

Latest Photos from the War Arena

Funeral of Earl Roberts Scene at St. Omer where the great British general died. Picture shows the Prince of Wales following the gun caisson bearing the remains.

Bound for home after fighting for King and Country

German General Staff taking observations in the field

German artillery men wheeling heavy field gun into position

Dutch exercising strictest guard on neutrality on the Scheldt

British Trooper of the Lancers in his home made shelter

A big German 42 cm. "shell" filled by two Berlin butchers with sausages and other edibles for the troops at the front

First snow at the front catches these French officers in the square at Bolougne

Ward in German reserve hospital containing French wounded