SCOTT TELLS OF TAKING INDIANS

General Makes Friends with Renegade Piutes and Brings Them In Without Difficulty.

LIKE OVERGROWN CHILDREN

THOMPSONS, Utah, March 24.—Seated at the head of the table, Brigadier General Hugh L. Scott, chief-of-staff of the United States army, at the little hotel at Thompsons, served four docile and happy Indians at dinner last night. A few days ago these Indians were accounted the blood-thirsty leaders of a vicious and desperate band of outlaws.

The Indians were Old Polk, chief of one of the divisions of the renegade Piutes; Tse-Na-Gat, son of Old Polk, who is charged with murder; Old Posey, chief of the other division of renegades; and a son of Posey. All of the Indians referred to General Scott in their Piute tongue as their good white father.

The general insisted that the Indians were not prisoners, but "just his boys." The Indians were bubbling over with delight when the general insisted that the Indians be given a separate table away from the "white folks."

Not a handcuff, not a shackle, binds these Indians, but the tie of genuine regard for General Scott is such that it would probably take a posse larger than that which Marshal Nebeker brought to Bluff to drive them from him.

After they had eaten, the Indians were supplied with cigarettes by General Scott, and then permitted to wander about with perfect freedom. The general's only concern was that the Indians might get run over by a train. They had never seen a railway train before and can hardly resist the temptation to get close to the cars.

The Indians had their first automobile ride coming from Moab today and they are looking forward with eagerness to their first train ride, which will begin when they start for Salt Lake City.

General Scott's story of the pacification of the Indians, told to a Tribune reporter, follows:

"We left Washington to come out here to attempt to settle this little misunderstanding on March 2. With me were Lieutenant Colonel Robert E. L. Michie, my aide-de-camp, and Trooper P. R. Randolph of the Fifth cavalry, my orderly. We reached Thompsons on March 5 and went to Bluff, going by automobile, wagon, sleigh, horseback and on foot.

"At Bluff we learned that Polk and Posey and their Indians had gone to the Navajo mountains, some 130 miles west of Bluff. We stayed a day in Bluff and then went to Mexican Hat, on the San Juan river, twenty-eight miles west of Bluff.

"We sent a friendly Piute, called Jim Boy, out to tell the Piutes I wanted to see them. Some of them came in near where we were camped, but it was not until the third day that any dared to come to the camp.

"Posey and four other Indians then came into camp. We talked a little through a Navajo interpreter. It was in the evening, and I just asked them how they were. I told them I did not feel very well and I wanted to talk to them until the next day. They helped me kill a beef and we gave them a good meal, the first they had had for weeks. They were poorly clad and we gave them some blankets. Posey and his men didn't have any weapons, but I have reason to suspect that they had hidden them in the rocks near by.

"The next day Polk and Hatch and about twenty-five others came in to see me. I asked them to tell me their troubles. They said the cowboys had come in the daylight on horseback and surrounded them, shot their children and wounded a squaw. They said they didn't like the cowboys, because they had previously had troubles with the cowboys.

"Then I told them some of my troubles. I told them I didn't think they would like to have their children chased by soldiers and cowboys all over the mountains and killed. I told them that I wouldn't like to have my children treated that way and that I would be glad to do anything I could to stop it. I didn't try to push matters with them. I told the agents to see that they had provisions and blankets for the rest of their people and for their squaws and children. I told them that after they had thought matters over I wanted them to tell me what they wanted to do about it.

"They talked together and then said they wanted to do just what I wanted them to do.

"Then we sat down in a circle and I said: 'The marshal wants you, you and you,' indicating Posey, Polk, Hatch and Posey's boy, to go with him to Salt Lake. The rest of you can go back to your people and go to the reservation with the agents. Is that all right?' They said yes, and further they said that if I said so they would all go to Salt Lake.

"Then we broke camp and all rode ponies back into Bluff. We rode ahead and let the Indians follow us. Why have never been ironed or shackled, never even led to believe they are prisoners. They never tried to get away. Why? I don't believe we could get rid of them if we tried. At night they have slept together and nobody has stood guard over them.

