By MELLIFLOIA. Monday, March 29, 1915.

ANNOUNCEMENT comes from St. Louis of the engagement of Mr. Drummond Jones to Miss Marie Busch, daughter of the late Adolphus Busch of St. Louis.

This item of news is of great interest to Omaha, as Mr. Jones has a host of friends here, where he has made frequent visits during the tennis tournaments. He is the well known tennis expert and has appeared in his favorite sport on all the courts in the country. While in Omaha he is reported to have made many galleries of feminine hearts flutter as he tennis-ed gracefully on the Field club courts.

Mr. Jones was the real matinee idol of several seasons here, the dearest of dancers, and has the distinction of introducing the popular blazer to Omaha sportdom.

Rumor has it that to win this fair damsel he admits that he popped the question twelve times. A real knight of old brought down to date. My, say you, how well he must have done it the last time!

APPEAL OF POLICE CASES TO BE HARDER

Officials are getting together on a system to stop long standing abuses. COUNTY IS LOSING MONEY

Abolishment of long standing abuses of police court appeals by which offenders escape punishment and the school board annually loses thousands of dollars of revenue from forfeited bonds may result from conferences undertaken by Deputy Clerk of the District Court, Axel Steere, Jr., and A. C. Wakeley of the School board.

Recommendations that the form of appeal bond be changed and that other reforms be inaugurated will be made by Mr. Steere and Mr. Wakeley. The object sought is to do away with the acceptance by the police court of hundreds of worthless bonds annually.

Decision of Deputy County Attorney Haffas that offenders convicted of misdemeanors defined by city ordinances should pay filing fees when appeals are taken to the district court has produced an apparent deadlock between Police Judge Foster and county officials.

Although the office of the clerk of the district court declines to file appeals unless fees are paid, Judge Foster is continuing to send these appeals to the office, though fees are unpaid.

At the expiration of the time allowed by law for filing appeals the clerk's office expects to send word to Judge Foster that none is on record, leaving it up to the police judge to enforce sentences imposed by him. The county in the past has been losing several hundred dollars a month by failing to collect fees in appeal cases. The leak was discovered by Auditor "Jack" Barnett.

FRANK DUFFY GUEST OF LOCAL JOINERS

General Secretary of United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners is in Omaha.

EXPLAINS AFFAIRS OF UNION

Frank Duffy, general secretary of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, was the guest on Sunday evening of the officers of the local carpenter unions at an informal banquet. Mr. Duffy arrived during the afternoon from Sioux City, where he had been on business in connection with the affairs of the organization, and was welcomed by the local carpenters with much warmth. It is his first visit to Omaha since 1898, and this gives it added interest.

At the dinner the following officers of the local unions sat down with Mr. Duffy: Louis Steinweiz, F. Kinney, Harry Broecker, H. Schesedl, M. Malloy, J. H. Shaw, Theodore Jensen, D. W. Watson, Charles Meth, John Larson, William Brewer, J. C. Drummond, J. Toney, Henry Wulf, H. Shaw, P. B. Kingsbury, J. B. Whitney, W. Darnold, A. Whitlock, W. D. Michler, C. Bradley.

While the dinner was informal in every way it was too good an opportunity to miss, and the Omaha carpenters proceeded to tell their distinguished international officer about what they think of him. W. D. Michler, president of the Omaha district council, presided and called for responses as follows:

Harry Strosser, "Welcome to Our City." Theodore Jensen, "Relations of the District Convention and Local Unions." Henry P. Wulf, "Greater Omaha." John Frank, "Local No. 47, Omaha." W. D. Watson, "Local No. 27, South Omaha." J. H. Shaw, "Local No. 364, Council Bluffs." Charles Muth, "Local No. 178, Omaha." Joseph Darnold, "Local No. 161, Omaha." and "Troubles of Financial Secretaries." A. Whitlock, "Experience of Business Agent." John Larson, "State Legislation."

Secretary Duffy made a short address at the dinner and then, in order that the affair might be properly continued, and that he could answer the questions put to him, the assembly adjourned to one of the halls in the Labor temple, where until midnight an explanation of the new laws and the business management of the organization was had. At its last international convention the United Brotherhood submitted 107 propositions to a referendum vote of the membership, and 105 carried. Most of these propositions have to do with the management and control of funds and other affairs that pertain exclusively to the administration of the brotherhood and are of little public interest. Secretary Duffy was listened to very intently by the local officers, each of whom got some new light on his duties.

One of the new laws of the brotherhood which will be of public interest has to do with wages. In order that the membership shall be made fully responsible for the actions of the organization, a law has been adopted whereby it becomes necessary for 50 per cent of the members affected to vote on the question of advance of wages before the matter will be considered by the general executive board of the brotherhood. This makes it essential that the members take action, and not leave the question to a few.

Railroads Report No Flood Dangers

While the Platte river is reported to have carried out a wagon bridge over the stream, four miles south of Lexington, there are no reports coming to the railroad headquarters that Nebraska streams are reaching a flood stage. Reports to the Union Pacific are to the effect that while there is considerable water flowing in the Platte, the stream has not reached a stage to cause alarm. Along their respective lines the Burlington and Northwestern report all the Nebraska streams free from ice and in no place is the water over the banks. All through the western and northern portions of the state the ground is still covered with snow that is melting very slowly. The wagon roads are in terrible conditions and the fields are so wet that little has been done in the way of putting in grain. Apartments, flats, houses and cottages can be rented quickly and cheaply by a Bee "For Rent" ad.
