JUDGE TO SHOW LAW EXISTS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 23. -Sheriff Dennis Shea, City Judge Thomas Smith and Street Inspector Alexander Aczel, alias Steel, three defendants in the Terre Haute election case, were ordered into the custody of the United tates marshal here late today by Judge Anderson for alleged tampering with government witnesses.

Judge Anderson also asserted that he would put all of the twenty-eight defendents in jail if he heard of any further attempts to influence or bribe government witnesses,

Some Law in Country. "I shall try to teach you gentlemen there is some law in this country," declared the court, after the jury had retired.

During the afternoon seven witnesses, six of whom have pleaded guilty in the election fraud case, testified that they had been taken from the Vigo county jail on a writ of habeas corpus and brought to Indianapolis. The arrest of these men appeared to arouse the indignation of the judge and he questioned United States Attorney Frank C. Dalley as to who was responsible for the imprisonment of the witnesses. The court then ordered that the seven men be held in Indianapolis and not returned to Vigo
