Corn was beloed upward by wheat strength and by continued reports of crop damage in Argentina. Country offerings though, as was the case with wheat in-creased somewhat on the advance. Two stammers were announced to leave Chi-cago tonight with 700,000 bushels of corn for Buffalo, the first vessels of the sea-son. In the cats trade, free buying of July and selling of May by houses that generally act for the seaboard caused a decided narrowing of the spread between the two deliveries. There was also a good deal of speculative buying of July. Packers selling more than wiped out an advance in provisions due to grain atrength and higher prices for hogs. > WILHELMINA OWNERS TO BEAR ALL DELAY COST.

WASHINGTON, April 15 - Apparently the only losers by the prolonged detention of the American food ship Wilhelm ina with its cargo at Falmouth, England. will be the owners of the ship, and the loss will be the amount of the demurrage charges.

The British government has taken the ground that the Wilhelmina was free to sail at any moment after it had arrived at Falmouth. February 9, if it cared to discharge its cargo of foodstuffs, which the captain declined to do. The British government's action in the case is disclosed in a communication to the Amer-Ican embassy in London by Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign minister.
