

TRADE UNION MEN GIVE ULTIMATUM

Want on May 1 What is Offered for July 1 and Also that Hoisters' Union Be Recognized.

CARPENTERS WANT MORE PAY

The ultimatum issued by the Building Trades unionists of Omaha to the building contractors is to come to a head May 1. The bricklayers want an increase of 5 cents per hour, beginning with that date. The carpenters want 55 cents an hour, while their claim is that some of the contractors are paying this, while others are paying but 50 cents an hour. The Hoisting Engineers' union demands jurisdiction over all hoisting work. All of these are members of the Allied Building Trades' Conference, which includes the plasterers, bricklayers, carpenters, stone cutters and hoisting engineers.

The allied conference has asked the contractors to see to it that no nonunion men in any of these five building crafts be employed, and has stated in a letter that if nonunion men are employed in any of these crafts the other union men in all the other crafts will quit the job.

No Word from Builders. While the workers say May 1 is the day on which the increase in wages and other concessions must go into effect the builders have not yet agreed to it and have not signified any intention of recognizing the hoisting engineers' union.

On the other hand, the contractors have practically agreed to allow the bricklayers' advance by July 1, in case the hoisting engineers are dropped as a union. That is in case it is not made incumbent on them to hire union labor for hoisting engineers.

While there are but twenty-five hoisting engineers in the city normally, they are said to be 100 per cent organized. That is every one of them is a member of the union, and they are determined to hang on for their demands. These men get 55 cents an hour on all hoisting jobs and 50 cents an hour on concrete mixers.

Ladies of Maccabees to Hold Their State Convention in Omaha

Mrs. Agnes Temple Boyer, state deputy, representing the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World, is in the city to make arrangements for the grand state convention to be held here on Tuesday, April 20. A fine class will be initiated and the honor guests of the occasion will be Mrs. Alice B. Locke, supreme lieutenant commander. Visitors are expected from all over the state.

The Ladies of the Maccabees of the World is the largest order in the world for women. Its monthly interest earnings alone from bond investments amount to nearly one-third the amount of monthly death claims. The magnificent net gain of $,323 in 1914 shows conclusively the splendid work being done by this order of nearly 150,000 women.

At this convention a delegate will be elected to attend the great supreme review to be held at a later date.

Wonderful Names Owned by Indians

The charms and wonders of Indian nomenclature are unending. A notice just received at the postoffice regarding the sale of lands in the Standing Rock reservation, North and South Dakota, contains a wealth of picturesque and imagination-stirring names of present owners of the lands to be sold, bids for which will be opened May 5. Here are some of the names:

Paul Hiebert, Henry One Bull, Kills Crow Indian, Joseph Shoots the Bear, Shave on One Side, Joseph Different Owl, See the Bear, White Cow Walking, Cyril Good Lettland, Patrick Nokiyhawk, George Lookingback, Aaron Fish, Paul Stretches Himself, Different Tall, James Frankineth, Charles Oterbro.

The names of the women owners are even more picturesque. They include these:

Mrs. Reelwing Bear, Mrs. Pool Bear, Mrs. Did Not Butcher, Mrs. Brush Horns, Mrs. Frosted Red Fish, Mrs. Two Parents, Mrs. Mark Afraid of Hawk, Mrs. Richa the Iron, Mrs. Swift Dog, Mrs. Taken Alive, Mrs. Foolish Thunder, Louise Take the Hat, Louise Lew, Dez. Molly Trester, Julia Two Kills, Martina Goodvoice, Agatha Big Shield, Julia Brown Forehead, Helen Difficulty, Mary Lean Dog, Mamie O'tannain, Annie Sobtail Bear, Florence Afraid of Hawk, Nancy White Alone, Mary Yellow Fat, Jennie Deer Man, Mary Shave Head, Estey Little Whitehair.

MANUFACTURERS TO MAKE TRADE EXCURSION IN CARS

A trade excursion in street cars is planned by the Omaha Manufacturers' association. Next Thursday noon the manufacturers and ladies are to meet at the Commercial club rooms preparatory to making this trip. After lunch they will start in street cars and visit numerous factories in the city. Details of the program are to be worked out later.

THROWS STONES THROUGH A WINDOW FOR REVENGE

Dragon Miric, address the Bailey hotel, was invited to leave the pool hall conducted by John Bolide, 128 South Thirtieth street, for creating a disturbance, and, to get even with the proprietor, went to the rear of the establishment, where Bolide resides, and threw stones through the window at Mrs. Bolide. He was arrested and fined $15 and costs in police court.