Hatch Denies Killing Mexican. "They are perfectly harmless now. All the Indians are satisfied. The whites are over their scare and there will be no more trouble from this band of Indians. These Indians are just children, easy to alarm and sometimes hard to appease. They had worked themselves up to a pitch when they were getting very dangerous. They were attempting to get a large band of Navajos to join them in an outbreak. Where they were camped in the wild broken country near the grand canyon they would have been taken a large force of cavalry, two regiments probably, to subdue them and it would have cost the government $25,000 just to get the soldiers in here."

HOUSE GIVES MONEY FOR OMAHA HOSPITAL

Physicians Favor Bill. Mr. Taylor retorted that there are many counties in Nebraska which have no state institutions, but still contribute their full share of taxes to the state treasury.

Mr. Lanigan declared there are enough hospitals at Omaha to furnish the needed clinical material and said if the state should appropriate money to build one of its own it would have to go on year after year furnishing more funds for equipment and upkeep.

Favored Buying Beds. Mr. Norton thought that the state would do better to spend $15,000 or $20,000 to rent beds in Omaha hospitals for clinical patients than to spend $50,000 on a new hospital building.

Mr. Orr was of the opinion that members pledged to economy could not justify themselves in voting an additional $100,000 on top of the special fund that had been provided for university campus extension. Mr. Taylor warned the members that they were taking a long task in passing appropriations that had on them the earmarks of being log-rolled through the legislature.

Ten members, Eberman, Fox, Politz, Hynek, Labounty, Matteson, Parkinson, Stevenson, Woodhurst and Speaker Jackson voted for the appropriation for the hospital, but against the appropriation for the hospital.

The vote on the hospital appropriation was as follows: For the bill and against indefinite postponement: Mears, Meredith, Bates, Myer, Broome, Burgess, Chambers, of Thurston, Chambers, of Douglas, Cox, Dalbey, Dreyfus, Evans, Foster, Greenwald, Harris, Hoffmeister, of Lincoln, Hostetter, Howard, Hunter, Button, Jear, Kuch, Larven, Lundersen.

Against the bill and for indefinite postponement: Anderson of Boyd, Norton, Anderson of Phelps, Orr, Baker, Clayburn, Conley, Cronin, Dufor, Dau, Ebermund, Elmendorf, Fox, Frigg, Fuller, Gault, Gornley, Hynek, Kauffman, Korf, Lafon, Lanigan, Liggett, Lindsay, Matteson, Absent—Blauser, Crinklaw.

Shelton Elects Teachers. SHELTON, Neb., March 24.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the Board of Education held Monday evening the following teachers were re-elected for next school year: E. P. Monroe, superintendent; Lois B. Gardner, principal; Sara P. Thatcher, Grace C. Bradburn, Helen E. Clark and Julia Helm high school teachers, and Ina Simpson, grade one; Verna Barrett, grade two; Edith Jesse, grade three, leaving grades four, five and six yet to supply.

Yanks Buy Berkley. It was rumored about Gotham last week that the New York American league had been purchased by Captain Burton and Colonel Ruppert, had purchased Berkley Oval, the old athletic field.

An Old Recipe to Darken Hair

Common garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and glossy at once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyn's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application of two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy—and no look asks how.—Advertisement.

PRZEMYSL RELIEF KEEPS RUSS BUSY

Task of Putting Fortress in Order and Feeding Starving May Delay Advance Into Hungary.

WESTERN ARENA IS STILL QUIET

LONDON, March 24.—The magnitude of the surrender of Przemysl and speculation as to how quickly the Russians will be able to press the advantages derived therefrom in an advance to Hungary and Silesia continued to be the chief topics of discussion in the war news today.

The Russians are putting the fortress in order. They are sending the prisoners to the rear, feeding the starving populace and tending the sick and wounded. As the task is an enormous one it is presumed that Russia for some time will not be able to divert its strength elsewhere. It is estimated the Russians had six army corps around Przemysl.

Official reports disclose that nothing of importance has occurred in the western arena of the war, but unofficial dispatches from Rotterdam and Amsterdam say that another German offensive on the western front is impending.

Fighting in Carpathians. Stubborn fighting in the Carpathians is going on unabated. At the northern extremity of the eastern lines the Russians admit they have been thrown back from the East Prussian port of Memel and they characterize their advance to this point as merely a reconnaissance. Further to the south the Russians claim that the German attempts to take Osovetz are weakening a majority of the big German guns having been withdrawn.

