

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Trading Again Exceeds One Million Shares with Continuance of Strength.

MOST GAINS IN MORNING

NEW YORK, April 14.—Trading in the stock market today again exceeded 1,000,000 shares, with a continuance of the strength and breadth which have made it a most prominent feature.

By far the greatest part of the day's advance was made in the forenoon, dealings in that period aggregating 600,000 shares. All leading issues, as well as two score semi-active and obscure stocks, shared more or less equally in the rise, which was subject to frequent interruptions on profit-taking and moderate renewal of bear contracts.

The railway list, in part, and all copiers, as well as some of the better known equipments and utilities, broke into new high ground, their advance being ascribed in many quarters to purchases by commission houses acting for out-of-town clients.

Motor stocks moved irregularly, some of them falling under yesterday's final quotations. United States Steel led all speculative favorites as to volume of individual transactions, but was made the objective of a fresh selling movement in the final hour, the move extending to Reading and a few other railers and imputing an irregular tone to the close.

United States Steel's relative strength was coincident with the publication of the weekly trade review, which stated in substance that the steel inquiry was not measuring up to the scope of the program attributed in some quarters, although an encouraging view was taken of the export business.

The wild markets for grains and other foodstuffs dispelled all recent peace rumors. Index to the sound investment demand was found in the keen demand for the New Haven one-year notes, which rose to a premium.

Total sales of stocks amounted to 1,000,000 shares. Bonds were again irregular, speculative issues showing further heaviness. Total sales, par value, aggregated $4,000,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Number of sales and leading quotations on stocks were as follows:

MORE FUNDS FOR GREATER OMAHA

Money for Parks and Sewers to Be Available This Year, but Other Improvements Must Wait.

PLAN TO ANNEX BENSON ALSO

When Governor Morehead signs the Omaha charter amendment bill now before him city officials will have to adjust themselves to various new conditions, some of considerable importance to the municipality.

One important feature gives the city council power to issue sewer bonds in the sum of $200,000 a year for five years without a vote of the people. The present charter allows an annual sewer bond issue of $100,000. This increase will enable the city to begin this year an extensive sewer program, most of which has been outlined.

City Engineer Townsend some time ago declared it would require not less than $1,000,000 to furnish this city with an adequate sewer system. Commissioner McGovern stated that he expected to start on these sewers and extensions this year and complete most, if not all of this work.

Extension of Miller park sewer, from Crown Point avenue to north line of park; extension of Fontenelle boulevard storm water sewer, from Thirty-sixth avenue to Thirty-eighth street; sewer from Eighth and Arbor streets to Fourth and Castelar streets; main sewer along Belt line, from south city limits to Martha street; extension of Saddle creek sewer; storm water sewer on Seward street, Thirteenth street to the river to drain North Omaha bottoms; sewer along Leavenworth street, Twelfth street to river; extension of main sewer, Thirty-third and Cass streets, through Harold Gifford park to Thirty-fourth and Dodge streets.

By the charter amendment, the general park fund may be increased from $60,000 to $60,000 a year, and bonds of $50,000 a year may be issued for parks and boulevards without a vote of the taxpayers.

Another provision requires the city to levy each year a bond retirement fund of not less than $50,000 nor more than $100,000, designed to prevent reaching the limit in the issuance of bonds.

In 1914 the city officials fixed the general fund budget at $1,900,000, which was the charter limitation, in addition to which there was a sinking fund of $500,000, $100,000 for hydrant rentals, $100,000 sewer bonds and $100,000 intersection bonds.

The amendment also permits the paving of any thoroughfare leading out of the city, to be ordered by a two-thirds vote of the council and by a majority of the street within a radius of one and one-half miles from the city hall.

Greater Omaha Fund. In event of Greater Omaha consolidation, the officials of the consolidated city may levy to the extent of the existing legal limitations of the towns so annexed, which really means combining the various funds into one Greater Omaha fund. Greater Omaha may borrow money or issue warrants to cover a five-month period when South Omaha would be without funds for maintenance in that portion of the consolidated area.

Another section provides that in the event of annexation Greater Omaha officials may annex any municipality whose boundary lines are within two-thirds of a mile of Omaha, this having particular reference to Benson.

Who Owns Treasure Box Taken from the Old Board of Trade? If the sealed metal box in the corner-stone of the old Board of Trade building contained any $1,000,000 in gold for example, besides other valuables, how is this treasure to be disposed of? That is a question that is perplexing a few who are interested.

The cornerstone has been removed. The sealed metal box has been taken out. This was done last Saturday. It was removed to the local office of J. C. Mardus company, the wrecking company. As this company felt it had no right to the treasure, the box was carried to the office of E. M. Morrison, jr., one of the former owners of the Board of Trade building.

There is some talk of turning the box over to the Masonic fraternity, as that lodge laid the cornerstone over thirty years ago. It is up to some legal giant to step to the front to expound the status of cornerstone treasure in such a case.

Soil in Condition to Sow Spring Crop

The government's report for the week regarding weather and crop conditions in the corn and wheat belt shows that the soil is in excellent condition for sowing and the winter wheat crop is in good shape. The report follows:

The much needed warmth and good showers, where most needed in the winter wheat belt, were highly beneficial, and caused rapid advancement and the crop is reported in good condition generally. In the spring wheat belt conditions were favorable for sowing, except a soil was too wet in portions of Minnesota, South Dakota and Nebraska, and more moisture is needed in Montana and North Dakota. In the far western portion of the belt conditions are excellent and starting in progressing in the southern portions. Ranges are reported in good condition, and grass in other sections, made satisfactory progress.