Making Good Work Possible.

As long as one is on his feet, he can work after a fashion, no matter how badly he feels. But you cannot do good work—have ambition and energy, feel that life is worth living—with sluggish bowels or torpid liver. Foley Cathartic Tablets go away with that drowsy, dull, tired feeling. They never grip or cause nausea. They're wholesome, cleansing and healthful. Most satisfactory for stout persons. Sold everywhere.—Advertisement.

New Books

Miscellaneous.
KING ALBERT'S BOOK. A tribute to the Belgian king and people from representative men and women throughout the world. $1.50. Hearst's International Library.
In his introduction, Hall Caine tells us that "this book is published as the united voice of the world's gratitude to Belgium for its unexampled heroism and of its sympathy with it in the heavy price it has to pay in discharging the sublime duty which destiny laid upon it of fighting for our side for the liberties of all." The list of contributors includes some 250 names, and their tributes of sympathy, admiration and gratitude are conveyed by means of letters, brief articles, poems, music, pictures and songs. Among the illustrations in the book are an autographed portrait of King Albert from a photograph, a reproduction in colors of a painting by John Lavery of Queen Mary of England, a print in colors from a painting of Louvain cathedral by W. L. Bruckman, a Dutch artist, a pen-and-ink drawing by Charles Dana Gibson of a pathetic little Belgian refugee, a symbolic illustration in colors by Kay Nielsen, a Danish artist, a drawing of "Charlier," by Joseph Pennell, Arthur Rackham's "Unconquerable," and a score of most of others. Most of them in color, contributed by the artists of Europe and America. Statesmanship is represented by Premier Asquith, ex-President Taft, Viscount Bryce, the Hon. Winston Churchill, Paul Cambon, the Earl of Rosebery, Joseph Choate and many more. It is announced that the publishers' profits from the sale of the book will go to the Belgian fund.

WAR BRIDES. By Marion Craig Wentworth. 20 cents. The Century Company.
This play was first printed in the Century Magazine. One night a week or so later, Alla Nazimova, and her company presented it at the Palace theater in New York, and the next morning she was besieged with booking offers. The astounding conditions presented by the play are not peculiar to any one country or any one time.

WHEN A MAN COMES TO HIMSELF. By President Woodrow Wilson. $2. Harper & Bros.
The distinguished author voices his belief that every man, like Kipling's ship, finds himself some day.

THE WORLD CRISIS AND THE WAY TO PEACE. By E. Ellsworth Shumaker. 10 Pp. 75c. J. P. Putnam's Sons.
The author indicates his plea for peace to the president and people of the United States, to all the nations and lovers of peace everywhere, and outlines the duty of this country in an effort to end the war.

BACK TO THE LAND. By Frederick F. Rockwell. 213 Pp. H. Harper & Bros.
The story of how the head of a large manufacturing concern, forced out of business by a trust, built up a new life for himself in the country. Every one who has felt even in imagination the comfort of turning from the worries of purely intellectual work to the solid and wholesome realities of a simpler life, will appreciate the tone of feeling in which Mr. Rockwell has written his story. The difficulties of the inexperienced farmer's tasks are not underrated, nor is his success extraordinary. But the pleasurable acquisition of useful knowledge, the delight of seeing every stroke tell, the sheer joy of good health—these satisfactions the author makes very real to his readers.

THE YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK. By Brigadier General H. M. Chittenden. 24 Pp. $1.75. Stewart & Kidd company.
This is one of the most comprehensive books on the park ever published. It gives a complete history of that region, as well as a full scientific description of its natural wonders. It is an admirable guide book and gives in detail information of camping facilities and hotel accommodations, which make traveling through the park a delight quite apart from its scenic interest. The book contains many illustrations and an elaborate map.

VISIONS AND REVISIONS. By John Cowper Powys. 220 Pp. $2. G. Arnold Shaw.
The author says on his book: "In this book of tentative and provocative essays, I seek rather to indicate the personal nature of my own mind, under the stimulus of the famous masters, than to utter any ex cathedra decisions."

GEORGE BERNARD SHAW: HARLEQUIN OR PATRIOT? By John Palmer. $1.50. The Century company.
Of every famous man there are two—the legendary and the real. The Shaw who has been engaging the attention of newspapers and magazine readers is the legendary Shaw. The real Shaw is just as interesting and in this book, Mr. Palmer introduces the reader to both Shaws.

BYWAYS AROUND SAN FRANCISCO BAY. By W. E. Hutchinson. 184 Pp. $1. The Abingdon Press.
In simple fashion the many byways around San Francisco bay are here described. The author, an ardent lover of nature, brings to the reader all the charm and majesty of the open road, the rolling fields, the towering mountain and the lofty sky.

