

DOCTORS MEET IN DES MOINES NEXT

Iowa Capital Wins Over Keokuk in Fight for Fall Convention of Missouri Valley Society.

SPRING SESSION COMES TO CLOSE

Des Moines and Keokuk, Ia., battled Friday morning to be the next meeting place of the Medical Society of the Missouri Valley. Keokuk was making a strong fight until Des Moines pointed out that a city located on the Mississippi river is no place for a society of the Missouri valley to be meeting. Keokuk was located on the wrong river and in the wrong valley. Des Moines was chosen and the time of the next meeting set for next September 16 and 17.

All this was done at the Fontenelle hotel at the final meeting of the spring session of the society.

Friday was occupied with the reading of papers. The following were on the program:

Edward G. Blair, Kansas City, "The Mutability of Gout and Its Bearing on Treatment and Operation."
Caryl Potter, St. Joseph, "Appendectomy for Persistent Vomiting and Distention Substituted for Appendectomy and Enterostomy in Exceptional Cases."

J. M. Bell, St. Joseph, "The Relation of Indigestion to Gastro-intestinal Malignancy."
H. J. Lemhoff, Lincoln, "A Point in the Diagnosis of Gastric Disturbances."
C. E. Ruth, Des Moines, "Minor Surgical Gynecology."
Albert J. Fryer, Omaha, "Positive Diagnosis in Diseases of the Chest" (Intern slides).
E. Couitzer, Omaha, "The Present Relation of Syphilis to Nervous Diseases."
Alfred Schalek, Omaha, "Inherited Syphilis."

Harold Gifford, Omaha, "Accessory Sinus Diseases in Relation to the Eye."
D. T. Quilley, Omaha, "The Use of Radium in Benign Conditions, and as an After Treatment for Malignancy."
L. A. Morrison, Omaha, "Post Operative Nervous and Mental Disturbances."

Officers Elected.

Dr. John P. Lord entertained the officers of the society, and the guests at luncheon at the Fontenelle hotel and the women's committee entertained the visiting women.

Dr. Granville N. Ryan of Des Moines, president of the society, entertained the officers and the guests of the society at dinner at the Fontenelle last evening.

Wins Race Against Time to Join Navy

Charles Forbes of Sioux City won a race with old Father Time, the demon sprinter, and Uncle Sam.

Charles decided yesterday that he wanted to join the navy. He went into the recruiting station in Sioux City. The question of age was brought up.

"I'll be 29 day after tomorrow," said Charles Forbes.

"Then if you don't get into the navy tomorrow you'll never get in," he was told. It was even so. Formerly the age limit was 31, but a year or so ago old Father Time was given better odds in the race and the time limit was reduced to 28.

Charles Forbes looked all right to the Sioux City station if he could just get in under the wire in time.

Time tables were consulted. It was late in the afternoon and Charles Forbes came down on an evening train, stayed here in a hotel over night and presented himself at the recruiting station in the postoffice building this morning before it was open.

"Born March 27, 1885," said his papers. He was a fine specimen and a desirable acquisition for the navy and he was hurried through his examination. The doctor found him sound as a dollar and shortly before noon Lieutenant Tipton delivered his celebrated speech of admission to him and he was sworn in.
