A Saving of Time for both customer and yourself when your office is conveniently located. The Bee Building—'The building that is always new'—makes this saving sure.

The State Bank of Omaha pays 4 per cent on time deposits, 3 per cent on savings accounts. All deposits in this bank are protected by the depositors' guarantee fund of the state of Nebraska.

Worth Bus Bank—Leroy C. Worth, proprietor of a cafe and bar west of the new United States National bank, sixteenth and Farnam streets, asks $15,000 damages in a suit in district court, alleging that a board fence built along the sidewalk during the construction of the new bank damaged his business.

San Tabernacle—Cornerstone. The cornerstone of the old Board of Trade building was taken out Saturday noon. The box, containing whatever was inserted some thirty years ago, was taken to the local office of the J. C. Mardis company and will probably eventually be turned over to the Masons, which organization laid the cornerstone. The box was not opened.

High School Pupils In Entertainment. High school pupils will give an entertainment Friday afternoon and evening that is going to rival any road show. The object is to raise money for the athletic fund and for the care of the big central court. The best talent that the school can produce in all lines of entertainment has been procured. A special orchestra has been obtained for the performance.

Following is the program: Overture by special orchestra. Recitation by Equilibrista, Rollo, Sainsonoff, Pupilo. The world's greatest tenor, Signor Dramatic Co. K. H. Schmitz, in 'The Mystery of the Grate,' in the Act Mystical.

Omaha Passenger Men to Meet Train. Although they will arrive at 8 o'clock, which is considered an early hour, it is asserted that practically all the railroad passenger men of the city will be at the Union station Monday morning to greet the railroad passenger managers and general agents, who to the number of 125, will pass through Omaha en route to the Pacific coast exhibitions over the Northwestern-Union Pacific.

The passenger men, who represent nearly every railroad in the United States and Canada, are coming on their own special train over the Northwestern from Chicago, running as a section of the Overland Limited. Here they will remain twenty minutes and be transferred to the Union Pacific tracks. From Omaha the train will be accompanied by Passenger Traffic Manager Fort and General Passenger Agent Haasinger of the Union Pacific. The train is made up of new equipment.

Minne Lusa Tract is To Be Platted Soon. Charles W. Martin & Co. are working out the plat of the ground recently purchased, lying north of Miller park and between Twenty-fourth and Thirtieth streets. It will be a remarkable addition in many ways on account of its great area.

There will be 200 lots, all of them with building restrictions. All houses will be kept forty feet from the line and there will be a minimum cost for each building. The building of moderate-priced bungalows is to be encouraged, and a petition was filed last Thursday for the paving of Twenty-fourth street from the Florence boulevard to the city limits, which runs along the east side of this ground. A movement is also on foot for paving Thirtieth street from Fort street to the city limits.

BANQUET FOR NEW MEMBERS

The date of the coming banquet to be given by Seymour camp, Woodmen of the World, for new applicants and the members securing their applications, has been changed from Thursday, April 15, to Thursday evening, April 22. This will enable several of the members to attend who otherwise would have been unable to do so on account of business matters.

The membership will be given an opportunity to express a choice as to the best place to hold this banquet. So far, the names of about forty members have been received by the clerk and it is expected to increase this number to at least seventy-five in the next two weeks. The camp has had considerable discussion at meetings during the last month relative to a new home, and is about to decide on one of several very fine offers in the business section, now under consideration.

Benson camp No. 225 promises a rousing entertainment in the near future. It will be a celebration in honor of the recognition of one of its five members to a high office in its immediate jurisdiction. All the Omaha camps will attend and make it a boost for Woodcraft at Benson.

Members of Benson camp No. 225, Woodmen of the World, have purchased new uniforms and regalia, which will be used at the next meeting, Friday evening when the lodge will present Mr. Mather, clerk, a gold-mounted gavel, in honor of being elected mayor of Benson.

Comparative Food Values

1 pound of rib roast beef 1 pound of Grape-Nuts Food

Comparative Cost per Pound

1 pound of rib roast beef 1 pound of Grape Nuts food

It would be difficult to find a food that affords the same abundance of true nourishment, at so low cost, as does the famous wheat and malted barley food—

Grape-Nuts

At three-fifths the cost, a package of Grape-Nuts supplies nearly one-third more nourishment than a pound of rib roast beef. And besides, in buying a roast you pay for about 20% refuse, and there's a shrinkage in cooking.

Grape-Nuts food comes ready cooked and every particle in the FRESH SEALED package is good to eat. It's rich nutrition includes the 'vital' salts that are necessary for brain, bone and sturdy muscle. Grape-Nuts is delicious—easily digested—economical.

Thinking people everywhere are more and more adopting Grape-Nuts.
