

My Tired Feet Ached For "Tiz"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "TIZ."

"Just couldn't wait to take my hat off!"

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-wrinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your feet will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath. When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." Its grand—its glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions. There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture. Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

HENRY POLLOCK RETAIL DEALER

MARY ANTIN GIVES OUT AN INTERVIEW

Noted Russian Jewish Writer Breaks Her Rule Never to Talk for Publication.

WAR MAKES MORE PROBLEMS

Cuddled up like a little kitten in a corner of the train, her dark, close-cut, curly head bent over Olive Schreiner's "Woman and Labor," Mary Antin, noted author of "The Promised Land," was found. Only the prominent eye glasses, which did not conceal the bright blue eyes, betrayed that here was a woman, for her diminutive size, fresh complexion and girlish figure, clad in a simple Norfolk gown suggestive of a child's apparel, carried out the deception of the close-cut curls.

"A reporter? But I never give interviews, neither do I go to parties. I should like very much to get out of this train and walk ten miles. It is so glorious outdoors, that would be my salvation."

"Meeting people is one of the pleasures I am denied. My strength is limited and I give so fully of myself in friendship that I must deny myself that pleasure. As for interviews, I say all I wish to in my lectures. No one can say it for me as well."

"What will be the effect of the war on immigration? I think that there will be a great flow of immigration to these shores as soon as the war will be over. They will not come in such great numbers, but, still, they will come because they will want to get away from the horrors on the other side, notwithstanding it has been said that the demand for labor will be very great in Europe after the war."

"The effect on the women and children? Well, they, too, will come in great numbers."

"Do you not think this will provide another problem for Americans to solve?" she was asked.

"It will provide another argument for the restrictionists," was the prompt reply.

Glad to Talk on Suffrage.

"I am glad that I was not asked to talk on suffrage," said Miss Antin in speaking of the Political Equality League.

"Are you then not a suffragist?" she was asked.

"Oh, yes, I am a suffragist, but then every Christian cannot be a preacher. Neither should every suffragist essay to be a speaker on the subject."

Miss Antin, or Mrs. A. W. Grabau, as she is in private life, was met at the station by Mrs. F. D. Wead, president of the Political Equality League; Mrs. Frederick Cohn, and Miss Jessie Arnold, head resident of the Social Settlement.

GATEWAY INTO HUNGARY OPEN TO CZAR'S ARMY

while in Grecian circles there is growing an uneasy feeling that Bulgaria may again assert its primacy in Balkan affairs by taking the first step toward active participation in the struggle.

The full along the western battlefield now apparently is being duplicated in the east, where nothing more than isolated actions are being reported.

Interest in the blockade centers today in the attack of German aeroplanes on Dutch cargo ships, one of which flew the flag of the commission of Belgian relief. Holland is awaiting information from Berlin before making a formal protest in this connection.

Call It Great Victory.

PETROGRAD, March 23.—(Via London).—The highest importance is attached to the fall of Przemysl by the Novoe Vremya. Linking the surrender of the Galician fortress to the fall of Metz during the Franco-Prussian war and the capitulation of Port Arthur in the Russo-Japanese war, the paper states that the last obstacle now has been removed to the Russian advance in Galicia and to the heart of the Carpathians.

"Thus is decided the fate of the whole Hapsburg empire and consequently that of its ally, Germany," the Novoe Vremya continues. "There is nothing now to prevent the advance of Russian armies direct to Usok and Luppowa passes."

The Russian authorities have received information to the effect that the defenses of Przemysl are in good condition, notwithstanding the long siege, and are capable of being put into working order immediately. Six hundred guns of the newest type were found in the fortress.

German Official Report.

BERLIN, March 23.—(By Wireless to Bayville).—The following report was given out today at the War office:

"Two French night attacks near Carancy, northwest of Arras, were repulsed. In Champagne German troops successfully blew up mines and repulsed a night attack north of Beaumont."

"Minor French advances near Cambresis, Apremont and Flirey were without success. An attack against the German positions northeast of Badonviller broke down under the German fire. The enemy sustained heavy losses."