The strength of the latest Turkish advance on the Suez canal is so negligible, according to dispatches reaching London, that British observers find it hard to believe that the forcing of a passage over this waterway has been seriously considered. The British theory is that the Turks, under German officers, are being led on these expeditions to keep the British troops on the alert to prevent the withdrawal of any forces and to harass the British contingent as much as possible, while really never contemplating an invasion of Egypt.

German Advances Siege of Osovetz. Official announcement has been made in Petrograd, says the correspondent of Reuters' Telegram company that the Germans since Sunday have removed all but four of their heavy batteries from before Osovetz. The Russian statement adds:

A couple of 42-centimeter howitzers were abandoned after the first battle, one of which was damaged by our fire. Shots from the howitzers failed to crush the masonry of the fortress. Superiority in artillery fire was distinctly on our side. Not only was the German attack far from endangering the Osovetz fort, but the enemy failed to dislodge our infantry from its works.

"In an Austrian attack on the 20th on the vicinity of Kaptitz the enemy opened a hurricane fire with 15-inch howitzers, under cover of which twenty enemy battalions at 4 o'clock in the morning attacked our forces, which were in greatly inferior strength. Our infantry opened fire with extremely careful aim at the enemy, who, supported by reserves, appeared to within 200 paces of our trenches. His reserves were exhausted at 9 o'clock and the enemy withdrew, leaving the area covered with his killed and wounded."

Belgians Advance Along Yser. PARIS (Via London), March 24.—(Special.)—The following account of yesterday's events at the front was given out this afternoon at the war office:

"A division of the Belgian army has made progress on the right bank of the trench on the left bank.

"At Hainin, near Verkerke we captured the first line of trenches referred to in the preceding communication; it was a second line.

"On this section of the front our troops are organizing themselves on the further side of this second line. Within a short distance of the summit we captured some prisoners, including officers."

German War Office Report. BERLIN, March 24.—(By Wireless to Sayville.)—At army headquarters today the following statement was given out: "In Champagne there were only artillery duels. In the forest of Le Froite, northwest of Pont-a-Mousson, the enemy attempted to win back ground gained by the Germans, but was repulsed. New attacks by the enemy northwest of Badonvillers and on Reich Ackerkopf broke down under the German fire. Fighting is in progress at Hartmanns-Wellerkopf.

"German troops are pursuing the retreating Russians northwest of Memel, East Prussia. They captured near Pangen 300 Russians and took three guns and three rapid-firers. Quantities of cattle, horses and loads were stolen by the Russians. Near Laugenzargen, southwest of Turoggen and northeast of Martampol Russian attacks were repulsed with heavy losses for the enemy. Northwest of Ostrolenka several Russian attacks failed. Here we captured twenty officers, more than 2,000 men and five machine-guns. East of Plick several charges of the enemy failed.

"The German army expresses cordial thanks to the gallant garrison at Przemysl, which after four months of defense full of sacrifice could be overpowered only by hunger.

Notes from Falls City. FALLS CITY, March 24.—(Special.)—The Christian church congregation had a jubilee meeting on Sunday in an all-day session to celebrate the final paying off of the church debt. The mortgage and notes were burned at the special evening service. The church edifice, worth $5,000, is now free of debt. Chancellor Oeschger of Bethany university delivered the principal sermon.

Rev. M. L. Platz, pastor of the German Evangelical church for the last three years, was returned to this city to again have charge of the congregation. A petition signed by a large majority of the church members requesting his return was sent into the Kansas conference in session at Leavenworth, Kas.

This is an external application to enable the abdominal muscles to become more pliant, to expand naturally without undue pain from the strain upon cords and ligaments.

In almost every settled community are women who have enjoyed the blessing of this famous remedial and helpful embrocation. Their daughters have grown up to learn of its splendid assistance.

Applied as directed upon those muscles involved it soothes the fine network of nerves with which all the muscles are supplied. Thus a great share of the pains so much dreaded may be avoided and the period of expectancy passed through in ease and comfort.

Anything that adds so much comfort must be counted as a blessing indeed. In a little book sent by mail much useful information is given to inexperienced mothers. It tells how to use "Mother's Friend" and how to avoid caking breasts. Get a bottle to-day and write for book to Bradford Regulator Co., 409 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.
