios of Omaha.

The choir of the North Side Christian church will present Jacobus Jacobs in concert at the church on the evening of January 8, next. This will be Mrs. Bond's second appearance at the church, and she will sing a program of her own songs.

The Other Dison company has published "The Quadrains" from the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, set to music by James H. Rogers, which are very much worth while from a musical standpoint.

CENTRAL PARK SOCIAL CENTER GIVES PROGRAM