"Hostile aviators again threw several bombs on Ostend. No damage was done to the military establishments, but several Belgians were killed or wounded. Northwest of Verdun a French aviator was shot down. A French aircraft manned with two French noncommissioned officers was forced to land near Freiburg. The occupants of the aeroplane were captured."

"German troops are pursuing the Russian troops who were driven from Memel, East Prussia. The Germans occupied the Russian town of Krottingen across the border from Memel and freed more than 2,000 Germans who had been dragged away from their homes by the Russians."

"Attacks made by Russian troops on both sides of the Odra river in Russian Poland were repulsed."

French Official Report.

PARIS, March 23.—(Via London).—The official communication given out this afternoon by the French war department says:

"The enemy yesterday bombarded Rheims. A German aviator dropped bombs on the town and claimed three victims among the civilians."

"In the Champagne region we made progress to the east of Hill 196."

"In the Argonne, near Bazancourt, the enemy twice delivered violent attacks in preparation for the drive on the Meuse. Both times they were repulsed."

LOSE MONEY HAULING COAL

General Agent of Frisco System Tells Commission that Fuel Traffic is Unprofitable.

WANT 8 CENTS A TON INCREASE

CHICAGO, March 23.—Hauling coal is one of the most unprofitable businesses the railroads do. Eugene McAuliffe, general coal agent of the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad, so testified today at the Interstate Commerce commission hearing of the forty-one western railroad systems' application for an increase of freight rates. The railroads are asking for an increase in the rate on soft coal, averaging 7.5 cents a ton from mines in certain states west of and including Indiana. From this increase Mr. McAuliffe testified, the railroads would be able to add $1,236,122 to their annual income.

"The average weighted haul," said Mr. McAuliffe, "is 303 miles, while the average gross revenue is $1.48 per ton under the present rate. This yields 2.42 mills per gross ton mile, while if 80 per cent of the empty return haul is included the revenue is only 2.84 mills per gross ton mile."

"The average increase asked in the western territory is 7.5 cents per ton, which would add about one-fourth of one cent per net ton mile to the cost of hauling."

"Including all roads affected the total additional revenue per year would be $1,236,122. This represents an increase of only 6.38 per cent and would entail an addition of 5.37 cents per capital yearly to the expenses of the population in the states affected."

Mr. McAuliffe testified that the advance of 7.5 cents per ton applied from mines in Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Arkansas and Oklahoma, and some from western Kentucky and Alabama to Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma.

The popular mind, and the railroad hauler should be disbursed of the idea that coal, with its heavy caprods and heavy trainloads, is a necessary foundation to traffic," said the witness. "It is often said that the railway should haul coal at any price and make its profit on hauling other products. This is not true. The coal movement is spasmodic. Instead of being adapted to filling out our trains, it monopolizes almost our entire facilities at the worst season of the year, cold weather."

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin. Neither rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism promptly. It never disappoints.—Advertisement.

CHRISTIANS SLAIN IN UPPER PERSIA

Thousands Flee to Protection of the Presbyterian Mission, Over Which American Flag Waves.

FRENCH MISSION IS DESTROYED

NEW YORK, March 23.—Reports of plundering and murdering of Christians in northern Persia were contained in a cablegram from Tiflis, Transcaucasia, received today by the Persian war relief committee, with headquarters in this city. The cablegram said: "All villages burned except three. Two Christian quarters of Urumiah plundered and a great many people killed. Women taken captives. Fifteen thousand refugees in the American mission. Great danger. The French mission has been destroyed. There are 10,000 refugees in Russia."

The message was signed by Aslanoff, a Russian contractor of Tiflis. Urumiah is in Northwestern Persia. A previous dispatch from Djulfa, Persia, received here March 21, was to the effect that the Turkish consul at Urumiah, at the head of seventy Askaris, recently attacked the American mission there. Priests and deacons upon being ordered to leave the mission were insulted and beaten, it was stated in the dispatch.

Russian troops, it was also said, had been sent for to save the lives of Christians, whom the mission was unable to protect.

