By MELLIFICIA. Wednesday, December 2, 1914.

We have launched the Christmas ship off to Belgium, we have organized corps upon corps of Franco-Belgian Relief associations and we hear on all sides "Belgian relief, Belgian relief."

The week seems not to hold a day that does not mark the gathering of a Kensington club to sew for the poor Belgians, but almost in our very midst is there to be a most interesting and praiseworthy act performed.

Mrs. Harry Bosworth of Chicago, sister of Mrs. George Brandeis, is making preparations to adopt two little tots, a sister and brother, if that will be possible, of the Belgian refugees.

Mrs. Bosworth has no children of her own, and is most anxious to open her home to make some others happy.

Mrs. Bosworth has just recently been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Brandeis, and Mr. Brandeis at their home in Fairacres. She returned to her home in Chicago Saturday of last week, accompanied by Mrs. Brandeis, who will be her guest for a couple of weeks.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, Easter lilies and Killarney roses.

Prof. Coolidge presided at the organ and played the Lohengrin wedding march for the bride's entrance and the Mendelssohn march at the recessional.

The bride was given away by her father. She wore a handsome gown of ivory imported satin, entrain. The whole had an overdash of Chantilly lace.

The bridesmaids were: Miss Joan Hunter, sister of the bride; Miss Eleanor Johnson of Oyster, N. Y.; Miss Theda Bershlein and Miss Helen Denton. They were gowned alike, in pink chamois, veiled with faint pink chiffon.

Mr. John Stuart was best man, and the ushers were: Messrs. Thomas Scully of Olean, N. Y.; Allan Tukey of Omaha, Paul Wadsworth of Council Bluffs and Raymond Connor of Denison, Ia.

Mrs. Hunter, mother of the bride, was gowned in gold brocade, draped with black Chantilly lace. She wore a corsage of Mrs. Ward roses and lilies of the valley.

A reception to 150 guests followed the ceremony, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter. The house was decorated with palms, yellow chrysanthemums and Mrs. Ward roses. Coffee was served in the dining room, where Mrs. Ward roses and yellow shaded candelabra decorated the tables.

It is Just Natural To Admire Babies

Our altruistic nature impels love for the coming infant. And at the same time the subject of motherhood is ever before us. To know what to do that will add to the physical comfort of expectant motherhood is a subject that has interested most women of all times. One of the real helpful things is an external abdominal application sold in most drug stores under the name of "Mother's Friend." We have known so many grandmothers, who in their younger days relied upon this remedy, and who recommend it to their own daughters that it certainly must be what its name indicates. They have used it for its direct influence upon the muscles, cords, ligaments and tendons as it aims to afford relief from the strain and pain so often unnecessarily severe during the period of expectancy. Every woman should mention "Mother's Friend" when the stork is the subject of conversation. An interesting little book is mailed free upon application to Brad-Sold Regulator Co., 405 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It refers to many things that women like to read about. Get or recommend a bottle of "Mother's Friend" to-day and write for the book.

SUFFS ARE READY FOR CONVENTION

Nebraska Women to Meet at the City Hall Thursday and Friday of This Week.

IN NATURE OF CONFERENCE

Lincoln Delegates Bring the Decorations—Commercial Club Invites Delegates to Luncheon for Friday Noon.

All is in readiness for the Nebraska Woman Suffrage association convention, which will be held today and Friday in the council chamber of the city hall. The out-of-town members of the executive committee arrived in Omaha at noon, and after luncheon at the Loyal hotel held an executive session. Their first work was to outline the program for the convention.

This meeting is such an informal affair it is more of a conference instead of a convention," said Mrs. Draper Smith, president of the state organization. "We have not even printed programs, but will follow the one outlined by the executive committee."

The Lincoln delegation brought the decorations for the convention hall, chief among them being an immense banner showing the enfranchised states. The suffrage flag of the Omaha Suffrage association and Mrs. Draper Smith's flag will also occupy a prominent position in the convention hall.

The Commercial club has invited the women for luncheon Friday noon. The committee now in session include Mrs. Draper Smith, Mrs. Anna Kovanda of Table Rock, Miss Daisy Doane, Miss Mary H. Williams of Kanesaw, Mrs. W. E. Hardy and Mrs. H. H. Wheeler of Lincoln, Mrs. Z. T. Lindsey, Mrs. A. E. Sheldon, Mrs. Viola M. Harrison and Mrs. W. E. Barkley of Lincoln. Mrs. A. H. Dorris of Lincoln has gone east and will not return in time for the convention.

3 Dolls for This Week

We have decided to give two more dolls for second and third prizes, so that if you fail to get the first one, you still have a chance to get one of the smaller dolls. They are very sweet and pretty, too, and will please you, but, of course, you would not expect them to be as big and beautiful as Pricilla, who is for the little girl that brings in the most pictures.

Pricilla is just too beautiful for words to describe. You must come and see her.

Pricilla will be given free to the little girl, under 12 years of age, that brings or mails us the largest number of doll's pictures cut out of the Daily and Sunday Bee before 4 p. m. Saturday, December 5.

Her picture will be in The Bee every day this week. Cut them all out and ask your friends to save the pictures in their paper for you, too. See how many pictures of Pricilla you can get, and be sure to turn them in to The Bee office before 4 p. m., Saturday, December 5.

If you don't win this Dollie, perhaps you can get one next week. Only one doll will be given to any one person.

You can see PRICILLA at the Bee Office

Mary Weldon's Story Will Illustrate
With advanced cancer of groin and breast, for years this stricken woman has lived absolutely ALONE in a dug-out, with dirt floors and walls; her only neighbor nearly two miles away. Presumably she had coal part of past winter, but previous winters her fuel supply depended WHOLLY on weeds collected by herself. Does imagination picture her wind blown garments as she scours the prairie in search of sunflower stalks, the days spent shivering in blankets to save fuel or the luxury of a small fire, scantily fed by fingers numb with cold? Or possibly you can appreciate the nameless dread and constant vigil day and night lest pasture herds should wander over the roof of her abode during her absence, to leave her shelterless, or that she be buried in her cave at night. Her pension of ten a month means warmth and life for this woman. There are a score of others who have received pension checks nearly two years. Surely, friends will gladly pool their magazine business to save this $7,000 FOR THE BENEFIT OF THESE MANY SUFFERERS, no expense being allowed for salaries, fuel or rent.

Meanwhile I must have 1,700 subscriptions to the above magazines in December or $7,000 is lost. May I hope for your patronage, not alone for these magazines, but for any publication whatever.
