GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

CORN AND OATS ARE EXPORTED

OMAHA, March 24, 1915.

The entire western country is awaiting be closing of large flour transactions on the closing of large flour transactions on Dutch and Italian account, and it was reported that part of this business had been consummated.

It was reported that a prominent miller It was reported that a preminent miller turned down an offer for 250,000 barrels of flour from Italy owing to inability to secure enough cash wheat.

Importers of wheat are again in the market. The cush business at the seaboard was placed as high as 1,20,000 bu, but at Chicage there was only 5,000 bu, but at Chicage the was only 5,000 bu, but Purchasing on orders from the Dutch government appeared to form a large share of the export business in wheat Great Britain, too, was credited with being a buyer, notwithstanding early reports that the British government had ecized the entire supply of wheat in India and would endeavor to prevent all inflated profits.

Shackness of shipping demand handicapped the bulis in corn. Besides, the weather outlook in this country was more auspicious, and the prospects good for the crop in Argentina.

Seaboard call made oats relatively firm the greater part of the day. Late advices, though, were somewhat bearish as to seeding progress, which heretofore has been the subject of much complaint. Liberal receipts of hogs throughout the west had a depressing effect on provisions. On the ensuing break, however, a fair demand sprang up, and the market showed power to rally.
