After three hours of deliberation the jury yesterday evening brought in a verdict of guilty against Charles A. Heuermann, charged with shooting at John Michels with intent to kill on the evening of Ootober 18 of this year.

Since the start of the trial a week ago packed court rooms have attested the interest aroused in the case. Over twenty witnesses were introduced by the state and a damning web of evidence was NEW YORK, Dec. 4-DRY GOODS-Work goods, quiet; worsted yarma, firm; here, a negro, testified that he had seen wool, very firm and prices were rising; Heuermann heave the scepe of the crime Henermann leave the scene of the crime not a minute after the firing of the shots into the room where Mr. and Mrs. Michels were playing cards with the wife and
