The Stores With the Christmas Spirit

Saturday Will Be Great Day in Toyland

Santa Claus has had thousands of toys rushed in to us from his great warehouse in the North—and all the boxes and cases of toys that were left unopened on Opening Day have since been gotten out, and Toyland Saturday will be at its best—complete in every detail.

Come, Children—Come Saturday and See "Uncle Tom's Cabin", Played by Harry Deaves & Co.'s Talking Manikins—In Our Toyland, Third Floor

It will be just as if you were inside of a big theater—everything will be there—the Audience, the Orchestra and all the Actors—but they are all manikins operated by mechanical control. You will see the blood-hounds running after Eliza across the ice. Topsy, Eva and Uncle Tom will be there. We have brought this production here from New York especially for the benefit of the children of Omaha. Performances will begin Saturday at 8:30 and continue to 9 P. M., with intermission of 10 to 15 minutes. Owing to the limited space on our third floor, we admit only children accompanied by parents Saturday, but next week we will have special days for newboys and children in orphan asylums. It will be all FREE. We want every boy and girl to see it.
