Builder of Omaha Speedway to Sign Up Speedboys at Los Angeles.

TO LAND THE BIG FELLOWS

Promoter Will Try to Get Barney Oldfield, Burman, Pullen, Rickenbacher, Mulford, Alley and Other Daredevils.

Jack Prince, builder of the Omaha Automobile Spedway, departed last night for Los Angeles, where he will take an active part in the management of the big autonobile race to be held there Christman day, While in Los Angeles Prince will sign up a large number of the country's most promising racing drivers to compete in the opening race here next spring.

Prince expects to induce all the big boys to come to Omaha. The racing fraternity has long been walting for a triple radius track, as the driver who is bent on making fast time realizes that the triple radius is a big benefit on hitting turns at the land will race in the Los Angeles most Christmas, and many more will race n the Santa Monica road race. Prince will be at both events in the interests of the Omaha Speedway.

To Tie Up Big Men. He expects to pledge the consent of Barney Oldfield, Bob Burman, Eddie Pullen, Eddle Rickenbacher, Ralph Mulford, Tom Alley, Eddle O'Donnell, Harry Grant, Gil Anderson and other of the most prominent and well known drivers. Even while Prince is away work will be continued in the construction of the track here. At present the infield is being leveled so that the running board may be attached to the track and the infield leveled 100 feet in from the running board at all points. That 100 feet of the infield will be rolled hard so that a ma hine may come down off the track and still have ample room to come to a stop without danger of striking large knolls which might turn the machine turtle The work on the dike on the west side so that the water from the lake will not scep into the infield or under the track is under way and will be completed soon. Upon the return of Prince next spring the remainder of the track will be built and the grandstand erected for the spening some time around July 4.

Federal Job for Brother Charley?

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7,-(Special.)-Charles Bryan, brother of William J Bryan, is said to be anxious to serve his country in an official place, and the word has been received by friends that he looks with favor on an appointment to the Federal Trade commission.

In official quarters, close to the White House, knowledge that Charles Bryan aspires to a federal position is denied Nevertheless, it is believed that Brothe Charley" has strong support for an of-ficial position aside from his relationship to the secretary of state. Charles Bryan has always subordinated himself to his distinguished brother. It now develops that Charley has got the notion that he has merits of his own that should be recognized, and an appeal has been made in his behalf, it was said today, for an appointment to the Federal Trade commission. These places pay $10,000 a year.

This commission is to be composed of ive members. The president has detwo business men and an economist. Charles Bryan has studied law, but his friends say that he could hardly qualify the affidavit as an answer to charges Mitchell, Pittaburgh sess man, or as an econimist, just as