ESSENTIALS OF ENGLISH SPEECH AND LITERATURE. By Frank H. Vizetelly. 28 Pp. $1.50. Funk & Wagnell company.
An outline of the origin and growth of the language and its literature, with chapters on the influence of the Bible, the value of the dictionary, and the use of the grammar in the study of the English language.

THE HEART OF BLACKSTONE. By Nanette B. Paul. 24 Pp. $1. The Abingdon Press.
The principles of common law put into simple language, to the end that it may appeal to the average person and create a new respect for law as such. The author is a lecturer on parliamentary law, and the book is at once logical and easily understood.

TELLS POLICE DOPE IS PEDDLED ON THE STREET
Joe Sullivan, aged 47 years, who escaped from the city jail last Monday after being arrested for stealing a hairbrush from the Yates Drug company, was re-arrested Friday morning. Sullivan told police officials that he had been using morphine for two years. He came here from Kansas City. He also told the police that he bought morphine every day from the frequenters of a lower Douglas street pool hall, whose names the authorities have. Sullivan was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

FONTENELLE CANCELS PROM

Opposition of School Board Prompts Management to Call Off the Alumni Dance.

WILL BE HELD AT THE ROME

As the result of a positive stand by the Board of Education, which finally induced the Fontenelle hotel management to cancel the date for the high school dance, April 25, the big affair is to be given at Hotel Rome on that night by a new committee, composed exclusively of alumni, and will be called the Student and Alumni prom.

Chandler Trimble, alumnus, has joined with Henry Howes, the original alumni member of the committee, and they will give the dance and musical entertainment as scheduled, except for the change to the Rome. Edward Zipp, of the Loveloy and Chester Trimble, the active student members of the committee, have withdrawn.

Continued opposition to the dance by the Board of Education led Managing Director Abraham Burbank of the Fontenelle to cancel the date there, he said. He declared his hotel would not do anything to displease the board, which insisted that its dignity must be upheld by cancellation of the original plans for the affair. The new arrangement of committee and location resulted, and it is understood that the school board will offer no more opposition.

Unsuccessful efforts have been made by Frank H. Woodland, member of the Board of Education and an alumnus of the Omaha High school, and by Charles S. Elgutter, another alumnus, to have the alumni association of the school formally protest against the proposed ball of the high school students and alumni.

President Stuart Gould of the alumni association received a letter from Attorney Elgutter deploring the fact that the dance is to be called the "Alumni Prom" and is to be given in spite of school board opposition.

President Gould replied that the board of directors of the school is not in a position to refuse sanction when it had never been asked or given, and when the board as a body does not contemplate entering into any social affair except the annual reunion of the classes to be held in June.

Candidates to Try to Displace the City Hall Crowd

Harry B. Zimman, Harry J. Hackett, W. S. Jardine, John C. Drexel, A. A. Lamoreaux and J. W. Metcalfe, six candidates for city commissioners, announce that they have agreed on a platform which will be released today. They further state that they have come to an amicable agreement on the provisions of this platform. They gave out the following statement:

The undersigned candidates for the office of city commissioner nominated at the recent primary election have held a number of conferences and have thoroughly discussed the needs of the city and the issues involved in the present campaign. They have agreed on a platform which is ready in progress for a vigorous and effective campaign. We believe the time has opportune to displace the machine which so long dominated the affairs of the city government; with men who represent the free choice of the voters.

UNIONIST TO KEEP TAB ON MEN WHO LEAVE TOWN

The sixth issue of The Unionist came off the press this afternoon in Omaha. This paper, edited by Max Deasettel, has already received the endorsement of twenty-five labor unions in Omaha. The paper this week advocates a system of keeping a close check on every workman in the various building trades who may leave Omaha in the days or weeks now immediately following the outbreak of the big building-trades strike in Chicago. It advocates this in order that the local unions may know what men may or may not go to Chicago to act as strike breakers in the situation there.

BLACK HERE TO RUSH WORK ON GRAIN EXCHANGE HOME

James Black, head of the James Black Masonry and Construction company of St. Louis, has arrived to look after the erection of the Omaha Grain exchange building, now going up at the corner of Twentieth and Harney streets. Mr. Black asserts that the eight-story Grain exchange building will be rushed to completion with all possible speed, and that it will be one of the best and most attractive buildings in the city.

Work on the foundation is pretty well along and the setting of the steel and the laying of the brick will start within the next few days.