Mob Rule for Weeks.

Urumiah has been in the throes of mob rule for weeks, according to reports received here by the Presbyterian board of foreign missions. A reign of terror, in which marauders and bandits held sway, has driven tens of thousands from the city and into the outlying province and has sent other thousands to the protection of the Presbyterian mission there.

Ten thousand persons were housed in the mission three weeks ago, according to information received here. These refugees included almost the entire native Christian population of the city between 4,000 and 5,000, the 200 or 300 American missionaries and teachers whose activities have been conducted under the board's supervision, and a heterogeneous aggregation of foreigners.

Danes, Swedes, Norwegians and other Europeans pressed beside Moslems in the headlong flight for life from the mob to the missions, according to the reports. The doors were open to all. All who could be accommodated within the buildings, it was said, were accorded the protection of the American flag.

The missions themselves embrace a number of buildings, including a great school a mile and a half from the city proper. Several thousand persons, it was thought, could find protection within its walls. Buildings within the city include a commodious modern hospital, twenty-five churches and other schools. Over the principal buildings the American flag has been placed.

The French mission referred to it was said was founded by the Lazarists order and, including the territory of the province, embraced twenty-six chapels and meeting places.

The Christian quarters which were invaded were occupied by colonies of native Christians who called themselves Nestorians and whose occupancy dated back more than 1,500 years. Urumiah was abandoned early in their Persian campaign.

GOMPERS SAYS LABOR OUTLOOK IS BRIGHTER

CHICAGO, March 23.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, arrived here today from Washington to use his influence in an attempted settlement of troubles between building contractors and several trades unions. Mr. Gompers said that the general situation of labor throughout the country was "brightening a bit."

German Aeroplane Attacks Ship With Food for Belgians

LONDON, March 23.—The Daily Telegraph's Rotterdam correspondent sends the following account of the captain of the British steamer Elfrida of an alleged attack on the steamer under charter by the Belgian relief commission by a German aeroplane:

"Because we were carrying foodstuffs and clothing for the Belgian relief commission, we did not expect an attack, although as soon as the aeroplane was sighted we put on full speed. When the intention to attack became evident, I ordered a zig-zag course to make my ship a difficult target."

"Five bombs were thrown, one of them falling so near the ship that fragments of the bursting shell fell on the deck. The airman was still maneuvering overhead when British torpedo boat destroyers were sighted coming to our assistance. Thereupon the aeroplane fled toward land. The Elfrida carried two Belgian relief commission flags, each fifty feet long."

QUIT SNORING

Mrs. Jacob, 1421 Palmwood Ave., Toledo, Ohio, writes: "When I wrote you for advice I had been sick for three years, and had been treated by three doctors, but did not get well. I was very nervous and had trouble with my throat. Often I could not breathe through my nose, and had pains on both sides of it. I also had pains in the chest and a short cough. I had palpitation of the heart and internal catarrh. My appetite was poor, I was always cold, and had gurgling in the bowels. I took Peruna according to directions, and now feel that I am cured. Peruna has cured me. I have never been as fit as I am now, and I do all my work. The pain in the shoulder and chest is all gone. The medicine has done me much good. I shall always keep it in the house."

Our Policy of Publicity

Some corporations say: "What's the use of trying to advertise—what's the use of telling the people anything? They won't listen to what a corporation has to say?"

Don't you believe it! Most people are fair, broad-minded and unprejudiced.

The public can be awfully wrong at times, but it is usually because they have received wrong information.

This company has been criticised time and again in years gone by, but we are not complaining. We should have furnished the public more complete information about our business.

Today—our policies and our problems, our revenues and our expenses, everything about our business—we tell the public.

We are a public service corporation and the public deserve to know what we are doing and why we are doing it.

Then we are willing to place our case squarely up to them. They are the fairest jury we have ever known.

We want the people to know all about our business, because we want their confidence and good will.

It means more business, less trouble, more happiness.

We have the utmost faith in the sense of justice and fair play of the American people. We believe that they want to give square corporations a square deal.
